RICHMOND HILL, FRIDAY, Jan. 5, 1883

AT HOME.

-- 1883.

-January. -Carmval on Friday night.

The Christmas trade done this year by our Richmond Hill merchants has been largely in excess of any previous year. The Councils.

Richmond Hill cam boast a good Tory Council, solid throughout, while Markham and Vaughan bave to put up with clear Grit Sleighing Party.

The Thornhill Methodist Sunday School, headed by Rev. J. W. Totten, passed through this village on th ir annual drive, on Tuesday. They were a jolly crew, apparently, as they made the air resonant with music

Mrs. D. Morrison, Farnham Centre, P. Q. writing about Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, says: George Bell used it on his son, and it cured him of rheumatism with only a applications. The balance of the bottle was used by an old gentleman for Asthma, with the best results. It acts like a charin.

Sunday School sleigh drive.

The Sunday School in connection with St.

Mazy's Episcopal Church here, went for their annual steigh drive on Wednesday last. Their destination was Ausora. A very pleasant time was spent by the young people and some of the old ones.

O. Bortle, of Manchester, Ontario Co; N. Y; writes: "I obtained immediate re lief from the use of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. I have had asthma for eleven years. Have been chliged to sit up all night for ten or twelve nights in succession. I can now sleep soundly all night on a feather bed, which I had not been able to de previously to using the Oil.

A spill out.

Tommy, Wickie and willie Trench, sons of Mr. Wm. Trench, were out driving on Tuesday, when by some means the two former were thrown from the cutter just south of the village and the horse started off at a lively pres with little Willie in it alone. Mr Trench happened to be on the street and by a daring effort managed to get hold of the horse which he stopped in front of the LIBERAL office. None of them were seriously injured, we believe.

Millons Given Away

Millons of bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption' Coughs and 1th Colds, have been given away as Trial Bottles of the large size. This enormous outlay would be disastrous to the proprietors, were it not for the rare merits possessed by the wonderful medicine. Call at R. E. Law's, Richmond Hill, and T. A. Hewitt & Co's, Thornhill.

Consumption is a disease contracted by a neglected cold—how necassary then of the most popular medicines for these complaints is Northrop & Lymans' Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypohospinites of Lime and Soda. Mr. F. J. Santh, Druggist, Dunnville, writes: "I gives general satisfaction and sells splendidly."

Annual Meeting.
The annual meeting of the Richmond
Hill Reform Association which, according to constitution should have been held this (Friday) evening, has been postponed until next Friday evening, 12th itst., to be held in the office of the President, J. M. Lawrence. We trust there will be a full attendance, as it is not only election of officers but delegates to the Reform Convention on the 16th will then be appointed.

Old and New Year.

The old year was played out and the new one prayed in by our band, which not only chimed in its harmany with the town church bells, but after doing so visited the residences of the newly elected Reeve and Councillors whom they serenaded, together with the retiring Reeve. From before twelve o'clock on New Years eve until almost daylight New Years morning the village was resowned with the music of our excellent band. A very pleasant introduction to the New Year to those who were not troubled with an over dose of sleepiness.

Christmas in Richmond Hill.

This day of festive days passed off very quietly in our usually stirring village, owing to the weather being unusually mild and the rapid disappearance of snow for several days before. Skating, which is one of the popular amusements of our town, was at a discount and about all the amusement of the day was picking the turkey and goose bones and scraping the plates after plum pudding.

In the evening there appeared to be some attraction in the direction of the Methodist Church. There it was that Santa Chur-proposed making his visit of the season, it having been announced that the teachers and scholars of the C. M. Sunday School would have a social gathering, and that Sanca would, on that occasion, distribute his Christmas gifts from a "Jacobs Ladder," instead of the old timed Christmas Tree. The "Merry Day" was made all the merrier to the young folk by the anticipation and wondering what the ancient old gentleman. Father Christmas, Kriss Kringle, Santa Claus, or whatever he is called, had provided for them. The officers of the school had requested that a few of the parents and friends would put in an appearance, so that contribution of two countries. a contribution of ten cents would defray the expenses incurred, but long before the time the doors were besieged by young expectants and non-expectants, who, of course, did not expect to get any, yet would have had olon-gated faces if no one had made an agent of gated faces if no one had made an agent of Santa Claus and sent them a token of remembrance. On admission the great curiosity was Jacob's Ladder. Two long ladders, bracing each other, forming a gothic over the platform, and reaching almost to the loftv ceiting of the School Room, beautifully decorated with evergreens, on which was artistically arranged scores of things confortable and hundreds of things beautiful, gifts for the rich and gifts for the poor—gifts for granupa, uncle and sonny—gifts for gifts for grandpa, uncle and sonny—gifts for grandma, until and sissy—gifts costly and in such rich profusion that we dare not enumerate lest we provoke the envy of those who were not there to gaze and admire.

