The Jamaica Exhibition.
 It has been decided by the government after mature consideration to appoint a Commissioner to the Exhibition at Kingston, Jamaica, in the person of Mr. Adam Brown, of Hamilton, a gentleman every way fitted for the position. But whether it would not have been as well to have granted one from the Maritime Provinces also, is worthy of consideration, seeing that their business connections with Jamaica and the Leeward and Windward Islands of the West Indies has hitherto been far more important than Ontario's has been.

Muldoon Won't Withdraw.
 HE WAS OFFERED MONEY NOT TO APPEAR AGAINST PETER RYAN.

The charge of aggravated assault against Registrar Peter Ryan preferred by J. J. Muldoon was not proceeded with in the Police Court, Toronto, on Monday, because the complainant was not in court. An enlargement was made until Thursday. Mr. Muldoon, who was accompanied by his wife, met a reporter of the World in King-street last evening and made this statement:
 "I do not intend to withdraw this charge, not much. I have been offered money to do so, but I won't. Peter J. Brown and Frank Cassidy came to my house on Sunday night. I was sick in bed; perhaps I should not be out to-night. My wife admitted Mr. Brown and he came up stairs to my room. Cassidy remained outside. Brown offered me money, $100, to withdraw the charge and promised me that I would be all right in six months. He said he would also pay my doctors' bills. I have proof in my pocket (slapping his hand on his right side) that would upset the Gri election if I wanted to use it. I spurned Brown's offer of a settlement. You can say that I will certainly appear in court against Ryan for his treacherous assault on me."—World.

Grand Old Times.
 Half the Cabinet at Ottawa are off enjoying themselves with the Governor General at their head, catching salmon or some other fish. The Reform Cabinet of Mr. Mowat is not far behind. Three ministers of the Cabinet have been without seats before and since the election—at the same time business is being done in their names, and we presume they draw their pay and this is what is called Reform. Mr. Mowat, himself is off to the Mountains of New Hampshire; Mr. Ross is taking in the Pacific Slope; Mr. Fraser is at his old home in Brockville and Mr. Hardy is the only man left at Toronto, the Lieut. Governor, Campbell being away across the ocean wave and thus business is made to drag along. We do not know that the country materially suffers by the absence only so much that the taxpayers have to pay for all this fun. The poor laboring men of the country who have to bear the heat of summer and cold of winter are taxed to pay for the fine linen that our rulers wear and the faring sumptuously every day. If some of those that the heat of summer and cold of winter so seriously affect had a little less of the sumptuous things of this life and a little more work to do perhaps the necessity of running to the salt water or to the mountain air might not so often arise. Is it any wonder that the cry of Equal Rights should arise, or that Radicalism and Socialism should prevail to such an extent as to permeate the very troops that surround the throne, and who, above all, have been counted on as the most loyal and the most to be depended on in all cases of disturbance. The fact is the more civilized we get the more costly it becomes. The more governed we are the greater is the nuisance of it until the rulers, for something to do seem to study how to annoy those whom they are supposed to serve, by making laws unjust and unequal and that bears hard upon the common people.

International Exhibition.
 We have to acknowledge receipt of the Prize List of the St. John, N. B., Canada's International Exhibition to be held at that city from Sep. 24th to Oct. 4th. The principal features of this exhibition it may not be amiss to state are: Competition open to the world; space and power free of charge. About $12,000 in premiums; Finest summer climate on the continent of America. The largest building accommodation, and the largest and most conveniently situated grounds in the Maritime provinces, on which $40,000 has lately been expended. A large and comprehensive display of the products of the West India Islands. A large display of the products of the sea fisheries of the Maritime Provinces. A large display of exhibits from Great Britain, the United States and elsewhere. The great Maritime Butter Competition for which prizes amounting to $800 will be offered. Attractive Poultry and Bench Show; competition prizes about $1,200. A great Carriage Competition. A large collection of machinery in motion. A large array of special attractions both on the grounds and throughout the city, including an extensive programme of Raising Competition, for which prizes about $2,000 are offered. Write Ira Cornwall, Secretary, St. John, N.B., for copy of prize list.

D'Alton McCarthy and the Globe.

Nineteen and more election protests have been entered in this province. Perhaps in a half a dozen instances the petitioners hope to succeed. In the balance there will be a "saw off" the conflicting political parties agreeing mutually to withdraw. I do not imagine that in a solitary instance a petition has been filed by anyone who is moved by a personal and heart felt dislike of bribery or corruption. As a rule election protests are entered in the hope that if a new deal be allowed by the courts the result may be changed. This trading in political iniquity is common to both parties and we have no reason to be surprised as we have had every evidence that the majority of partisans have no objection to "Queer" methods so long as they do not embarrass or defeat their party. I do not believe there has yet been an election trial which has proven the existence even among the rank and file of the politicians an abstract hatred of improper methods.

