The Liberal.

RICHMOND HILL, Thursday, March 27, '84

LOCALS.

Cheap Hymn books, Evans' five cent music, Franklin square libraries &c., for sale at the LIBERAL Store.

Query.
Who went through those window panes? It certainly was not (w)right. Guess it was only a (c)lark though.

Lacrosse Concert
Full particulars will be given next week in reference to the concert to be given by the Lacrosse boys on the evening of Good Friday.

Call at the Concrete House and get the Fashion sheet for April and don't forget to see the new Prints and Dress Goods, the best selection in town. W. Atkinson.

Court.
Several cases came up for hearing at the Division Court held in the Lorne Hall on Saturday, but not sufficient for the number of pettifoggers always ready to assist their clients, and drop a dollar or two into their own pockets.

Our Village Zoo.
Mr. Chas. Mason has started a modern Zoo, in connection with his stove establishment, the first investment being two sleek, white, Chinese rats, with beautiful pink eyes. We understand the large whale—on exhibition so long in Toronto—is for sale.

Sale.
The bidding at Mr. R. H. Lymburner's sale, on Saturday last was brisk, the auctioneer, Mr. S. M. Brown, never allowing the interest to flag. We observed the family cradle going into Mr. H. B. Dewsbury's. People seem to think this is a dear bargain for Harry.

High School Inspection.
J. A. McLellan L. L. D., Senior Inspector of High Schools, spent Monday and a good part of Tuesday inspecting our High School here, going into the work very minutely. At the close of his examinations, he addressed the pupils at considerable length, and complimented them on the thoroughness of the work done.

Gymnastics.
Two dusky, brown bears, each led by a man of about the same color, passed through the town on Tuesday, and performed several tricks to the apparent satisfaction of the large crowd, which congregated to witness the show. This is another instance which goes to show, that the greater the humbug the more attractive it becomes.

Unauthorized Text Books.
Mr. Fotheringham, P. S. I., North York, has issued circulars to all teachers in his inspectorate, warning them not to introduce any unauthorized text book into their schools without the written authority of the Inspector, and where any have been introduced to discontinue their use at once, otherwise they will be liable to a penalty for the violation of the school law.

Complimentary.
Father Teefy's unanimous election to the Presidency of the University College Literary Society is creditable at once to him and to the society. He will by no means weaken the traditions of a very brilliant body. Father Teefy is one of the most scholarly and eloquent of the younger priests of Ontario, and his work at St. Michael's College is work well done.—Mail.

"War Notes."
Such is the martial title of a weekly campaign paper just started for the benefit of the general Scott Act Campaign inaugurated by the Dominion Alliance. It is issued by the Witness Publishing House, Montreal, at barely cost price—20 copies weekly for six months for one dollar. War Notes has in fact as well as in name the ring of battle, its articles being crisp and keen, its news got up in pointed style, and its headings trumpet blasts well designed to rally the temperance clans. It gives news of the working of the Scott Act where it is in operation, as well as campaign news.

New School Journal.

The School Supplement, is a new monthly published by Messrs. Eaton, Gibson, & Co., at their office 9, Toronto St., Toronto, and will prove a valuable assistant to teachers and all persons connected with educational matters. It is without doubt the best looking educational journal which has yet come under our notice. Subscription one dollar per annum.

Bible Society Meeting.

The Annual Meeting of the Richmond Hill Branch Bible Society will be held D. V., on Thursday evening 10 of April, in the Presbyterian Church at 7:30 o'clock. The permanent Agent, the Rev. J. G. Manly, and the residing ministers are expected to address the meeting. The Collectors will call on the public this or next week for subscriptions. Collection at the close of meeting.

Foresters.

The Foresters' Court is still going ahead. A few evenings ago they received a visit from the District Chief Ranger, who gave them great praise for the manner their new Court was being conducted. Last Friday evening their entertainment consisted of a number of five minute speeches, a couple of songs by Bros. Dewsbury and Andrews, and a recitation each from Bros. Agar and Norman.

Fire Alarm.

