It is felt in securing the services of Dr. Vincent the Union Bible Class are presenting a rare opportunity before the the Sabbath School workers of Aurora and the surrounding country, and they call upon all to use their best personal efforts to secure a large attendance at the lecture. Considering the reputation of the Lecturer, and the value of the Lect-ure, which deals with boy-character, development and training, in the home, the Sabbath School and the Church, the price of the tickets is set very low-25 cents. They can be had, on application, from D. Fotheringham, or any of the

It is the opportunity of a life time; do not fail to attend and take your friends. The young as well as the old will be spellbound.

Presentation and Address.

On the return of Rev. 1. Campbell and his fair young bride from their wedding trip, on Tuesday evening, a large number of his congregation and friends had as-sembled in the Lecture Room of the Presbyterian Church to welcome them. Mr. Campbell and his amiable young wife were invited in and were surprised to find the number gathered, and four long tables loaded with such delicacies as the ladies of Richmond Hill know so well how to prepare. Things went on charmingly and pleasantly, eating and drinking, and making merry when Mr. and Mrs. Campbell were presented with a beautiful silver tea service by Miss Aggie Coulter, accompanied by the following address read by Mr. Geo. Trench to which Mr. Campbell made a happy and suitable reply:

To the Rev. Isaac Campbell:

Dear and Esteemed Pastor,--It is with the greatest pleasure that we, your parish-oners and friends, have met here this even-ing for the purpose of welcoming you back af er your short absence, and also for the pleasure of greeting the one who was the cause of that absence—your dear wife. We felt that we could not let this favorable opportunity pass, without giving tangible express ion to the pleasure we feel in extending your wite a cordial welcome into our midst, and also for our appreciation of the kindly interest you take not only in our spiritual but also in our temporal wellare

Allow me then, on behalf of the congrega-tion. to beg your acceptance of this T ea Service, and with it our best wishes for your future happiness and prosperity. That God may ever bless you and yours, and that you may be long spared to labor in our midst, is our sincere wish. midst, is our sincere wish.

Signel on behalf of the congregation, GEORGE TRENCT.

During the evening, which was most pleasantly spent, many congratulations were offered to the happy couple, and THE LIBERAL would join in the expression of well wishes for the long life and happiness of Mr. & Mrs. Campbell, the pleasure of which is increased by the memory of old friendship. The subscriptions towards the presentation fund, were solicited dy Mr. Gee, Trench. The purchase of the service was made by Miss Couffer and Mrs. Vanderburg, at Zim-merman, McNaughton & Lowes. Toron-to to. The service cost over $60. The occasion showed the excellent feeling existing between pastor and congregation.

Emery.

(From our own Correspondent,) A very successful Sabbath School Anniversary Concert was held in the Methodist Church at Emery last Friday evening. The church was most tastefully decorated and brilliantly illuminated for the occasion. Mr. Burkholder is certainly to be congratulated for the way in which he had trained the children. Among the many talented artists who assisted in the entertainment, the following des-erve special reference, Miss Alice Scott the old favorite; Mr. N. L. Thompson, whose pleasing manner and easy delivery delighted the audience; Miss Jennie B. Moore, who certainly effects realism in her dramatic readition that is seldom witnessed-her appearance on the platform is prepossessing, her voice rich and cul tured, her gestures graceful and admirably executed, everywhere conveying a meaning. At the conclusion the chair-man "Rev J. W. McCallum," on behalf of the school and choir, presented Mr. Burkholder with a beautiful silver cruet and Mrs.Burkholder with a costly Butter cooler. Mr. Burkholder replied in a short but feeling speech.
