AT HOME.

Warm weather. Who got a valentine. Deaugh's Game of politics at the Laps. When and where is the next party, supper or concert to be. New Ad. Look out for Oak Hills New Ad next week. It is worth seeing. No skating. There has been no skating this week it being too mild for the ice to freeze. New Tea Store. Increase your Library by buying your tea at Mrs. Harrison's new tea store. Sexagesima Sunday. Last Sunday was Sexagesima Sunday, or the sixteenth day before Easter Sunday. Valentines. Last Tuesday was St. Valentines Day and the young ones seemed to know it as the pretty pictures flew pretty lively. Roads. The roads are in a bad condition at present. The mild weather at the first of the week made the snow disappear very suddenly. Left over. A communication from Cranberry Marsh, via a correspondence from Nottetown, and other interesting matter crowded out this issue. Manitoba. Another of our Vaughan farmers, Mr. Robert Wiles, has decided to go to the "Far West." He intends leaving on the 15th of March. Revival Meetings. The closing service in connection with the revival meetings that have been carried on for some weeks, was held on Tuesday evening last. Disappointed. On Friday of last week we thought we were going to have some sleighing, but we were disappointed as usual, as the rain had to come and take it all away. Accident. Mr. William Michael, a painter in Wrights Carriage works, was about to go down a ladder, he slipped falling about ten feet on his face, marking it up considerably. Lost. A blue silk handkerchief was left in the Lecture Room at one of the special meetings in the Methodist Church. The owner can have the same by applying to the sexton. Another got the fever. Mr. Anthony Craddock, another of our Vaughan farmers, has got the Manitoba fever and leaves for the North West on Monday, March 6th. Street Lamps. Street Lamps would be a big improvement to our village these dark nights. It is so dark that most of the people coming from a distance have to carry a lantern. Credit Sale. The property of Mr. Robert Wiles, will be sold on Feb. 23rd on the 6th Con. of Vaughan, in 31, by public auction, a large quantity of Farm Stock and Implements. N. J. Armstrong, Auctioneer. Important Credit Sale. There will be sold by public auction, on March 1st 1882, in Lot 29, 3rd Con. of Vaughan, a quantity of Farm Stock Implements, &c., the property of Anthony Craddock. J. C. Stokes, Auctioneer. Interesting Lecture. On Monday night Rev. W. G. Howson, well known in this vicinity, delivered one of his popular lectures in the Methodist church, Easton, to a good audience. Many of his auditors from Richmond Hill and Maple were glad to hear him once more. The weather. Some of our noted weather prophets have warned us to look out for a snow storm in the latter part of this week. Whatever may come in the latter part of this week, it certainly, in the earlier part of the week looked very much as though, by some inter-cancellation, we had been transported from the middle of February to the middle of April. $66. We are our own town. $5 Cuth. Everything new. Can't get what we want. We will furnish you everything. Many are making fortunes. Ladies make as much as men, and boys and girls make great pay. Reader, if you want a business which you can make great pay at the time you work, write or write to H. Parker & Co. Portland, Maine.

Marble playing. The boys are indulging in this simple game in front of the most of our business places. If an idler or a mischievous fellow goes through one of the windows, and the boys has to pay, it will probably be a warning to those who have been warned and of so on. Something for sh. One evening a week or two ago, some boys were going through this village with a horse and buggy, swinging a log and pounding the horse at a fearful rate and exclaiming that they were on their road to Aurora. A constable had caught them and moved them in a lock-up, it would have served them right, and it would have taught them a lesson, and it would have taught their children how to act. Splendid Workmanship. We were shown a piece of workmanship a few days ago, done in the shop of Mr. R. Sivers, Boot and Shoe manufacturer and dealer, which was among the neatest and best work we have seen in that line. It was a boot made by Mr. W. Sivers, son of the proprietor, and was without doubt a superior piece of workmanship, which could be equalled by few, excelled by none of the city manufacturers. So much for our town. COUNTY GLEANINGS. Riverside. A respectable man named J. H. Haines, residing on Paul street, was struck and knocked senseless by some unknown ruffian on the Mill road about seven o'clock on last Saturday evening. Mr. Haines has given no provocation to his assailant. Markham. A convention of the Liberal-Conservative electors of the east riding of York will be held at Miliken's Corners on the 22nd inst., for the purpose of nominating a candidate to contest the representation of the constituency at the next election for the H. use of Commons. Yorkville. Mr. Beatty, hotel keeper, Davenport road, has sold out his business for the sum of $1,100, it is said to one Cook, in the employ of the Grand Trunk. Parkdale. A pair of robins have been seen and heard in the neighborhood of Chestnut Park, the residence of the Hon. D. L. Meagher. Scarboro'. In anticipation of the present Council being unseated some of the unsuccessful candidates of last January are preparing for another campaign. The road overseer summoned Messrs. C. C. Corby, J. Dwyre, D. Boyd, W. P. Lewis and W. Hinkson for harboring dogs without a license before J. M. Wingfield