A Column of Interesting Reading Matter

Oshawa had a $30,000 fire Monday.
Montreal has reduced the number of liquor licenses.

Two bodies have been stolen from a cemetery at Odessa, Ont.

The Canada Temperance Act was defeated by four votes at Beamsville yesterday.

There are a number of varieties of corns. Holloway's Corn Cure will remove any of them.

A convention has been called to meet at Winnipeg on March 5 to consider Provincial grievances.

The temperance women of Toronto are organizing in opposition to the sale of liquor in groceries.

The petition against the return of Mr I. J. Gould, M.P.P. for North Ontario, has been dismissed.

Do not delay in getting relief for the little folks. Mother Graves' Worm exterminator is a pleasant and sure cure.

There is intense disappointment in the North-West over the failure of the mission of the Provincial delegates to Ottawa.

A number of Toronto retail druggists have been fined for contravention of the law requiring them to register their sales of liquor.

Action has been taken against the returning officer in the last St. Georges Dominion election for marking certain ballots in such a way that they could be recognized in case of a recount.

The disgusting eruptions on the face, the sunken eye, the pallid complexion indicate that there is something wrong going on within. Expel the lurking foe to health Ayer's Sarsaparilla was devised for that purpose; and does it.

As an article for the toilet, Ayer's Hair Vigor stands unrivalled. It cleanses the scalp and preserves it from scurf and dandruff, cures itching and humors, restores faded or gray hair to its original dark color, and promotes its growth.

What Toronto's well known Good Samaritan says: "I have been troubled with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint for over 20 years, and have tried many remedies, but never found an article that did me as much good as Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure."
CLARA E. PORTER

C. R. Hall, Grayville, Ill says: I have been troubled with liver complaint for several years, and have tried different medicines with little or no benefit, until I tried Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, which gave me immediate relief, and I would say I have used it with the best effect. No one should be without it.

J. H. Earl, West Sheffield, P. Q., writes: I have sold at retail, 156 bottles of Dr Thomas' Electric Oil, guaranteeing every bottle. I must say I never sold a medicine in my life that gave such universal satisfaction. In my own case with a badly ulcerated throat, after a physician peniciling it for several days to no effect, the Electric Oil cured it thoroughly in twenty-four hours, and in threatened croup in my children this winter, it never failed to relieve almost immediately.

Maladies multiply one another. A simple fit of digestion may especially if the constitution is not naturally vigorous—throw the entire mechanism of the liver and bowels out of gear. Sick headache follows, poisoning of the blood by bile-issues, and there is grave and serious disturbance of the entire system. Check the threatened dangers at the outset with Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, the medicine that drives every impurity from the blood.

The Council then adjourned to meet April 6th.

NAPOLEON THE GREAT.

His Infirmities Repeated in the Experience of a Leading Public Man—Truth for the Aged.

(Syracuse, N. Y., Courier.)

"How long has he been in public service?"

"Before the memory of the oldest inhabitant."

"And he has kept his name untarnished during all that period?"

"Absolutely?"

"He is a man I should like to meet."

The above conversation occurred between two gentlemen at one of our leading hotels. The interrogator was from abroad, the other a resident of this city. The conversation had drifted into politics and Hon. Thomas G. Alvord was the man whose record and qualities were being discussed. To trace the history of public men who have grown old in the services is a task both interesting to the investigator and entertaining to those who read his investigations. It was with this truth in mind that the writer set out to call upon the man about whom those politicians were so earnestly talking, at his spacious residence on Turtle street.

Mr. Alvord, who has been and is, familiarly known as "Old Salt," owing to his advocacy of the salt interest, is now well advanced in years, being on the shady side of seventy. He has long, white hair and a snowy beard which gave him an appearance both dignified and grand. His voice is full and clear and the moment any stranger comes into his presence he cannot but be impressed with the inherent power of the man. Indeed he was endowed by nature with an unusually strong organization, both mentally and physically, which all the strain of public life, both as speaker of the Assembly and Lieutenant Governor, failed for many years, to in any way undermine.

