LOCALS

Annual Meeting.

The Annual Meeting of the W. York Reform Association was held on Tuesday at the Town Hall, Parkdale, when the following were elected office bearers for the present year: President, Mr. Ferrier; 1st Vice-President, Mr. Watson; 2nd Vice-President, Mr. Lahmer; Secretary, Dr. Lynd; Ass.-Secretary, Mr. Threlkeld; Treasurer, Mr. Wallace.

Salvation Army.

The salvation Army have now engaged the town hall in Aurora for three days per week. Their first meeting was held on Saturday eve, last. The crowd was so great that the doors had to be closed and many were forced to go away. Their services on Sabbath were equally well attended. A few of the young people of this place attended their meeting on Sunday evening.

Run-away.

As Mr. John Beynon was returning home on Friday afternoon, accompanied by his daughter Maggie who is attending high school in this place, his horse took fright and ran away, upsetting the cutter and leaving the occupants by the way. A team coming along soon after picked them up and took them home. Mr. Beynon had the misfortune to have his thumb put out of joint which we believe was the only injury sustained.

Village Council.

A special meeting of the Richmond Hill Council was held in the Clerk's office on Friday eve last. Members all present. Minutes of last meeting read and approved. Village accounts showed they had been audited by Messrs. J. K. Falconbridge and Parker Crosby and found correct. On motion of Mr. Crosby the accounts were passed. It was moved by Mr. Law seconded by Mr. Moodie, that the Clerk procure 200 copies of the village accounts. Tenders were received from LIBERAL and Herald offices for printing 200 copies of said accounts, and on motion of Mr. Moodie the tender from the LIBERAL was accepted.

A. O. U. W.

We are glad to hear that the Lodge of Ancient Order of United Workmen is rapidly increasing in this village of late. It now numbers 28 in full membership, received five applications at last meeting and three more are expected at next meeting. It gives to the families of members $2,000 in case of death and is at the same time a very cheap insurance association, having had but twelve assessments last year of one dollar each to carry the risk of the above sum. It is the duty of every head of a family to provide for the future, and what better way can it be done than joining this order. All necessary papers can be obtained from R. E. Law, Recorder of Ivy Lodge.

I. O. G. T.

On Saturday evening a number of members of the Richmond Hill lodge visited "Rising Star" lodge at Victoria Square and spent a very pleasant and profitable time. The Richmond Hill friends were much pleased to find that the "Star," which had for some time past been in a dormant condition, had again risen and is now in a fair way to shed its rays in behalf of temperance. After being kindly welcomed by the W. C. T., the Richmond Hill friends, by request, furnished the following programme towards the entertainment of the evening: Greeting Song, Glee Club; reading, Bro. C. Rutherford; song, Bro. W. D. Atkinson; recitation, Sis. M. Wiley; reading, Sis. F. Fishburn; song, Bro. J. H. Sanderson; recitation, Sis. A. Kirby; chorus, Glee Club; reading, Bro. S. Agar; after which Bros. Dewsbury and Cook on being called on gave short speeches in behalf of temperance.—the W. C. T. and other members of "Rising Star" also made some remarks on the same subject. Bro. J. H. Sanderson was then asked to furnish information regarding the new District Lodge lately organized in Toronto, and of which he is P. W. C. T., which he gave in his usual pleasant manner. The Richmond Hill friends were then very hospitably treated to refreshments after which they left for home much pleased with their visit. We believe there is nothing more conducive to the advancement of temperance than these friendly visits between sister lodges, and we hope ere long to note the return visit of Victoria Square, Thornhill, and any other lodge who may be pleased to come and we can assure them a hearty welcome to Richmond Hill.

PERSONALS.

Miss Peach is visiting friends in Aurora.

Miss E. Hewison has returned from visiting friends in Markham.

Miss Katie Mulcahy, of Orillia, is visiting her friends the Misses Teefy.
