Weighed in the balance, but not found wanting. Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure has been weighed in that just balance, the experience of an impartial and intelligent public. The question of its efficacy in Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Kidney Ailments, and for Blood Impurities, is decided.

TRUSTWORTHY TESTIMONY.

Prominent English Opinions upon an Important Subject of great value to every reader.

The day for pretenders has passed. Men are judged by what they can do not by what they say they can do. The reading public to-day is too discriminating to be long deceived by the spurious. If an article has merit it will become popular; if it is unworthy it will sink into oblivion. For years the people of England and America have put to the severest tests a compound regarding which most ambitious claims have been made. Under such ordeals as it has been subjected to, nearly every known preparation would have failed, but this one did not. In England and the United States to-day, it is the most widely known and popular of all public preparations. In verification of which note the following:

In September last, one of the English forerunners of India returned to London, Eng., utterly broken down and debarrd from further service by reason of what the examining physicians pronounced incurable kidney disorders and dropsy. He was comparatively a young man, and felt depressed over the situation. Incidentally learning, however, of the power of Warner's Safe Cure, which has attracted so much attention of late, he began its use. Within three months he was thoroughly restored to health, passed medical examination as a sound man and is to-day discharging his duties as well as ever in the trying climate of India.

J. D. Henry, Esq., a near neighbor of the late Thomas Carlyle, Chelsea, S. W., London, Eng., became very much emaciated from long continued liver and kidney disorders, the treatment he had sought from the vast medical authorities working only temporary results. He then began the use of Warner's Safe Cure, and in May 15th last, declared "I am now feeling physically a new creature. A friend of mine to whom I recommended the Safe Cure for kidney, liver and various diseases, also speaks of it in the highest terms."

R. C. Sowerby, Helensburg, N. B., was obliged to relinquish his professional duties because of a severe kidney and liver complaint. After using a dozen bottles of Warner's Safe Cure he says: "I am to-day better than I have been for twenty years, and I cheerfully recommend the Safe Cure to all who are suffering from these diseases."

Mr. William Jones, 16 Wellington St., Camborne, England, says that he was thoroughly treated in St. Bartholomew's hospital, London, Eng., for urinary disorders and weakness. He used Warner's Safe Cure and he says: "I am like a new man." It cured him of indigestion, troubles of the bowels, excessive urination and nervous prostration. He adds: "I was taking various medicines for over two years from the best doctors, and all in vain, but after taking Warner's Safe Cure for only four weeks, I was brought from death to life."

Mrs. E. Game, 125 Broad street, London, W. Eng., suffered for years from female weakness, skin eruptions, and impure blood, but after using Warner's Safe Cure, she says: "My health is better now than it has been for years."

H. F. West, Esq., 16 Burton Crescent, W. C., London, from his own experience, strongly recommends Warner's Safe Cure to all persons suffering from kidney and liver complaint, as the best remedy known."

Mr. Henry Maxted, 1 Pennsbury Private Road, Wadsworth Road, London, Eng., was cured by Warner's Safe Cure of enlarged liver which produced numbness in his left leg, with a dead heavy feeling and aizziness on the right side of his head. "I have recommended it," he says, "to several of my friends, most of whom have derived great benefit from it."

Mr. W. Clarkson, Hartington, Villas, Spital, Chesterfield, Eng., used Warner's Safe Cure for liver complaint, dyspepsia, flatulence, vomiting of bile, and mental depression. January 15th, 1883, he writes: "After using the eighth bottle I feel better than for many years. It is an invaluable medicine."

Mr. J. Hiscock, station master, Taff Vale railway, Navigation station, was cured of abscess of the kidney, calculus or stone, discharge of pus, etc., by thirteen bottles of Warner's Safe Cure. "I had long and faithfully tried some of the ablest medical men in South Wales, in vain, one of them remarking that medical science has failed to find a remedy for confirmed kidney disease. The Safe Cure dissolved and brought away about two ounces of stone. I can never praise the Safe Cure too highly."

