Drawing Lessons.

The Provincial Government is instituting a free course of lessons on Drawing, to be given to teachers during the coming vacation in the Normal School, Toronto. This is a great privilege, and we understand many teachers intend taking advantage of the offer. Drawing is a subject hitherto greatly neglected in our schools, but with this inducement, great impetus will be given this neglected branch.

All lines of Groceries at the Concrete House are of best quality and and best value.

Change of Time.

Sudden Death.

Mr. James Clark, of Headford, well known in the Methodist Chwren here, died very suddenly on Sunday last, at about 4 p. m. In the afternoon, while sitting between two of his daughters, one of wyom was reading to him, he leaned back in his chair and suddenly expired.

A Quiet Day.

While many of the surrounding villages will be all excitement on Tuesday next, July 1st, those who remain in Richmond Hill may count on a day of perfect quiet, as by present appearances, the town will be pretty well deserted. Semi-Centennial.

During the next week, hundreds of our citizens, both old and young, will visit Toronto's Semi-Centennial, which commences on Monday. This is a privilege, which to many will never again be extended. Would it not be to the interest of our schools, if the Trustees would grant the pupils and teachers a are bereft of all respect for themselves. | the privilege of attending on the same day.
