Musical.
 A pedestrian passed through the town on Tuesday, carrying what is commonly called a Hurdy-Gurdy, and created a sensation for a length of time. Evidently more than the small boys have an ear for music in Richmond Hill, as it appeared to be enjoyed by the old as well as the young.

Muskoka Election.
 The writs for the Muskoka election have been issued for the 23rd of July. The seat having been declared vacant by the unseating and dis-qualifying of Mr. Fauquier. It is to be hoped that bribery and corruption will not have the same place as at the last election.

If you want the best Harvest Glove that has ever been offered for sale on Richmond Hill, go to the Concrete.

Address and Presentation.
 About one hundred of the friends of the Rev Mr Starr, in the Newmarket, met in the lecture room of the church, on Friday evening, July 4th, and presented him with a beautiful French Ormolu Clock, accompanied with a Silver Chased Fruit Stand for Mrs Starr. A very appropriate and flattering address was also read, which, for want of space, we are unable to publish.

Accident.
 As the Rev Mr Dick, and Mrs Dick, were starting from home for a drive on Tuesday last, the horse turned too quickly on going off the bridge, and upset the buggy, throwing the aged couple on the hard road. Both received slight injuries, but their many friends will be glad to know it was not more serious.

There will also be a Luther Memorial Service on Sabbath afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Rev. Mr. Fishburne will deliver an address on "Luther and his work." All are invited.—Com.

Court Day.
 On Saturday last Division Court was held in Richmond Hill, and as usual brought a great many to the village. Several cases were tried, the one causing most interest in this vicinity being that between the Richmond Hill Cornet Band and Mr. Frank Powell. The difficulty arose by the Band expelling Powell from their number, for refusing to play with them on the 24th of May unless they would guarantee him a certain figure. The band requested him to return the bass horn, which he had been playing, valued at $60, but which he refused to do, claiming as a defence that he had not been legally expelled by a quorum of the Band. The case being one of replevin, and the bandiff having returned the writ without having been able to seize any portion of the goods, the judge declared that, although the plaintiffs were equitably entitled to damages, still on account of legal technicalities, requiring different procedure in such cases, he enlarged the case to enable plaintiffs to rectify their proceedings.

Rowdyism.
 Unpleasant as it is to refer to the improper conduct of our citizens at any time, we do not think it would be doing justice to our village to pass unnoticed the misconduct of some of them for the last two or three Saturday evenings. It is always painful to witness the rowdy element, even when it is strangers who are implicated, but when such scenes as those to which we hint, are indulged in, by those from our midst and by persons from whom we might expect better conduct, it becomes shockingly painful. We wish to avoid being personal, but could mention instances where clamorous and obscene language has been used, women have been annoyed, and young girls interfered with; added to this, some cowardly person, on Saturday night last, who shielded himself by the cover of darkness, wrote in several conspicuous places, language which was degrading and blasphemous, and which he would not dare to write in open day-light. We trust a kindly word will not be taken amiss by those who have so far forgotten themselves, and hope another Saturday night will not witness a repetition of such a state of affairs.
