The Liberal.

RICHMOND HILL, FRIDAY, JAN. 11 '84.

ABOUT HOME.

... Leap Year, Ladies!
 ... Clear the snow off your walks.
 ... Skating for the past several weeks has been splendid at the rink.

Shingles for Sale

Mr. A. Burkholder, of the Maple Lumber and Shingle Mills, advertises 1000 square of shingles for sale at $2.00 per square.

Disfranchised

There were over sixty voters disfranchised in Vaughan, through neglecting to pay their taxes within the time specified by the Township by-law.

Again Postponed.

The postponed Carnival, which was fixed for Tuesday evening, had to be postponed a second time on account of the weather. At time of going to press we have not learned the date of postponement.

Sacramental Services.

Sacramental Services will be held in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday, when the Rev. Mr. Bell will preach. The Session will meet at 1 p. m., on Saturday. There will be a sermon in the church at 2.

Temperance Lecture

Mr Thomas McMurray will deliver a lecture in the Temperance Hall, on Wednesday, Jan 16th, on Temperance. Chair to be taken at 8 o'clock. A collection will be taken up at the close of the lecture.

Week of Prayer.

The first week in the year being regularly set apart by the Evangelical Association as a special Week of Prayer, it is being observed in this place by holding meetings each evening of this week in the lecture room of the Methodist Church.

The Town Bell.

The natives, for a few days, began to think that civilization was on the retrograde, the Town Bell having stopped ringing. It has struck up once more, however, and chimes in to good time, the new Council having renewed the agreement with the Methodist church authorities.

To Advertisers

Regular advertisers wishing to change their Ads. must furnish copy of change not later than the Saturday previous. The large number of changes coming in at the last moment before publication necessitate us making this rule, which will be strictly adhered to in future.

School Opening.

The High and Public opened on Monday with an unusually full attendance. In the High School there were about twenty new pupils, and nearly all the old ones have returned, raising the attendance to nearly one hundred. The Public Schools were also very largely attended.

The Humber Victims

The public funeral of the victims of the Humber disaster took place in Toronto on Saturday, and was attended by an immense concourse of people. It was a sad procession that moved behind the mangled remains of about twenty of her citizens who were cut down with one fell swoop.

Thanks

Messrs Cook and Elliott tender their very warm and sincere thanks to their many friends and the Electors of Vaughan for the cordial and hearty support given them at the late contest. Especially do they desire their thanks conveyed to their many Conservative friends who came forward and gave them their support.

Thanks!

THE LIBERAL is indebted to the Beedle & Frindle Pleasure Party for Complimentaries. Thanks! And we hope they will have as good a house as they had when they appeared in the Masonic Hall here six years ago. They had a jam up $110.00 house, and the performance was good. Don't fail to see them to-morrow night.

Shingles for Sale.
 Mr. J. D. Hardy, Woodbridge, late of Meadowvale, having purchased the Platt & Bradley Mills, Woodbridge, and Wallace's Pine, is prepared to furnish bills of lumber all lengths. Will also dispose of his large stock of shingles, No. 1, $2.00 per square, and No. 2, $1.00 per square.

A Stormy Reception
 The Governor General and his lady arrived in Toronto on Wednesday morning at five minutes past three, in the midst of a wild and blinding storm, the train being, on account thereof, five or six hours late. It was rather a stormy reception, as far as the weather was concerned, on the occasion of their first visit.

A Noble and Charitable Object
 Maple is setting a good example in getting up a concert in aid of the Humber Disaster Relief Fund. Every one who can should give a little assistance to such a noble object. This can be done by purchasing a ticket for the concert whether you go or not. They are on sale at THE LIBERAL STORE. Do not fail to purchase one.

A Woman's Suicide.
 About one o'clock on Tuesday morning Miss Miller, a dressmaker, who occupied a store on Yonge Street, opposite Elm, committed suicide by jumping from the new iron bridge crossing the ravine at Rosedale, to the ground below, a distance of 164 feet, being instantly killed. She has been suffering for some time from despondency.

County Commissioners
 The board met at the county buildings on Tuesday. They ordered the removal of No. 1 toll gate on Yonge street some distance northward of the Ontario & Quebec Railway crossing. Messrs Atkinson and Beddome, representing the Parkdale council, applied for the transfer of the part of Queen street that runs through the village for the local council. As this is a matter for the county council to deal with, no action was taken.

Help for the Distressed.

A Grand Concert will be given in the Masonic Hall, Maple, on Thursday evening, Jan. 17th, in aid of the distressed families of the victims of the recent accident on the G. T. Railway. The following talent has been secured: Miss Franks and Miss Perry, Brampton; Mr. T. H. Roffe and Miss Platt, Toronto; Messrs. Burkholder & Hardy Bros. and W. Robinson, Maple; and others who have kindly consented to take part. Rev. J. E. Starr will occupy the chair.

Complimentary Oyster Supper

The friends of Messrs Cook and Elliott, the members elect for the present year to the Vaughan Council, purpose tendering them a complimentary oyster supper at the Dominion House, Richmond Hill, on Thursday evening, 17th inst, at 7 o'clock. It is expected the occasion will be graced by the presence of a large number of ladies, as the gathering will partake more of a social than a political aspect. As the tickets are placed at the low figure of 25 cents it is hoped there will be a large attendance.

The "Open Winter"

Yes, this is an "open winter," just as Venner and Moses Oats and all the Indians and Squaws and Darkies have predicted for the past several months. It is so open above head that the snow falls through at a terrible rate, and so open that the wind whistles through the cracks to the wiers, wild tune of 40 miles an hour and the major key of 15 degrees below zero. "Open"—we should say it was. When the wind blows up you would think the bellows of Jupiter had burst and that all the doors in the domicile were open.

The Snow By-Law.

A case has just been tested as to whether a municipal council could pass a By-Law compelling the occupants of property to remove snow and ice from the sidewalks in front of their property. The Mail says:—"It will be remembered that a man named Roche, of Guelph, was convicted there and fined for not clearing the snow off his sidewalk. A motion was made to quash this conviction on the ground that the snow by-law is illegal. Judgment was delivered, two weeks ago, on this point, by Justice Armour, holding that the by-law was good, and that the conviction must be supported. The learned judge thought that a municipality may impose a penalty for a breach of the provisions of the by-law, or may do the work and assess the property for the expense incurred." Citizens, therefore, had best clear off the snow and avoid the penalty.

PERSONALS.

Mr and Mrs B Phillips, of Sharon, were visiting friends here last week.

Rev Peter Addison was in the village this week calling on his numerous friends.

Rev Dr Carroll preached in the Methodist Church on Sunday evening. It is evident that the Dr is becoming too far advanced in years for active pulpit work.

We are pleased to learn from Mr Wm Devlin that his wife, who broke her leg by a fall a few weeks ago, is progressing toward recovery as rapidly as could be expected.

Rev Mr Starr, of Richmond Hill, was present at the Watch Meeting in the C M Church on New Year's Eve, and addressed the congregation at some length. The services were very solemn and appropriate, and were continued until the first hours of 1884.—Reformer
