The Liberal.

RICHMOND HILL, FRIDAY, J. 23. '84.

ABOUT HOME.

Mr and Mrs Ross, of King, have celebrated the 64th anniversary of their wedding day.

Credit Sale.
 There will be sold by public auction, at Lot 16, 3rd Con. Vaughan, on Wednesday, Jan. 30th, 1884, the farm stock implements, etc., belonging to Mr. Thomas A. Rupert. Sale at 1 o'clock. S. Eckardt, Auct.

Leap Year Parties.
 Leap year parties are now in order. The young ladies of several of the surrounding towns have given successful ones. Now is your time young ladies of Richmond Hill. A more favorable opportunity may never present itself.

Wrapping Paper Cheap.
 Butchers and others requiring old news papers suitable for wrapping paper should call at THE LIBERAL office where they can be had neatly folded and in perfect condition, at 20 cents per hundred papers or 3 cents per single lb.—12 papers in a lb.

Special Services
 Special services are now being held in connection with the Methodist Church here. The primary object is to convert the officers and members of the church, and then attention will be directed toward other sinners. We earnestly hope that a good work may be done.

Silk Dress Proposal.
 Every young lady whose proposal is rejected during the present year expects a present of a silk dress. We will see how many of the ladies will come out with new silk dresses during the year, this being a sure sign that their proposal has been refused.

Price of Wood
 The Banner speaks of the very high price of wood in Aurora, quoting it at $4.50 to $5 for dry hardwood and $3.75 to $4 for green. Aurora may consider itself a favored locality, as in Richmond Hill we pay from $5.50 to $6 for dry, and $4.50 to $5 for green hardwood. Coal is by far the cheaper.

Newspaper Gossip.
 There is a good deal of newspaper gossip afloat. The proprietors of the Toronto Mail repudiate all connection with the Toronto News. The World maintains that the Mail people hold a mortgage of $75,000 on the News' plant. This was not been denied by the parties more immediately interested.

Serenaded
 The band, on Tuesday evening, serenaded Mr John Cosgrove, Government Inspector of Weights and Measures, and his bride, who were guests at the Grand Central Hotel. Mr Cosgrove has just married a niece of Hon John O'Donohue. After the serenade he generously presented the band with a bank note with a V. on it.

Verdict of the Coroner's Jury.
 Mr. B. B. Osler, Q. C., made application on Tuesday for a writ of certiorari to have the papers connected with the inquest held on the body of James White, killed in the Humber railway accident, returned into the Superior Court. Application will then be made to have the verdict of the jury as against Engineer Jeffrey set aside.

Venor's Predictions.
 Venor's weather predictions for the month of January, as given in his Almanac, are as follows:—"The month will, in all likelihood, enter with a remarkable New Year's Day for brightness and balminess. Altogether, the month will be phenomenal but not disagreeable, with an unusual degree of warmth. Dust or mud in many sections. Waters quite open. A great contrast to 1883. January a warm month. Continued open mild weather." Go down foot, Mr. Venor.

Farm For Sale.

60 acres north-east part of lot No. 81, in the 6th Con. Vaughan, 4 1/2 miles from R. R. station, 5 minutes walk from school or church. Land rich clay, well watered, cleared and fall plowing done. There are two wells with pumps; a large dwelling house; suitable out buildings; large orchard, mostly grafted. Apply personally or by letter to R. H. Wiles, Richmond Hill P. O.

Councils for 1884.

According to the municipal law the new Councils for the current year were required to meet on the third Monday in January and as the Reeves and Deputy-Reeves had to assemble in County Council on the fourth Tuesday in January to elect Wardens, etc., it so happened the present year that this compelled them to meet on the next day after organizing in the municipalities—the fourth Tuesday being the next day after the third Monday.

Strange Accident.

A horse belonging to Mr. W. H. Ratcliff, of Markham, although pretty well advanced in years, had not forgotten how to play. Recently he was running loose out doors, when the dog ran at him and barked. The old horse gave a sudden bound and a kick and broke a blood vessel, from the effects of which he expired in a short time. Twenty-three years of faithful service at the plough and on the logging sleighs all ended by a frolic. Poor old fellow.

An Early Spring Lamb.

The Uxbridge column of the Stouffville Advance says: "A fine spring lamb was sent from here to Toronto market this week. Really, there is nothing wonderful in this. Dare say it was the same one we helped eat a few days since in a Toronto hotel. We came to the conclusion that it was a 'spring lamb,' but thought it came the spring of several years since. We presume, however, that the Advance refers to the spring of 1883, as it would probably be pretty young if it referred to the spring of 1884, as that is still in the future.

The Humber Relief Fund.

The enterprising young people of Maple got up a concert in aid of the Humber Relief Fund, on Thursday evening last. There was a very good attendance, and an excellent programme. After all expenses were paid there was a nice surplus toward the Relief Fund. In this respect it differed from the entertainments of the Toronto Amateur Dramatic Club, which gave two entertainments in the Grand Opera House from which they realized $142.90. Expenses: $100 for opera house and $39.62 for advertising, etc.; leaving $268 to be given to the fund.

Tea and Entertainment.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church in the village of Thornhill, intend giving a Grand Tea and Entertainment in connection with the re-opening of the new Sabbath School Room, on the evening of Friday, Jan. 25th, 1884. Tea will be served in the lecture room of the church, from 5 to 7.30, after which the following gentlemen will deliver addresses: Rev. Mr. Johnson, of Jamaica; Rev. Mr. Smith, of Toronto; Rev. Mr. Tovey, Thornhill, and Rev. Mr. Lynch, of Willowdale, with singing by talent from Markham, Willowdale and other places. No pains will be spared to make the evening interesting and enjoyable. Entertainment will commence at 8 o'clock sharp. Tickets 25 cents each. Proceeds in aid of Organ Fund. All are cordially invited.

A $20 Bible Prize.

The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer twelve valuable rewards in their Monthly for February, among which is the following: We will give $20.00 to the person telling us which is the longest verse in the Old Testament Scriptures by February 10th, 1884. Should two or more correct answers be received, the reward will be divided. The money will be forwarded to the winner Feb. 15th, 1884. Persons trying for the reward must send 20 cents in silver (no postage stamps taken) with their answer, for which they will receive the March Monthly, in which the name and address of the winner of the reward and the correct answer will be published, and in which several more valuable rewards will be offered. Address Rutledge Publishing Company, Easton, Pa.

Agricultural Premiums.

The Agricultural and Arts Association have decided to offer prizes for Essays on various subjects as follows:—1. On the profit of breeding, feeding, and fattening beef cattle for the market, founded on practical experience. First prize, $30; second prize, $20 (the manuscript not to exceed twenty-five pages). 2. For the best and most speedy method of destroying thistles. First prize, $15; second prize, $10. 3. For the best and most speedy method of destroying wild mustard. First prize, $15; second prize, $10. 4. For the best and most speedy method of destroying wild onion. First prize, $15; second prize, $10. 5. For the best and most speedy method of destroying quack grass. First prize, $15; second prize, $10. Manuscript must not exceed twenty pages. Manuscript must be sent to the secretary not later than the first of August next.

PERSONALS.

Rev M Fawcett, of Scarborough, preached in the Methodist Church here on Sunday last, morning and evening.

Rev Mr Parsons, of Knox Church, Toronto, will preach in the Presbyterian Church here on Sunday morning. He comes at the appointment of the Presbytery concerning the augmentation of the minister's stipends.

Rev Mr Bell, who has filled the pulpit for past two Sabbaths, will preach in the evening.