J. P., who dismissed the case, it being their first offence with costs amounting to $1.60 each. Maple. The farmers of Scarboro' entertained Mr. R. Secor with a grand banquet at the Woborn Hotel, on Monday evening last, being the eve of Mr. Secor's departure for Grimsby, Ont. The attendance denoted the respect in which he is held in the district, as notwithstanding the inclement weather and the bad state of the roads about one hundred farmers and their wives assembled. Mr. John Beck, ardt, Reeve, occupied the chair on the occasion. Feston. (From our own Correspondent.) The house of Mr. John, senr., was destroyed by fire on Saturday the 11th. Mr. John was awakened by hearing the fire and he and his wife and grand daughter had to rush out of the house to escape with their lives. $100 in cash was burnt, and all their household effects except one bed. Cause of fire is said to be an ash barrel close to house. Mr. Hardy has bought the steam saw mill here back again. He takes possession on the 15th inst. Mr. J. Oliver & M. Boyd have sold all their oats of the New Zealand kind for shipment to the U. S. to Mr. D. Simelie for 50 cents per bushel, and if there was no Protection in the U. S. they would have got 55 cents. (From our own Correspondent.) The House of Mr. Duncan McMillen Lot 27, Con. 4, 1p. Vaughan, was broken into by burglars a few nights ago, while Mr. McMillen was away on a visit up west. They took his Black pants and some other goods. As soon as the neighbors discovered the windows broken, and that the house had been robbed, they telegraphed the owner and he at once came home. He did not first about his being away when it happened, as he said "dada, if I had been there they would have murdered me." He has succeeded, so far, in getting some of his neighbors to sleep with him, as he thinks with all the Protection we have, that a man should not sleep alone in a house—specially a single man. YOUTH. BO-PEEP. (From Our Own Correspondent.) HYMNICAL—Some of our best educated carmen several of Mr. Gough's family have embarked on the matrimonial boat. That happiness and prosperity may attend them in their married life is the hearty wish of their many friends. BURRAH FOR JANIT BA—Some of our villagers have caught the Manitoba fever and quite an exodus is expected before the spring is past. Mr. S. Croft has gone already, Mr. E. Smith and G. Rogers purpose leaving next week, Mr. McCann, of Bolton, takes Mr. Rogers' position in Mr. Howland's employ. KLEINBURG QUARTERLY FAIR—The next Quarterly Fair will be held here on the 17th inst., when it is expected considerable stock will change hands. BELLIGERENT.—Mr. D. McCutcheon, failing to receive satisfactory settlement of claim against Mr. W. Agar, decided to take "the worth of it out of his hide." Possibly he may have concluded by this time, that he paid too dear for his whistle, as the fine and costs resulting from the assault exceed $11. Toronto. The ice floes in the bay were covered with gulls on Sunday. Large quantities of field and building stone are being brought to the city daily by the Credit Valley Railway Company. Hundreds of people thronged the Grand Trunk yard on Monday afternoon eager to get a glimpse of the whale which arrived from Montreal on Sunday. A party consisting of Ald. W. B. Searth, Ald. Boswill, W. G. Falconbridge, H. J. Scott, T. W. Fisher, Edgar J. Jarvis, Roger Lambie, and a number of others, left by special car for Winnipeg, per G. T. R., on Monday night last, at 11.45. The Coffee-House Association has progressed so successfully that it is proposed to open the first place of business in a few days in East market-square. The bill of fare which has been printed embraces every thing, hot or cold, which a reasonable man or woman could wish for. On Thursday next in the Council Chamber, there will be an assembly by invitation to formally open the first coffee house. To the Editor of the Liberal. DEAR SIR:—Our Traveller with the Valise" respectfully tenders you his most grateful thanks for the kind and considerate treatment he has received at your hands, and for the liberal spirit in which you have dealt with him, (a poor stray waif from the far away wild rocky region of the cold and boisterous north.) The edition of 1000 copies of his little volume is going so fast that instead of 50 or more copies he will only be able to leave 15 with you, and he hopes the good people of Richmond Hill will show their appreciation of the merited praise he has bestowed on their beautiful village by not allowing them to remain long on the counter of your book store. During the first night of his present visit to Richmond Hill, he had the pleasure of seeing and shaking hands with Mr. Fairbairn, the foreman printer of Mr. Keefler's printing office, a very worthy, and promising young man, yet our "Traveller" does not regret having given his employer a clout over the lug. He will get another and a harder one next time, should he treat our "Traveller" harshly again, of such a vindictive disposition is his semi-wild Canadian cm the rocks, the swamps, and the wild woods of Parry Sound. Dated from the pleasant sitting room of the Royal Hotel, Richmond Hill, this 15th day of Feb. 1882—a splendid day, as bright, as balmy, and as beautiful as a day in April. JAMES ELLIOTT. Dr. Carson's Pulmonary Cough Drops have a wonderful effect in relieving and curing coughs and all affections of the throat and lungs. As Dr. Carson is a well known Canadian physician of over 25 years experience there is little wonder that his Remedies are so popular with Canadian people. R. E. Law special agent for Richmond Hill.
