

JEFFERSON.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Seeing that other villages, of perhaps less importance, are not backward in producing their items, why should not Jefferson keep in line? This beautiful village is picturesquely situated on the summit of a hill, in the midst of a thriving farming country, about three miles north of Richmond Hill and though as yet small, it has grand aspirations.

The village is considerably livened at present by the buzz of Mr. J. Mortson's saw mill, which is doing good service.

The wholesale and retail merchants are doing a thriving business, and therefore, as the Salvation Army says, "things are bound to move along."

The farmers are over head and ears in the spring work, and

Every day, and all day long, Among the fields you hear their song, "Gee up!" and "Haw around!"

We are glad to see that Mr. J. Graham has decided to settle down among us for the present, having moved from the 4th Con. Vaughan.

"There are as good fish in the sea as ever were caught," so the young men say, who indulge in that pleasure of pleasures—fishing for suckers. They seem to have been very successful so far.

By the use of Buckingham's Dye, the whiskers may be easily made a permanent, natural brown, or black, as desired.

A. Maybee, Merchant, Warkworth, writes: I have sold some hundreds of bottles of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, and it is pronounced by the public "one of the best medicines they have ever used," it has done wonders in healing and relieving pain, sore throat, &c., and is worthy of the greatest confidence.

BUTTONVILLE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The fall wheat is looking well in this neighborhood, Mr. Jos. Wilmet who has rented his farm has a field in splendid condition.

Fruit trees are being planted when it is too wet to work on the land. Some should be planted on the highways.

Mr. Bliss has quite a stock of lumber on hand for his wagon works.

Mr. D. Douglas has removed from here to Milnesville, to a larger farm.

Our village stores are doing quite a local business during the bad roads.

The Assessor has finished his work for this year, as yet no one has started out with a subscription list to supplement his salary "A person must go away from home to hear the news," it was mentioned in another part of Markham early in the year that assessors should not receive such high salaries from the township for part of the salary could be raised by subscription.

Mr. Chas. James has made a flying visit to Buttonville, hope he soon may become a permanent resident, notwithstanding some of the young men have expressed themselves as being unwilling to accord him a very cordial welcome on account of his being a Grit, if politics runs so high with the ladies as a bachelor he may remain so, for he may be treated as coolly by them.

Our grist mill is still standing idle, going to decay.

Notwithstanding last year was not very good for farmers, mortgages are being paid off farms.

Rev. Mr. Totten has been holding occasional revival services with good effects.

Rev. Mr. McIntosh is going to continue with us for another year although at one time it seemed doubtful whether he would stay or not.
