 The Methodist Quarterly Meeting will be held in the Methodist Church of this place, next Sunday, commencing at 10 a. m. Rev. J. W. Savage, of Aurora, will preach.

Just opened at the Concrete, a magnificent stock of Gents' Scarfs and Ties.

A. F. & A. M.
 Richmond Lodge, No. 23, G. R. C., meets for general business on Monday evening next, Nov. 3rd. R. W. Bro. T. F. Blackwood, D. D. G. M., will pay a visit to the lodge on this occasion.

Just see our bright sugar at 20 lbs for one dollar—Sneath & Grennan, Cheap Cash House.

Ripe Strawberries.
 Mr. Mapes, of Headford, has handed us a little box of large ripe strawberries. They are as large as those of the first growth, but scarcely so sweet at this time of the year. Thanks!

The neatness, style and taste of the Millinery turned out by the Concrete pleases every time.

Thanksgiving Day.
 As Thursday next, Nov. 6th, has been proclaimed by the Gov. General, as a day of thanksgiving throughout the Dominion of Canada, our readers may look for THE LIBERAL a day earlier next week.

Scott Act Defeat.
 The Scott Act was defeated in the County of Peel on Thursday last, by about 170 majority. This news was received with much disappointment by the temperance people, as by all accounts they were quite confident of success.

Fire Proof House.
 Before the cold weather sets in, the public will find it to their advantage to call and inspect Mr. I. Crosby's stock of winter goods. The best of bargains can be had in Blankets, Flannels, Woollens, and other goods. See Ad. on another page.

Men's and boys' suits and overcoats are cheapest at The Cheap Cash House.

A Large Drive.
 A drove of cattle, numbering one hundred and thirty five, belonging to Pugsley Bros., passed through the village on Saturday. They were being taken to Toronto, whence they were shipped to Buffalo. The drove must have been worth at least $5000.

Ladies! if you want the finest all wool Cashmeres and Fancy Dress Goods at lowest prices you can get them at The Cheap Cash House.

A Large Turnip Crop.
 Mr. John Coombs, Lot 17, Con. 3, Vaughan, has an extraordinary turnip crop. The weight of some, after being trimmed, are 13½, 22, and 22½ lbs. respectively. We would like to know who can beat it. Can get waggon loads that four would weigh a bushel of 60 lbs.

The Concrete is now prepared to supply its numerous customers with the celebrated Chase & Sanborn pure standard Java Coffee, ground fresh in the store.

Halloween.
 Next Friday eve will be Halloween. If the boys wish to surprise the citizens, they should not remove the gates and signs, as these tricks are old and monotonous. People can scarcely object to them taking a few cabbage heads, and this would be more like a new departure in Richmond Hill.

Don't lose sight of those all wool Chambly Flannels—best value on the Hill at the Cheap Cash House.

New Voters.
 The ladies in Aurora are becoming ambitious. Last week forty one widows and unmarried ladies were added to the voters' list and will consequently be entitled to the privileges of the franchise at the municipal elections. No doubt the unmarried will be wellcourted from this time forward, and aspirants will not forget to "remember the widows."

The Concrete has just opened up a splendid line of Furs of all kinds. Astrachan Mantles, Caps, Muffs and Capes, Persian Lamb Caps and Muffs, Seal Caps and Muffs, Coney Caps, Muffs and Capes, All at prices that will suit every time.

Unreserved Credit Sale.
 Mrs. S. Cummer, having disposed of her farm, Lot 18, Yonge Street, offers for sale, on Friday Nov. 7th, 1884, her valuable farm stock and implements. Sale at 12 o'clock, sharp. Terms:—For grain and all sums of $10 and under, cash; over that amount twelve months' credit on approved joint notes. S. Eckardt, Auctioneer. For further particulars see posters.

Those who do not buy their supplies of Dry Goods and Groceries at the Concrete, lose money.

Horse Thief.
 We intimated last week that a horse and rig belonging to Mr. R. Bell, Bond's Lake, had been stolen from the stable on the night of Wednesday, Oct. 22nd. Since that time the thief has been captured and the buggy, harness and buffalo robe retrieved, but the horse is still at large. The particulars of the case are as follows:—On Saturday evening last, the Chief of Police in Brampton telegraphed Constable McConnell here, that the capture had been made at a small place called Norval, about eight miles from Brampton. The Constable, in connection with Mr. Bell, jr., immediately started for the place, where they found that everything as stated was correct, except that the horse was not recovered. It appears the fellow had freed the animal for the purpose of grazing along the road side, but not liking its driver had given him the slip. While in the neighborhood the scamp had stolen two large crocks of butter from a farmer's dairy, and secreted them in a neighboring straw stack, where they were found on the following day. He also took the buffalo robe and blankets from the buggy to this farmer's barn, and slept in the mow during the night. As those things were found the next morning, and as it was expected he would return for them, a couple of men were put on watch and quite early the next night the simpleton did come back, but no doubt met with a warmer reception than he had anticipated, as one of the men knocked him down with a club and handled him so roughly that the blood ran freely for some time. He is now in the Brampton jail and will be brought up for trial to-morrow. From the description Mr. McConnell gives of him, it will not be unlikely if he turns out to be the villain who ran away with Mr. Rupert's horse and rig some months ago.
