THE INDUSTRIAL HOME

It will be seen by an advertisement in another column, that Tenders are being again asked for land for the purpose of erecting a county Industrial Home. The committee on this matter called for tenders for this purpose before the late session of the County Council, but strange to say no advertisement ever appeared in any paper in the County, so far as we are aware. There is something very peculiar about this, but notwithstanding the fact, a large number of tenders were received, the lowest of which we understand was for land adjacent to Richmond Hill station. This did not please our North York friends, especially Newmarketers, who are leaving no stone unturned to secure its location in that aspiring town. Consequently, the committee recommended that the matter be laid over till next session of the Council and another opportunity be given for tendering. Of course Newmarket will come very much below her former tenders, and it will be necessary for others to be on the look out. The course pursued by the committee looks a little peculiar, especially when Mr. Jackson, Reeve of Newmarket is chairman of that committee. We hope that nothing more than a spirit of fairness to the entire county, and not as some assert, that it was a dodge in Newmarket's favor, prompted the committee to suggest calling for new tenders. But apart from this, no place in the county, can claim as favorable or suitable a location for the institution than the property tendered for at Richmond Hill station. It is the most central equally accessible, and as favorable in every other respect as any location in the county. We hope the consideration will be given to the superior advantages of a central location, and in the centre of the municipality that pays the largest amount of any in the county, and that no effort will be lacking on the part of those interested to secure its location near Richmond Hill.

RETROSPECTIVE AND PROSPECTIVE.

With last week's issue the LIBERAL entered upon the fourth year of its existence, and it affords us satisfaction to state that it retains a stronger hold on the reading public to day than it has ever done before. It has in the past, and especially of late, afforded us encouragement to hear words of sounding praise from whose opinions are not indiscriminately expressed, and are worthy of regard. We are young in journalistic life, and experience is a good teacher, we purpose therefore endeavoring to make the future of the LIBERAL even more successful than the past, to accomplish which no effort will be lacking on our part. We shall, as in the past, express an independent and honest opinion on what ever subjects may engage our attention, fearless alike of friend or foe. In all matters we shall firmly endeavor to uphold the right and down the wrong. Our local department shall be fresh, crisp and spicy. But newspaper publishing is very expensive work, and we have been at considerable extra expense enlarging and otherwise improving our paper. The terms as advertised will therefore be strictly carried out, as it is impossible to carry on the publishing business on the "tick" system. We extended the advance term to the 31st., after which the $1.25 terms will be strictly carried out. We are anxious to build up a paying subscription list. All parties in arrears two years will be struck off the list after they receive this paper, and the accounts placed in the hand of the collector.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Some Conservatives appear to regard the replacing of one Conservative by another in the adjoining riding of East Durham, as a proof positive of the popularity of the N.P. The fact is, so fearful were the Tories of the effect of using the N. P. stalking horse, that the subject was not even introduced. The Port Hope Times, (Tory) says of the election:—"The N. P. was never mentioned in the contest; it had no more to do with the return of Dr. Breton than the Canadian Pacific Railway controversy has had."—Peterborough Examiner.

An influential deputation waited on Sir. John Macdonald in London, and requested in substance the re-enactment of a bankrupt law in Canada. Sir. John said he was personally in favor of such a law. There were special difficulties in the way, arising from the concurrent powers of the federal and provincial legislatures. Before proposing anything new the Canadian government would wait and see the result of the legislation now expected from the imperial parliament.

Correspondence.

CARRVILLE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
A couple of government officials, proceeding along the road here, became objects, or rather their equipage, became an object, of considerable interest. By the well carelessness, of one of them in disposing of his mouscham, the back part of the vehicle was ignited, and they journeyed on in a veritable "chariot of fire." They were quite innocent, though, of it, till the fire burst up at their feet, when apparently, not liking such a mode of translation, they jumped out and scouted and otherwise signified their disapproval. Fortunately water was convenient, the fire was extinguished, and they went homeward minus sundry articles of dry goods and horse furniture.
We boast of a daily mail here; it commenced on the 1st inst. Mr. Jno. Combs has the contract.
Mrs. Wm. Cook, the organist in the S. S. was presented with a beautifully illuminated address, by the school, a week ago last Sabbath.
We understand that Mr. Leppington commenced fall wheat harvest on the 6th, earliest ever known in the neighborhood.

TESTON.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Another large Garden Party took place here on Monday evening. At Mr. David Richard's, in connection with the C. M. Church of this place. It being a very warm evening, the strawberries and ice cream took well. The gardens were lit up with Chinese lanterns. The receipts which amounted to nearly $75, were for the church. The Teston band furnished music for the evening and a very enjoyable time was spent by both old and young. We would all like to see another before long.
Another big improvement to Hardscrabble is being made in the way of house painting.
The foolish children were out for a run the other evening. They took a trip out the side road and there built a fire. If you happened not to know them, you would likely have taken them for a squad of zulus.
The young men of this place are having a good time with their ladies now, but one young man went home with his lover the other evening and on his way back he got stuck in the mud and had to come home minus his boots. He thinks it will make cow hide run up for a while. He has ordered a o her pair.

Yours,
PUNCH.