Quite an excitement was caused in Aurora on Tuesday evening, the 20th inst., by the alarm of fire. It caused a rush from the Salvation Army Meeting, in the Town Hall, which was literally packed with people, but it was soon discovered to be only a chimney in the Syndicate block, and as the soldiers commenced singing "Blood and Fire" with all their might they soon drew the crowd back.

A Good Story.

Everyone likes to read and hear a good story, one that is bright, cheerful and entertaining; one that will get the lads and lassies to "bide at home o' nights to read." A good story will make the housewife smile and the guide man clap his hands with delight. THE FAMILY WELCOME contains exactly what will please and instruct. We direct our readers attention to its advertisement in our columns and say, READ IT and TAKE IT.

Sabbath School Review.

At the Methodist Sunday School in this village there will be a review of the present quarter's International S. S. Lesson next Sabbath, by the Superintendent and Teachers, with appropriate singing by the Scholars. There will also be a series of Bible Questions, one for each Sabbath proposed by the Superintendent. The one for next Sabbath is "Who was Uncle to Huz and his brother Buz and where are the names to be found." If any of our readers outside of the Sabbath School here, would send answers to THE LIBERAL, we will insert their names and answer with pleasure.

PERSONALS.

Mr. Watkins, formerly in the marble business here, was in town a few days ago, and gave us a call. Glad to see him looking so well.

Dr. McLellan of Toronto, delivered a very eloquent, instructive, and practical sermon in the C. M. Church on Sunday evening last, selecting for his text the words "Honor all Men," and although the discourse lasted more than an hour, he was listened to through with the strictest attention.

DEATHS.

DAVIS.—At her late residence, Richmond Hill, on Sunday (Eve of March) 24, in the 72nd year of her age, Zilpha Olive, wife of J. M. Davis, and mother of Mrs. Currier and Mrs. James Newton.

CARMICHAEL.—At St. Andrew's manse, King, on Monday morning, Maria Ross, wife of the Rev. Jas. Carmichael.

O'BRIEN.—At Temperanceville, on Sunday morning the 23rd of March, John O'Brien aged 22 years.

OBITUARY.

We are pained to chronicle this week the death of Mrs. Zilpha Olive Davis, wife of our respected townsman Mr. J. M. Davis, which took place at her late residence, fifteen minutes past ten Sunday evening. Mrs. Davis, the daughter of the late Rev. S. A. Skeele, Universalist Clergyman, was born in Green, Chenango Co., N. Y., July 8th, 1812. In the year 1834 she was united in marriage with Mr. Davis at Sandusky, N. Y. After a short residence in that place, they removed to Arcade which was their home, until the Autumn of 1857, when they came to Canada, and have since resided at Richmond Hill and its vicinity. Had she lived until the 4th of September next, they would have celebrated their Golden wedding, in the near prospect of which, she had frequently spoken with cheerfulness of the anticipated arrangements. In the almost fifty years of her married life, we may truly say of her "The heart of her husband safely trusted in her." As a wife she was devoted, as a mother she was self-sacrificing and affectionate.

At the early age of sixteen, she acknowledged before the world her faith in the atonement of Christ, uniting in fellowship with a Christian Church. Her end was calm and peaceful, her christian patience and unwavering confidence in the goodness of the all-loving Father during the trying dispensations of four years of illness more than half of which was spent in physical darkness, were exemplified in a remarkable degree, never uttering a word of murmur or impatience. To God be ascribed the praise for the support he vouchsafes to his believing children. Surely for her "to live was Christ" but to die is her eternal gain. Her faith to the last was unshaken in the "restitution of all things which God hath spoken by the mouth of his Holy Prophets since the world began." Her husband, her two daughters, Mrs. N. P. Currier and Mrs. Jas. Newton, and her brother Mr. A. L. Skeele has sustained an irreparable loss. During her residence here she had endeared herself to a large circle of friends by her kind and genial disposition to all who came under her influence. Those who knew her best loved her most. Her funeral service will be held on the 15th anniversary of the death of her son Mr. J. Eaton Davis. Her remains will be conveyed to the family resting place in Arcade, N. Y.

Gone from among us, removed from our sight; Entered triumphant, the City of Light; Safe forever from sorrow and pain; Our loss we're assured is Heav'n infinite gain.
