TERRIBLE DISASTER. NEARLY 200 LIVES LOST AT LONDON ONTARIO.

At London, on the 24th, a steamer carrying an excursion party capsized, drowning the whole party. The city is stricken with grief. Most of the bodies have been recovered. Cause: overcrowding a rotten boat.

THE 24TH IN RICHMOND HILL.

AN IMMENSE GATHERING.
SUCCESS ON EVERY HAND.

More than any other day of the year, Richmond Hill counts on a big day on the Queen's birthday, and, when favored with fine weather is never disappointed.
This year was no exception. The day broke bright and beautiful not a cloud dimming the horizon during the day.
King Sol, to an unusual extent exercised his sovereign power, and his scorching rays added many a half dime to the bill of the lemonade vendors and tent keepers, which were to be found at every corner of the streets and show grounds.
At a very early hour people began to flock into the village and by eight or nine o'clock the village presented quite a lively scene. The crowd continued to increase until the middle of the afternoon when every part of the village was a perfect jam. The crowd was estimated at several thousand. There was plenty going on in the village to attract their attention and seldom in a village of its size, is so much crowded into one day and yet all were successful. The first thing of the day to attract the attention of the public was the Presbyterian

CHURCH OPENING, which was to commence at ten o'clock.

The new church now approaching completion is situated in front of the old one and is a beautiful structure, which does credit to the enterprise of the Presbyterian congregation here, but to the entire village. Over the gateway leading to the church was erected a beautiful arch of evergreens suspended from the centre of which was a crown of evergreens. A full description of the church will appear in our next issue. Shortly after 10 o'clock, at which time the church was crowded entered, Revs. D. J. McDonnell, J. Smith, J. Dick, and I. Campbell.
Several ministers of other denominations were present in the congregations. The service was opened by Rev. James Dick announcing the 100th Psalm, after the singing of which he read 1st Kings, 8:26 to the end and led the congregation in prayer. Rev. D. J. McDonnell read 1st Corinthians III chap. and announced 96th Psalm, after which he announced as his text, John X, latter clause of the 10th verse. It would be unwise for us to follow the speaker through the discourse, as it would be impossible for us to do him justice; suffice it to say that it was a masterly, eloquent and impressive exposition of the passage. After the sermon an appeal was made for assistance to liquidate the debt still remaining on the church, which cost $8,000 and on which there still remained a debt of $2,500. The appeal was heartily responded to. A collection of about $160 was taken. The ladies then served dinner in the basement of the church which was liberally patronized as was also the tea.

A PLATFORM MEETING was held in the auditorium of the church in the evening, and excellent addresses were delivered were delivered by Revs.
D. J. McDonnell, P. McLeod and J. Smith all of Toronto, which were listened to by a large and appreciative audience. The next point of interest to the public was the annual

LADIES' AID DINNER, held in the lecture room of the Methodist Church. This was largely patronized and the ladies feel satisfied that it is a profitable enterprise. Lunch was served at all hours and tea in the evening. The ORGAN RECITAL AND CONCERT in the auditorium of the Methodist Church was, like the other undertakings of the day, a brilliant success. The program was well sustained and the selections of a superior quality, almost every rendering being encored by the large and interested audience which filled the church. Miss Hettie MacCallum, whose face is not unfamiliar to a Richmond Hill audience, with her highly cultivated, and magnificent range of voice, drew forth repeated bursts of applause from the audience, as did also Miss Scott and Miss Harris. We are sure that none feel disappointed who took our prediction that it would be one of the best musical programs ever presented to a Richmond Hill audience. The next place of interest was the Ladies' Aid

RAZZAR which was held in the new building north of the church. Here were displayed for sale a large number of fancy and useful articles many of which were disposed of.

This department was also a success, though some of their articles yet remain to be sold. The last and principal attraction of the day was the

ANNUAL EXHIBITION of the Richmond Hill and Yonge Street Agricultural Society, held on the fair ground on Arnold Street. The number of visitors was quite as large if not larger than usual. The show was, in its-self a grand success. Our space will only permit us to make reference to a few of its SPECIAL FEATURES,

but the entire prize list may be expected next week. Some very fine horses were shown, and keen competition in some of the classes, was evident. As usual Mr.
Palmer was to the fore with his now single driver who, though only young bids fair to make a first class trotter. The exhibition of stock was first-class, noticeable among which was Mr. Russels herd of cattle, which were among the best we have ever seen; and Mr. R. Marsh's sheep which are noted through the province for their excellence.
In Carriages there was extensive and keen competition, the principal exhibitors being A. Wright and Son, W. Trinch R. Wilson and Jos. McDonald. Perhaps the largest display in any one line was in machinery, such as agricultural implements &c. It was singly astonishing the number of firms that were represented there. The following are a few of them: Patterson and Bro, Patterson; A. and W. Wilson, Richmond Hill; Fleury and Wilkins works, Aurora; A. Henry Markham; J. Abell, Woodbridge; Toronto Reap and Mower Co., Toronto; Massey Manufacturing Co., Toronto; Huggert & Co, Brampton; A. Harris and Son, Brantford, and others. One line for which there was no provision made in the classification of the various articles, and was consequently classed out, we noticed on exhibition. It was ice waggons, of which there were two on exhibition, one manufactured by Joseph McDonald of Newton Brook, for Mr.
Burns of Toronto, and the other by Mr.
Wm. Trinch, for the Grenadier Ice Company of Toronto. They were both good specimens of workmanship and should at least be recommended by the Judges, as they were both well worthy of a notice.

The fine arts department was held in the skating rink, which made a very good hall for the purpose. The display was not very large in some of the classes, and yet some fine specimens of fancy work, pencil drawing &c, were to be seen. A noticeable feature in this department was several cases of stuffed birds, goats, animals &c, all killed and stuffed by Master Willie Ness, of Patterson. They were indeed beautiful, and reflect credit on the skill and taste of this enterprising youth. Roots and vegetables, were of course almost out of season, though there was a nice display of apples, for which there had been a special prize offered. There was quite an extensive display in fowls, in which Messrs W. and A. Wright took the lead. There were various other features worthy of mention, but space will not permit. Suffice it to say that it was one of the most successful exhibitions held in Richmond Hill, being over two hundred entries in excess of last year and the receipts over $100 above any previous show.

Communications.
WESTON.

(From Our Own Correspondent.) A public meeting of the inhabitants of this village was held on Friday last, the 13th inst. Mr. R. Wagsworth, Esq. in the chair, to discuss the advisability of incorporation. Wm. Tyrrell, Esq., addressed the meeting showing clearly the financial aspect of the change, the Township at present being the gainer by several hundred dollars. Notwithstanding an active and determined opposition, the prospect of the project being carried out are very favorable. A committee was appointed to define the boundaries of the village and report to at adjourned meeting to be held on Monday the 23rd.
Yesterday, (Monday) a portion of the operatives at the woolen mills, struck work on account of wages. The girls, upwards of thirty, being the first to leave which they did in a body, and marched through the village. Always a number of the men and boys turned out who were promptly paid and discharged by the prorietor, Mr. Wilby.
This morning, (Tuesday) Mr. Wilby succeded to the demands of the girls and all went to work again. Thus ended the first strike of the season.
The long wished for rain has come at last. The crops in this district, both fall and spring have suffered severely from the long drought.
