The Liberal.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 29, 1882.

AT HOME.

Stoves are now in order.
 Jack Frost is here once more.
 Write October after: to-morrow.
 Now bring in your house plants.
 Boy wanted at THE LIBERAL Office.

A common cry now is, "Where can we get wood."
 Minutes of Village Council will appear next issue.

Crowded out.
 A communication concerning Weston High School is crowded out of this issue.

Now Ads.
 We would call attention to Oak Hall's and the Golden Griffon's fall announcements in their new ads. this week.

Paper No. VIII.
 The conclusion of Paper No. VIII of the Humber and its Tributaries, which was crowded out of last issue, will be found on first page.

Mr. Snider's Loss.
 It is estimated that the loss sustained by Mr. Eli Snider, by the burning of his barns and crops, will be $700. The committee appointed to assist in repairing this loss should receive a hearty response to their solicitations.

Successful Canvas.
 Mr. D. S. Reaman, a member of the Soldier Relief Committee, referred to in another column, was in town on Tuesday. He informs THE LIBERAL that his solicitations meet with a hearty response, and the canvas so far is decidedly successful.

Grand Excursion.
 The Elba Brass Band will give a grand Excursion over the Northern Railway to Barrie on Saturday, Oct. 7th. Return tickets can be had at all stations from Parkdale to King. Fare only $1; Children 50 cents, from all stations. No doubt many from Richmond Hill and vicinity will take this opportunity of visiting Barrie. For particulars see posters.

Re-Union.
 A Grand Re-Union will be held in the Masonic Hall on Tuesday evening, Oct. 3rd, under the auspices of the Richmond Hill Mechanics' Institute. A good program has been prepared and it is almost superfluous for us to state what everybody knows, viz: that the enviable reputation of the management for getting up first-class entertainments will ensure its success.

Alex's Coy, of Grant Isle, Aroostook Co., Maine, writes: "Having used Northrop & Lyman's valuable Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hyp-phosphites of Lime and Soda, and derived great benefit from it, I take the liberty of asking you for quotations, and also whether you would be willing to give me the agency for this place, as I am confident there would be a large sale for it in this vicinity when its merits were made known."

Gold Watch for Equestrianism.
 Miss Wright was presented with the gold watch, won as first prize at the Industrial Exhibition for equestrianism, by the Secretary on Friday last. The watch is a very handsome one, and one of which the winner may well feel proud. The competition was open to all lady riders, from whom Miss Wright carried off the laurels. She earned two gold watches, as she rode for a special prize of a gold watch against the same ladies whom she defeated previously, and there was a dispute between the Judges, who apparently have withheld the prize from both Miss Stoddard and Miss Wright. The only thing that really stood in the way of Miss Wright getting the second watch, which was richly earned, was the generosity of Miss Stoddard's friends.

Both Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier are prepared at 233 and 235 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass. Price of either $1. Six bottles for $5. Sent by mail in the form of pills, or of lozenges, on receipt of price, $1 per box for either. Mrs. Pinkham freely answers all letters of inquiry. Enclose 3c. stamp. Send for pamphlet. Mention this paper.

Dedication Anniversary.
 The First Anniversary of the dedication of the Methodist Church will be held on Sunday and Monday next. On Sunday sermons will be preached morning and evening by Rev. Wm. Briggs, of Toronto. On Monday a tea will be served by the ladies from 4 to 7:30 o'clock, after which Rev. Dr. Hunter will deliver his celebrated lecture on "The Marriage Question."

Mr. A. Nelson, Brantford, writes: "I was a sufferer from Chronic Dyspepsia for eleven years. Always after eating, an intense burning sensation in the stomach, at times very distressing, causing a drooping and languid feeling, which would last for several hours after eating. I was recommended by Mr. Dapplewell, Chemist, of our city, to try Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, and I am thankful to say that I have not been better for years; that burning sensation and languid feeling has all gone, and food does not lie heavy on my stomach. Others of my family have used it with best results."

A Wide Awake Journal.
 Little grains of wisdom,
 Little gems of wit,
 May make your life more useful
 And cheer you up a bit.

So says the DETROIT COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER: and looking over the pages of the copy before us, we find the editor has done his best to "cheer you up a bit." You can judge for yourself, if you will send your name and address on postal card, for a sample copy. At present a story complete in each number is published every week, but the announcement is made that in a few weeks the opening chapters will appear of a continued story which it is said, will be the most interesting ever published in a weekly paper. There are several special departments in the paper, all worthy of commendation, and a very full and correct market and live stock report is furnished every week. Both would-be agents or subscribers may hear of something to their advantage by addressing W. H. BORG, publisher, 44 Larned street west, Detroit, Mich.

