Mr. C. Winlow, Toronto, writes: Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure is a valuable medicine to all who are troubled with indigestion. I tried a bottle of it after suffering for some ten years, and the results are certainly beyond my expectations. It assists digestion wonderfully. I digest my food with no apparent effort, and am now entirely free from that sensation, which every dyspeptic well knows of unpleasant fullness after each meal."

LANGSTAFF.

From our own Correspondent.

Although November instead of May, yet it is a "moving" time. On Halloween sundry ditches, that had always been useful, moved into the road, others alongside fences; in fact fences and bridges moved.

Mrs. Foley has moved to Thornhill, having purchased a homestead. Mr. Waterfield will move at Xmas, having secured a situation elsewhere.

Miss Ansley, our teacher, is going to move, being desirous of securing a place in a village school.

Mr. D. Boyle will move off his farm, unless he can move Sir John out of office with his N. P.; he, Mr. B., not being satisfied with the price of wheat and wages.

Mr. Weldrick, who is satisfied with the N. P., the price of wheat and long wool, is moving the stumps off his farm that he may grow more wheat and wool.

Mrs. Cook will move, if she can find a purchaser for her residence.

Mrs. Lane has deferred moving to Manitoba for another year.

Mr. N. Chapman can't move very far at present, being under medical treatment. Hope he will soon recover his wonted strength.

Mr. Munshaw moves away regularly from the toll-gate every night.

A host of bodily troubles are engendered by chronic indigestion. These, however, as well as their cause, disappear when the highly accredited invigorant and alterative, Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure is the agent employed for their removal. A regular habit of body, and a due secretion and flow of bile, invariably result from its persistent use. It cleanses the system from all irregularities, and restores the weak and broken down constitution to health and strength.

TESTIMONY OF SOME OF THE ABLEST JUDGES OF THE ENGLISH COURTS.

Judge Coleridge:—There is scarcely a crime that comes before me that is not, directly or indirectly, caused by strong drink.

Judge Patterson:—If it were not for this drinking, you (the jury) and I would have nothing to do.

Judge Williams:—Experience has proved that almost all crime into which juries have had to enquire may be traced in one way or another to drunkenness.

Judge Wigram:—I find in every calendar that comes before me, one un-failing source, directly or indirectly, of most of the crimes that are committed—intemperance.

Judge Alderson:—If all men could be dissuaded from the use of intoxicating liquors, the office of judge would be a sinecure.

Lord Shaftesbury says:—Seven-tenths of the moral evils of London are attributed to that which is the greatest curse of the country—habits of drinking and the system of intoxication.

CARDINAL MANNING.

The venerable leader of the Roman Catholic Church in England was one of the chief speakers at a temperance congress in Liverpool a few weeks ago. We quote his words:—"I admit that a Maine law may be called an extreme remedy; but have I not already proved that there is an extreme evil, and if temporizing measures will not remedy the evil, let us have an extreme remedy (Applause.) What has brought things to their present pass? Is it not that the domestic life of our people has been wrecked by drink, and these are the homes to which those who squandered their wages in drink are compelled to go. (Applause.) I CHARGE, THEN, UPON THIS GREAT DRINK TRAFFIC NINE-TENTHS OF THE MISERY AND DISTRESS AND WRECKED HOMES OF OUR PEOPLE. (Applause.) Well, now, the government, and that for centuries, has raised an enormous revenue from the drink trade, and therefore I may call the government a sleeping partner in that trade, and a guilty partaker of its consequences. So long as the revenue is raised upon intoxicating drinks I hold that we are all partakers of the crime and the misery, and the disease and cruelty, and the evils of body and soul in time and eternity, which are caused in such prolific abundance by the trade in strong drink."

Rev. Father Wilds' EXPERIENCE.

The Rev. Z. P. Wilds, well-known city missionary in New York, and brother of the late eminent Judge Wilds, of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, writes as follows:

"78 E. 54th St., New York, May 16, 1882.
MESSRS. J. C. AYER & Co., Gentlemen:

Last winter I was troubled with a most uncomfortable itching humor affecting more especially my limbs, which itched so intolerably at night, and burned so intensely, that I could scarcely bear any clothing over them. I was also a sufferer from a severe catarrh and catarrhal cough; my appetite was poor, and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by observation of many other cases, and from personal use in former years, I began taking it for the above-named disorders. My appetite improved almost from the first dose. After a short time the fever and itching were allayed, and all signs of irritation of the skin disappeared. My catarrh and cough were also cured by the same means, and my general health greatly improved, until it is now excellent. I feel a hundred per cent stronger, and I attribute these results to the use of the SARSAPARILLA, which I recommend with all confidence as the best blood medicine ever devised. I took it in small doses three times a day, and it is now excellent. I place these facts at your service, hoping their publication may do good.

Yours respectfully,
Z. P. WILDS."

The above instance is but one of the many constantly coming to our notice, which prove the perfect adaptability of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA to the cure of all diseases arising from impure or impoverished blood, and a weakened vitality.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla
cleanses, enriches, and strengthens the blood, stimulates the action of the stomach and bowels, and thereby enables the system to resist and overcome the attacks of all Scrofulous Diseases, Eruptions of the Skin, Rheumatism, Catarrh, General Debility, and all disorders resulting from poor or corrupted blood and a low state of the system.
