RICHMOND HILL, Thursday, May 8, '84

LOCALS.

Exemplary.

Dr. Wilson is beautifying the front of his residence. His neighbors should do likewise.

Prayer Meetings.

Cottage prayer meetings are held every week. Neighbor Drain was surprised last Saturday evening.

Bible Question.

The Question in the Methodist Sabbath School for next Sunday is "Whose daughter was Noah?"

Quarterly Official Meeting.

There was a large attendance at the Quarterly Official Meeting of the Methodist Church held on Monday.

Still Coming.

There seems to be an extra accumulation of "fragments of better times" at the Old Curiosity Shop at the north end of the town.

Christian Temperance Union.

There is talk of the formation of a Ladies' Christian Temperance Union in our Village. It should be the largest Temperance organization in our town.

Cleaning Them Up.

We observe that several of our citizens are cleaning up their yards and removing nuisances. Every householder should organize himself into a Sanitary Committee for similar purposes.

Try the Crown Syrup at the CONCRETE, as good as Maple syrup and only 80 cts per Gal.

Entertainment.

The teachers of the Public School in Thornhill purpose giving an entertainment in the school house on Friday (tomorrow) evening. Admission 15 cts; children 10 cts. All are invited.

Good Fishing Resort.

Disciples of the rod need not go outside of Richmond Hill for good fishing. Mr. D. Boyle of Langstaff, hooked, a few days ago, in Boyle's pond a fine speckled trout which weighed a pound.

Wanted "Butter and Eggs" at THE CHEAP CASH HOUSE—Highest prices paid.
 Sneath & Grennan.

Spring Fair.

A very successful fair was held in Markham Village on Wednesday, April 30th. About 2000 visitors attended during the day. The speeding in the ring was the attraction that drew the crowd. Mr. J. Palmer acted as one of the judges.

Doing His Duty.

Our Section Road Boss believes in Scripture when it says "There is a time to gather stones together," and is doing his duty. He does not want them kicked from Richmond Hill to Toronto and returned by the same process.

Address.

Mrs. C. M. Rutherford, Supt. of the Ladies' Christian Temperance Union, Toronto, will address the ladies of our village to-morrow (Friday) evening in the Temperance Hall. We hope that our church congregations will be well represented.

Still booming at the CONCRETE. 18 lb Good Sugar for one dollar; 23 lb Good old Raisins for one dollar; 20 lb Very Good Raisins for one dollar; 1/2 Doz. Cans British American Salmon, for 90 cents; 2 Cans Best Corn, for 25 cts.; 4 lb Sago for 25 cts.; 4 lb Tapioca for 25 cts.; 6 lb Best Rice for 25 cts.

"Agents' Day."
 Last Friday must have been "Agents' Day" in this village. The man with "Just the book you want;" "the inevitable satchel containing some irresistible commodity;" "the Piano man," and the "Life Insurance Man," were all doing us to the best of their ability.

Monthly Fair.
 The regular monthly fair was held on the fair grounds yesterday, and, considering the unfavorable weather was well attended. The most noticeable feature was the large number of milch cows for sale. We noticed Mr. Taggart, of Teston, leading off a nice team of light drivers which he had purchased.

If you want Cheap Goods of good quality, go to the FIRE PROOF Dress Goods at 5 cts. per yard; Prints at 4 cts. per yard; Shirtings at 8 cts. per yard; Heavy Ducks at 16 cts. per yard.

Fashionable Tailoring.
 Parties visiting Toronto for clothing will find it to their advantage to call at the fashionable tailoring department of R. J. Hunter, corner of King and Church streets. Mr. Hunter has the reputation of giving first-class fits, and those giving him a trial are sure to return. Read his ad. on 4th page.

West York Licensees.
 The License Commissioners of West York met on Tuesday last, and granted the following additional licenses:—Jos. Burkholder, Vaughan; Mrs D. Chafor, Woodbridge; M. O'Halloran, John Oulcott, James E. Holden, York; Thomas Scholes, Parkdale. An extension of three months was given to Jas Dwyer, Parkdale. This completes the work of the commissioners for the year.

You can buy 5 lbs. beautiful fragrant Green Tea at THE CHEAP CASH HOUSE for $1.00.
 Sneath & Grennan.

Still Improving.
 Mr. John Powell, of the Grand Central, is still improving the already handsome appearance of his hotel, by tuck-pointing the hall in connection with the buildings. As one drives through the country, villages can be observed here and there in a dilapidated condition, but this can not be said of Richmond Hill, as every year adds to the beauty of the place.

Friday's Gale.
 The high winds which prevailed on Friday morning last caused considerable excitement in the village for some time. Shingles and other light articles were blown around in different directions at a lively rate, but no particular damage was done. The apex on one of the towers of the Presbyterian church still holds forth, but its descent, it not looked after, will be only a matter of time.

THE CHEAP CASH HOUSE is selling the best make of heavy grey cotton in the country for 9 cts. a yard, also Extra good value at 5, 6, 7 & 8 cts.
 Sneath & Grennan.

Quarterly Meeting.
 Last Sabbath the regular quarterly meeting of the Circuit was held in the Methodist Church and was an unusually large gathering. The Rev. Starr preached from Heb. 12th chap. and 1st verse. The service was followed by a fellowship meeting and sacrament. The occasion was spiritually profitable to all, saddened somewhat, however, by the affliction of the pastor, Rev. E. Betts.

Ladies & Gentlemen:—
 Have you ever visited Eaton's, 190 to 196 Yonge St., Toronto? The business carried on there is really wonderful. Clerks by the score, all busily engaged, handing out their goods. By referring to the last page, you will see the great inducement held out on Dress Goods, Silks, Men's furnishings, Gloves, Laces, Notions, Hosiery, &c. &c. As Eaton's deal strictly on the cash principle, they sell at the very lowest prices.

Call at the CONCRETE and get the Bazaar Monthly for May, and see the Lace Curtains, Lambrequins, Cretonnes, Carpets, &c., extra value; also the Wall Papers and Borderings, which, for style, quality and price, cannot be beaten.

Runaway and Upset.
 On Saturday morning about ten o'clock, as Dr. and Mrs. McLellan, of Yorkville, were driving down Yonge Street into the city, the horse attached to their buggy took fright and ran away. Coming to Alice Street one of the wheels struck the kerbing, which overturned the vehicle and threw out the occupants. Mrs. McLellan escaped without serious injury, but the Dr., being a very heavy person, was very severely bruised.

Patterson.
 Mr. Hardy, the new book-keeper for Patterson & Bro., has arrived and entered upon his duties. He was long in the employ of Harris & Son, of Brantford, and consequently is not fresh at the work in such an establishment. May he find Patterson a congenial home. Mr. B. Patterson, of Whitby, has been assisting the "boys" in the office for some time. Probably we shall lose him from our village now.—Com.

A RARE CHANCE to get Wall Paper up to the 16th inst. in lots from 6 rolls up to 12 at 50 per cent. less than the regular selling price, and the largest stock in town at less than Toronto prices. Figured and plain Window Blinds—an Immense Stock at The Peoples' Store.
 P. G. SAVAGE.

Fire Practice.
 Last Friday evening the members of the Fire Brigade turned out in full force and had a general practice. On the word being given it was not long before all hands were down to the tank opposite the Fire Proof Store, where the throwing of water commenced at a terrible rate. Had a fire broken out at the time in that quarter, it would have stood a poor show. Richmond Hill can boast of one of the best Fire Brigades north of Toronto.