It was during the year 1881, while Mr. Alvord was a member of the Assembly at Albany, that he first began to feel most peculiar sensations. At that time he was in the midst of very important work, which was seriously interfered with by reason of the mysterious troubles which seemed to assail him. He felt unaccountable nausea almost constantly, accompanied by occasional violent retchings. History recounts that Napoleon the Great while in the midst of his public career, was frequently attacked by an enemy greater than any he had ever faced, which came in the same insidious yet violent manner as the terrible troubles that overtook Mr. Alvord, and are to day menacing so many thousands of others. In speaking on this subject to the writer Mr. Alvord said:

"This same bitter experience came to me again in 1882 while I was a member of the Assembly, with symptoms identical with those I had felt the year before. I believe it was largely caused by my advanced years, for I had a 'worn out' feeling that was terrible. This conclusion is evidently the correct one, for I was again and again attacked last summer while away from all cares and recreating at my Island in the St. Lawrence River. I experienced a painful sense of fullness in the lower portion of the body, accompanied by sensation of feverish heat or chilling shudders. All efforts to move my limbs or body were followed by intense weariness or exhaustion. Those who have reached my years can appreciate my sensations."

"And did neither yourself nor the physician understand the cause or nature of these troubles?"

"It seems not entirely for the physicians failed to relieve me and I kept growing worse. I suffered intensely and the only relief I could possibly obtain was by lying upon my back and this was only temporary."

"But you are looking well and strong now Mr. Alvord. How did you bring about the change?"

"By using a remedy which is very popular and which I have found wonderfully efficient—Warner's Safe Cure. Indeed it has proven remarkable in its power over me. I believe in it and therefore recommend it to others especially to those who are advanced in life; who feel a breaking down when there is no necessity and whose lost vitality and manhood remind them of their increasing years."

The interview then drifted to other topics, but as the reporter gazed at the man whose experience is so ripe and who has seen so much of the different phases of life he could not but wish that those who are suffering from the various forms of physical ailment, and especially those persons who are advanced in years, might see and converse with the veteran whose experience and knowledge have so rich and who is so firm a believer in the efficacy of the remedy that cured him. There is no excuse for shortening life, as so many have done and are doing. There is no necessity for "breaking down" early in years. Premature decay and death are a disgrace to our modern civilization. They are wholly needless and men or women who permit them when they can be so easily avoided should blame no one but themselves.

SPRINGHILL.

From our own Correspondent.
The oyster supper at Mr. M. Hutchinson's, on Friday evening, was a decided success. Several games and plays were entered into by old and young, and a few recitations and songs were rendered in a lively manner. On account of the bad condition of the roads the visitors had an up-set in the snow, which luckily ended in nothing very serious.

A number of the young people of this village drove to the residence of Mr. White, to a private party, where a very enjoyable time was spent.

A horse driven by Dr. Shaw ran away between his residence and McBride's hotel. The Dr. was thrown out but fortunately only received a thorough shaking up. The latter came to grief.

Some of the prominent men of this village who have been addicted to using tobacco have given up the filthy weed. It is hoped that many may follow the good example.

NOBLETON.

From Our Own Correspondent.
Mr. John Train, living a short distance south of this place, received a kick from a vicious colt a few days ago. At first it was supposed he was killed, but there are some hopes now of his recovery.

Dr. Mahaffy, for many years a resident of this village, has left it and us to the tender mercies of stern disease Kleinburg now being our nearest resort, probably some "newly fledged" might make it worth his while to locate here.

Nobleton school was let loose on Friday afternoon last, when about sixty children went for a sleigh drive to Kleinburg. If their enjoyment was to be measured by the amount of cheering, then their pleasure was unlimited.

The young people here are preparing for a band concert which is to take place soon, of which due notice will be given.

NEWTON BROOK.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. David Harding, who has for a number of years been a successful agriculturist, has leased his farm and taken up his abode in this village.

Mr. Ford had a valuable colt fatally injured by one of his cows.

Miss Bettie, of Brampton, is visiting at the parsonage.

Methodist Church service morning and evening—10 30 a. m. and 6 30 p. m. Prayer meeting—Monday and Thursday evening. Revs. James Pearen, M. A., and H. C. Ross, pastors.

Harry Lee, the Cincinnati bookkeeper, will be returned to Cincinnati for trial.