The Globe says: "The Tory papers are dropping the Equal Rights cry now, probably because the Dominion elections are the next elections to be decided." It is not at all unnatural that the Tory papers should do this after the way such papers as the Globe and such politicians and preachers as John Charlton and Principal Caven acted during the provincial campaign. Amongst the Grits it was proven that the Equal Rights movement was a hollow mockery and it is perfectly natural, believing such to be the case, that Conservatives should return to their old organization. Until the present the Globe has continuously assailed D'Alton McCarthy as one of Sir John's decoy ducks. Never for a moment, until it thought it could utilize him, could it be persuaded that Mr. McCarthy was sincere or that he had severed his connection with the Conservative party. Now when it hopes to force Mr. McCarthy into an assault upon the Conservative party it says: "It has been evident for sometime back that he has out all connection with his old friends and is resolved to steer an independent course." It also says: "Mr. McCarthy was one of the ablest and most respectable men on the Tory side and his loss will be felt in the coming campaign." Mr. McCarthy will not thank the Globe for its friendship as its patronage will at once alarm his Conservative followers, particularly when it predicts "that in this province at least he will make inroads upon the Conservative party." The Globe also alleges that he intends to drop the advocacy of Imperial Federation and speaks of this "as a wise step," as if Mr. McCarthy were a man who could put on and take off his principles like a suit of clothes. D'Alton McCarthy has many friends who hold him in such high esteem that even Globe compliments will not weaken their faith in him, but we all thoroughly understand that the conduct of the Grit Wing of the Equal Rights movement during the past campaign has left him in an exceedingly difficult position.

Don.
Dinah Explained.
 While at church an old lady happened to sneeze, and immediately every eye was turned toward her. When she reached home she said to Dinah, her colored maid-of-all-work, who had been her companion at church: "Dinah, why didn't you take the blame of that sneeze on your shoulders? You should have made it appear as though it was you, not I, that sneezed." The next Sunday the old lady sneezed again. Some of the young folks tittered, and there was a broad smile on the faces of the congregation as the simple-minded, faithful Dinah arose and said: "I takes de blame ob dat sneeze my missus had jist sneezed on my own shoulders!"—Youth's Companion.

ON AMERICAN AND ENGLISH VOICES.

BY OLIVER WEXDELL HOLMES.
 "A charming girl for a man of a quiet, easy temperament. The great trouble is with her voice. It is pitched a full note too high. It is aggressive, disturbing, and would wear out a nervous man without his ever knowing what was the matter with him. A good many crazy Northern people would recover their reason, if they could live for a year or two among the blacks of the Southern States. But the penetrating, perturbing quality of the voices of many of our Northern women has a great deal to answer for in the way of determining love and friendship. You remember that dear friend of ours who left us not long since? If there were more voices like hers, the world would be a different place to live in. I do not believe any man or woman ever came within the range of those sweet, tranquil tones without being hushed, captivated, entranced I might almost say, by their calming, soothing influence. Can you not imagine the tone in which those words, 'Peace be still,' were spoken? Such was the effect of the voice to which but a few weeks ago we were listening. It is hard to believe that it has died out of human consciousness. Can such a voice be spared from that world of happiness to which we fondly look forward, where we love to dream, if we do not believe with assured conviction, that whatever is loveliest in this our mortal condition shall be with us again as an unending possession? Your English friend has a very agreeable voice, round, mellow, cheery, and her articulation is charming. Other things being equal, I think you, who are, perhaps, oversensitive, would live from two to three years longer with her than with the other. I suppose a man who lived within hearing of a murmuring brook would find his life shortened if a sawmill were set up within earshot of his dwelling."—July Atlantic.

Vigilant Cure.

Vigilance is necessary against unexpected attacks of summer complaints. No remedy is so well-known or so successful in this class of diseases as Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. Keep it in the house as a safe guard.

THE UNION JACK.

The following (from an exchange) is said to be the origin and history of the "Union Jack."
 "The Union Jack bears on a blue ground the red cross of St. George for England, the white diagonal cross of St. Andrew for Scotland, and the red diagonal cross of St. Patrick for Ireland. The original Union Jack was adopted in 1606, three years after James VI of Scotland became King of England, and consisted of the crosses of St. George and St. Andrew. The name Jack is said to be a corruption of the word Jacobus, Jacques, or James. The flag was adopted 101 years before the two kingdoms were united. During that time they were separate kingdoms, with, as it happened, one ruler. In 1801, when Ireland was taken into the union, the cross of St. Patrick was added."

Sixteen Ugly Sores.

INFLAMMATORY rheumatism through wrong treatment left me with stiff joints and ugly running sores on my limbs, and for seven years I could not walk. When I commenced taking Burdock Blood Bitters I had sixteen sores, but they are all healed save one and I can now walk with crutches.
 MARY CALDWELL, Upper Gaspereaux, N.S.

From a boys composition in the New York Herald: "A hen is an animal made by the creator of the universe, which is covered with feathers and has a bill. The hen stands on two feet except when she is tired and then she stands on one and eats corn with her bill. When the hen is tired she sits down to lay, and which she lays down to set. Then her eggs are good to eat unless they have been set on."

Mrs. Alva Young. of Waterford, Ont., writes, "My baby was very sick with summer complaint, and nothing would help him till I tried Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, which cured him at once. It is one of the best remedies I ever used."

A little boy carrying some eggs home from the shop dropped them. "Did you break any?" asked his mother, when he told her of it. "No," said the little fellow; "but I guess the shells came off some of 'em."

Mothers and Nurses.

ALL who have the care of children should know that Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry may be confidently depended on to cure all summer complaints, diarrhoea, dysentery, cramps, colic, cholera infantum, cholera morbus, canker, etc., in children or adults.

"Aw, you make me tired," as the wagon wheel said to the blacksmith.

 The four greatest medical centres of the world are London, Paris, Berlin and Vienna. These cities have immense hospitals teeming with suffering humanity. Crowds of students through the wards studying under the Professors in charge. The Hospital Remedies made at great expense secured the prescriptions of these hospitals, prepared the specific, and although it would cost from $25 to $100 to secure the attention of their distinguished originators, yet in this was their prepared specific and offered at the price of the cheap patent medicines that flood the market and absurdly claim to cure every ill from a single bottle. The want always felt for a reliable class of domestic remedies is now filled with perfect satisfaction. The Hospital Remedies make no unreasonably claims.