Mr. Robert Patten, New Delaval, Eng., was much overcome by severe inflammation of the bladder. "I had to urinate about every five or ten minutes with great pain and suffering. My water was full of matter and blood. Both kidneys and liver were affected, and in addition I had a bad cough and heart trouble, (all presumably the secondary effect of the kidney and bladder disorder). He says that after curing his bladder, kidney and liver trouble by Warner's Safe Cure, his cough and palpitation are quite gone.

William Simpson, Esq., Daughy Mill, Kirkcaldy, N. B., suffered for years from Bright's disease of the kidneys and consequent dropsy. His body was dreadfully swollen. His appetite was fickle, he was full of rheumatic pains, his urine burned in passing and was full of mucous and brick dust sediment; his pulse was weak, his heart was irregular in its action, his breathing was very much impaired, in short he had all the painful symptoms of that dreadful disorder. He spent 17 weeks in the Royal Infirmary, of Edinburgh, under the skill of the best physicians who, having exhausted all agencies at their command, discharged him "as incurable." He says: "I passed water every hour, day and night, having great pain while doing so. It was nearly white as milk, with albumen, and when it stood for an hour, the deposit was a quarter of an inch thick in the bottom of the vessel." When in this desperate condition, he began to use Warner's Safe Cure—the only known specific for Bright's disease of the kidneys—"I have used twelve bottles," he says, and his health is so restored that he adds: "I bless the day when I read that Bright's disease was curable and for so little cost."

The following persons of quality in London and other parts of England, are a few of the thousands who have used and have commended Warner's Safe Cure, the great specific for kidney, liver, urinary, female and brights disease:
Hon. Freeman H. Morse, 8 Park Villas East, Richmond.
Captain F. L. Norton, Glingall Villa, Lee Road, Blacksmith, Kent.
Hon. S. B. Packard, 14 Alexandra Drive, Liverpool.
Hon. A. D. Snow United States Consul, Manchester.
The Rev. C. G. Squirrel, Stretton-under-Fosse, Rugby.

Such testimonials, from such unquestionable sources prove the value of this remedy, which is sold in every drug store, beyond the shadow of a doubt. They prove that it is the greatest of all modern medicines for these terrible kidney and liver diseases. What it has done for one it will unquestionably do for others, and as such it commands itself most warmly to public confidence.

THORNHILL

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Your Correspondent having so many engagements at this social season of the year, has been unable to comply with your request in furnishing the news of the village.

A new store has been opened for the convenience of the suburban population. The enterprising merchant is Mr. E. Home, so long known as the accommodating merchant of Langstaff.

J. Thompson, of omnibus fame, has purchased the "Christian House," and also the Mortimer homestead, and is preparing the house and stables suitable for residence and business, to which he intends removing in March.

The Victoria Hall Co. are giving a series of concerts for the benefit of the Co. They deserve the patronage of the public, as it develops home talent and gives the young people an evening's entertainment, besides collecting a little money towards the better protection of the hall. Some people object to Saturday night concerts, but the directors should know what is best morally and financially.

The charges against our hotel keepers for selling liquor on Sunday failed in court, owing to there being only one witness, the person making the charge. That there is liquor sold on Sunday in our taverns is not denied, but local witnesses are a little shy of giving information if his name is kept from the public. We will wait for further developments.

The recent municipal elections for Vaughan and Markham made our village rather lively for one day. It was rather amusing to see the earnestness the friends of the different candidates manifested during the day—but button-holing electors, speaking to them in low, confidential tones, sending for careless electors—one would think that the welfare of the whole community was at stake for the present year, whereas it probably would not make fifty cents difference in the taxes of any of the electors who was elected. When night came and the ballots were counted it was rather annoying to some of the best workers to find that they had been bringing in electors for the candidates they had been endeavoring to have left at home. Such work should not only be recognized but rewarded, for the work was good no matter what the intentions were.
