

HEADFORD.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The Methodist Church Choir gave an ice-cream social at the Parsonage on Monday evening, June 30th. At about eight o'clock crowds could be seen wending their way towards the parsonage, where a very enjoyable evening was spent. Several of the choir rendered some very choice selections of music. The friends began to depart at an early hour. They realized about 25.

On Dominion Day, some of our young gentlemen gave a garden party on the beautiful good farm of Mr. Wm. Rennie of Toronto. Several ladies and gentlemen were invited from Toronto, Victoria, Squam, Buttonville and Headford. There was about sixty guests, some of whom enjoyed themselves by lacrosse, croquet, winging and lawn tennis. At about 5 o'clock they retired to tea, where a grand spread was in store for them. After tea ice-cream, strawberries and lemonade were furnished and at about ten the crowd dispersed well pleased with their afternoon's sport.

Rev. N. E. Scott preached his farewell sermon on Sunday morning last, which was very eloquent and to the point. He took his text from 2nd Corinthians, 13th chapter, 11th verse. "Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you."

Hard and soft corns cannot withstand Halloway's Corn Cure: it is effectual every time.

EDGELY.

From our own Correspondent.

Years ago when Edgely went by the route of the Hudson Bay and the name of Mudville seemed to possess much more life and activity than it has enjoyed ever since, up to a comparatively short time ago. What Edgely might have been by this time had it not changed its name, is open only to conjecture. Then, nearly everybody within a radius of 50 miles seemed to know where Mudville was, but now you can hardly meet a man five miles from this place, that knows it by its present name, and indeed even now, to meet persons inquiring, you must first change the name back to Mudville before you can definitely locate its geographical position. It is situated directly at the source of Black creek, one of the largest east tributaries of the river Humber on the fifth concession of the township of Vaughan and up a direct line between Thornhill and Woodbridge. Just now Edgely is beginning to rise and is showing signs of returning life. It has its sidewalks, it has its booming hotel; it has its temperance organization; it is macadamizing its main street, and lastly, to be like other large villages it has its base-ball club.

This introduction has assumed such proportions, I shall leave over the base-ball club's success at Woodbridge, and a rare courtship and marriage till next week.

LASKAY.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Our village is still improving; there is a new house to be built south of the Mayor's residence.

The Mayor is away on a visit toward the north for his health. We wish him a safe journey and hope he may soon return and attend to the affairs of our little town, as there are several things neglected in his absence; our village is getting pilled up with all kind of nuisances. We hope he will attend to it on his return.

The Presbyterian Sabbath School intend holding an ice cream festival on the evening of July 18th. We wish them every success.

Mr. H. Baldwin is now busy repairing his dam, which gave way about three weeks ago. He is bound to have it so as to be able to defy the spring freshets.

We notice one of the factory men has been wearing green goggles for the past week.

DR. LANGSTAFF

Rev. Father Wilds' EXPERIENCE.

The Rev. Z. P. Wilds, well-known city missionary in New York, and brother of the late eminent Judge Wilds, of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, writes as follows:

178 E. 54th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

Messrs. J. C. Ayer & Co., Gentlemen: Last winter I was troubled with a most uncomfortable itching humor affecting more especially my limbs, which itched so intolerably at night, and burned so intensely, that I could scarcely bear any clothing over them. I was also a sufferer from a severe catarrh and catarrhal cough; my appetite was poor, and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by observation of many other cases, and from personal use in former years, I began taking it for the above-mentioned disorders. My appetite improved almost from the first dose. After a short time the fever and itching were allayed, and all signs of irritation of the skin disappeared. My catarrh and cough were also cured by the same means, and my general health greatly improved, until it is now excellent. I feel a hundred per cent stronger, and I attribute these results to the use of the SARSAPARILLA, which I recommend with all confidence as the best blood medicine ever devised. I took it in small doses three times a day, and used, in all, less than two bottles. I place these facts at your service, hoping their publication may do good.

Yours respectfully, Z. P. WILDS.

The above instance is but one of the many constantly coming to our notice, which prove the perfect adaptability of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA to the cure of all diseases arising from impure or impoverished blood, and a weakened vitality.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

MAY DEW

The Great French Lotion for Beautifying The Face.

It conceals the evidence of age. One application will make the most stubbornly red and rough hand beautifully soft and white. Remember that "MAY DEW" is not a paint or powder that fills up the pores of the skin, and that is injurious to the skin, but a new and great discovery, a vegetable liquid, that causes the cheek to glow with health, the neck arms and hands to rival the lily in whiteness. Impossible to detect in the beauty it confers any artificial character. It cures Greasy Skin, Freckles, Wrinkles, Pimples, Black Head, Crow's Feet, Blotches, Face Grubs, Smudges, Tan, Ringworm, Chapped Hands, Sore or Chapped Lips, Barber's Itch, Tetter, &c. It frees the pores, oil glands and tubes from the injurious effects of powders and cosmetic washes. By its use all redness and roughness are prevented; it beautifies the skin and will make it smooth, soft and white, imparting a delicate softness; producing a perfectly healthy, natural and youthful appearance. The best Face Lotion the world ever produced. We will send a Large Bottle to any address on receipt of price—$1.00. When ordering mention this paper.

Address all letters to the MAY DEW AGENCY, 167 Church St., Toronto, Ont. Parlor and reception rooms for Ladies.