The Last Sad Rites.

Special to the LIBERAL.
 On Saturday last, a vast assemblage of friends met to convey the remains of the late Dr. John N. Reid to their last resting place in Thornhill Cemetery, where in the family plot, already occupied by father, mother, sister, two brothers and four children, they were laid to rest in "sure and certain hope of a joyful resurrection in Christ." His brother Henry, of Memphis, Tenn., with Harry, attended as chief mourners, but mourners were there by hundreds,—mourners, who felt that they had lost their faithful medical adviser, and also the kind, tender, genial friend, whose pleasant smile and hopeful words, tended much to win for him the love of his patients, and which, added to his superiority as a physician, won for him a popularity, seldom, perhaps never, attained by another medical man in this part of the Province.

The funeral services, which consisted of a short service in the house, prior to the interment, and the beautiful burial service at the grave, were conducted by the Rev. T. S. Keough, of the C. M. Church. The pall bearers were all of the medical profession, viz: Drs. Strange, Toronto; Savage, St. Andrews; Orr, Maple; Langstaff, Richmond Hill; Nelles, Thornhill; and Falton, Toronto. Several others of the profession followed in the long procession, while the different churches were represented by Revs. Campbell, Presbyterian; Shanklin, Episcopal; Egan, Roman Catholic; Totten and Thom, Methodist, and others, whose names we did not learn. Friends were there from all parts of the country, and the heartfelt expressions of regret, at the untimely death which brought them together, were heard on all sides. We think we may safely say that the place of Dr. Reid will never be filled, as he filled it. He has grown up in the hearts of the people of Thornhill and vicinity, who have known and loved him from his boyhood; but such was the will of Providence, that in the midst of his usefulness and with fair prospects of a happy old age in the bosom of his loving family, he has been called by the most dreaded of all diseases to obey the mandate, "Dust thou art, and unto dust shall thou return." That the bereaved family have the deep sympathy of their friends and of the entire public, we are sure was evinced plainly on Saturday. To these we would add our note, hoping that as the beloved husband, father and brother, in his lifetime was the human instrument of relieving the sufferings and saving the lives of many of his fellow creatures, so in his death he may call to our minds the words of the Master, "Watch ye therefore, for ye know not when the time is."

A Relief Committee.

Special to the LIBERAL.
 On Wednesday evening of last week a meeting was held at Patterson to form a Relief Committee in behalf of Mr. Eli Snider, who unfortunately lost his property by fire.

Mr. P. Patterson was elected chairman and Rev. J. C. Curtis, Sec. It was decided to lay the Township out into sections and to appoint men to personally solicit subscriptions.

Section No. 1.—Consists of the country north of Patterson's side road, from Yonge Street to Maple. Messrs. P. Bassingthwaite, and Jacob Graham kindly offered to take that.

Section No. 2.—North of Patterson side road 2 1/2 miles and from R. R. west as far as possible. Messrs. Jacob Saider and Leeds Richardson were appointed.

Section No. 3.—Carrville the centre, 1/4 miles each way. Messrs. D. S. Rea-man and John Lahmer.

Section No. 4.—To join south of Section 2, running south 2 1/2 miles, then from R. R. west. Messrs. John Gillis and Thomas Jackson.

Section No. 5.—From Yonge street to the 3rd Con., and from the townline north to Daniel Reaman's side line.—Messrs. Lewis Page and Isaac Reaman.

Section No. 6.—Commencing at Edgely and running north 1 1/2 miles, south 1 1/2 miles and west from the 3rd Con. as far as possible.—Messrs. Daniel and Samuel Snider.

Many of these gentlemen have been appointed without their permission, but as this is an exceptional case, and worthy of everybody's hearty sympathy and aid, they will consider it a pleasure to perform such a worthy duty. Calls upon our charity are frequent, and in many cases we are compelled to give to many who are unworthy, in order to reach those who are deserving our aid. This is not a case of charity, we are called upon to help a neighbor who has been very unfortunate, under circumstances over which he could have no control, and unfortunately to one who was not able to bear such a loss. Few young men just starting out in life have sufficient moral courage to face life with its stern duties to rise superior to them, and fewer have sufficient power to begin life afresh after so severe a loss. We trust the more fortunate ones of us will at once help so worthy a neighbor, and show by our practical help that we so sympathize and value those who possess that material to be something and somebody in life.

Mr. P. Patterson was appointed Treasurer, to whom all money will be paid and subscription papers returned with the amount subscribed before Dec. 15th.

PERSONALS.

Rev. Mr. Musson, of Aurora, was in town on Wednesday.

Dr. Widdfield, M. P., for North York, was in town on Saturday.
