

LANGSTAFF.

(From our own Correspondent.)
The farmers finished seeding in April in this vicinity, the earliest for some years.

Mr. Waterfield leaves home every morning and returns late at night. Rumor says he has obtained some lucrative situation. His son Frank, who recently started for Manitoba, took with him some thoroughbred stock. It is to be hoped he may be successful with them.

Mr. Geo. Weldrick, Jr., has left home for a more genial climate. The sudden storms here lately didn't agree with his health. George will be missed by the young people.

The cracked bell on our old school house gives forth a very uncertain and disagreeable sound, but it is in harmony with the fence, which is in a very dilapidated condition. It is a shame that our Trustees should allow this state of things to exist, especially when one of them is a Reeve, more might be expected of them. Hope I shall not have to refer to these matters again.

Being so unusually dry weather this spring, bush fires have already commenced to trouble a few of our farmers.

The gossip of our town, seeing a few loads of timber going towards the residence of our young and enterprising thoroughbred short-horn raiser, have set in motion a rumor that there is going to be a wedding soon. If some people would mind their own business they would have less time for other people's affairs.

Those same gossips do not know why a certain young gentleman from a neighboring village walks up and down through the town so often. Several times he has been seen taking notes, and it is giving great uneasiness to a few who look upon him with suspicion.

The use of mineral water is coming into vogue. Mr. Wm. Chapman, who has been gardening here for some of the citizens, says it is not the "whack" to take raw, for he has tried it. He says Andy puts some of his preparation in it which warms a fellow up.

LASKAY.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Last week, Mr. Alfred Gordan, of this place, had a very narrow escape of his life. While engaged at work on Mr. Lehman's dam, shovelling earth, and not thinking of what he was doing, he undermined the embankment about eight feet high above him. Mr. Lehman, who was standing by, seeing his danger, took hold of him and saved his life. He was hardly drawn out when the whole embankment failed. Since then he resolved to try another trade, called butchering, his headquarters being up at Schomberg. He remained there one day and thought it would not pay, so he returned to our little town and went to work for the miller.

Laskay Division, S. of T., intend holding an Open Division on the evening of the 23rd of May. All are invited to attend, as some of the best talent is to be present.

Mr. Joseph O'Brien, who has been visiting his friends for a few days, has gone to Minisippi to work with Mr. John Young. We miss his presence very much, as he was always ready for a joke and was one of the boys.

TORONTO TOPICS.

(From our own Correspondent.)

On Sunday afternoon last the Anniversary services of St. George's Society were held at Bond St. Church. The society turned out in full with badges and uniform and marched in procession from Louisa St., up Yonge and out to the Church. It was amusing to see small detachment of the Salvation Army, with banners waving and drums beating, march by about fifty yards ahead of the society, but the Army didn't lead them to the Church. Dr. Wild delivered a fine sermon, in which, among other things he expressed a strong desire to see ten times as many immigrants coming into Canada as what actually are. He was not at all in sympathy with the many people who are constantly grumbling at immigration. He also gave an amusing history of the legend of St. George and the dragon. A good musical treat was given by members of the choir.

At St. Michael's, musical vespers were given by the choir last Sunday evening. The grand old Cathedral was crammed to the doors. The sermon was good and listened to with intense interest, but the leading part of the service was the singing. It was simply magnificent, and showed that the reputation of this Choir was well earned.

The summer sports are now in vogue, and are being played daily. Football and Lacrosse receiving most attention. The bi-and tricyclists are on the move also, and their clubs take a run out to the country every few days.

Modjeska, the celebrated Polish actress is now at the Grand. She played Rosalind in "As you like it" on Monday evening and delighted the whole house. On Wednesday she plays in Romeo and Juliet. (Crowned out last week.)