Proceedings were opened by singing "The Royal Proclamation and prayer by Rev. P. Addison, succeeded by other Christmas Hymns and a recruation by a little girl, "Kriss Kingle's Visit." One of the interesting events of the eventor was the presents. ing events of the evening was the presenta-ion made by the scholars of the Bible Class to their teacher, Mrs. Addison, consisting of a beautiful, hand painted set of china, accompanied by the following address, read on behalf of the class by Helena Wiley: -

DEAR MRS. ADDISON,—The members of your Bible Class have taken advantage of this auspicious season to convey to you our heart-felt wishes for your health and happiness, and also to give expression to our love and appreciation of your untiring efforts, to lead us in that path in which alone true

We feel sure that the " Bread thus cast upon the waters" will be found, it may be after many days, but it will surely some a gain in our Father's good time, and we hope the good done by you in this class may add to the brightness of that imperishable crown prepared for all who love His appearing.

In conclusion, we offer for your acceptance this slight token of remembrance, hoping that when the loving ties which unite us here are broken, we may continue to hold a place in your prayers and your love.

Mr. Addison Replied for Mrs. Addison, expression her appreciation and thanks for so valuable a token of regard and esteem.

Another of the interesting events of the of the eveningwas the presentation to Miss Lacta Hawison, through the agency of Santa, of as elegant purse containing about $35, denated by the members of the congregation in recognition of her services as organist of the church.

While the attention of the children was otherwise engaged, Santa Claus tried to slip behind the scenes, but sharp eyes caught sight of him and the whole audience was convulsed with laughter at the comical apconvuised with language at the common appearance of this benevolent old gentleman, well fitted up with all the traditional characteristic. Santa, now the observed of all observers, with jokes and witticisms began at the foot of the ladder to distribute the contents of his budget, not forgetting even the forgotten, and as he ascended higher and yet higher, he dropped welcome memer tos of his visit to young and old. A general distribution of "sweet varieties" concluded the entertainment and the large gathering of our citizens and their younger brunches returned home hoping that they might live tong enough tongain witness Santa Chaus" liberality from "Jacob's Ladder."

that could be desired, the sleighing was that we should at once get the best cure for Coughs, Colds, Laryngitis, and all During the day droves of sleighing parties diseases of the Throat and Lungs,—one glided to and fro and many made our village their destination. The Stating Rink was a great centre of attraction. During the afternoon and evening it was crowded to its utmost capacity, and all seemed to enjoy the "Merry Giide" with the utmost zest. Towards evening the village seemed all alive with bustle and preparations are being made for the grand event of the day, the Firemens' Grand Torchlight Procession and display of fire works, which was to be succeeded by a grand Firemens' Concert. The procession was one of the finest displays that has been witnessed in our village for a long time. The Richmond Hill Fire Brigde and the Riverside Fire Brigade assembled at the Fire Hall at 6 p. m., and at 6.80 a grand procession of the two Brigades was got into line before the engine and real, which were gaily decorated with evergreens, Chiuese lanterns. &c. The procession was a long one and each man in uniform, the Riverside Brigade wear ing red jackets and hemlets and Richmond Hill Brigade wearing dark jackets and helmets, and each bearing a torch, the whole headed by the Richmond Hill Brass Band. In this form the procession marched through the village, and was witnessed by hundreds of people, who unanimously pronounced it the finest display ever seen in Richmond Hill. The splendor was increased by a beautiful display of fire works during the procession. After the procession they repaired cession. After the procession they repaired to the Masonic Hall where the Riverside Brigade furnished a splendid concert programme, the only home talent being a reading by Mrs. Amos J. Wright. The concert was pronounced a decided success, every-body being pleased, and the firemen realizing about $75. The Riverside Brigade are deserving of much credt as they prid all their own expenses, and gave the concert in aid of the funds of the Richmond Hill Brigade. They are an enthusiastic lot of men and one of the finest Brigades in the County.
