Glass, of the meat emporium, have kindly consented to furnish us with the latest village quotations.

Scott Act Lecture.

According to announcement in last week's LIBERAL, Rev. A. K. Caswell delivered a ecture on the Scott Act, in the Temperance Hall, on Tuesday evening last. The building, including the gattery, was packed, which goes to show that the people are anxious for information on this important subject. The lecturer divided his discourse into three sections, first, giving an account of what the Act is, and showed that, practically, it means total prohibition in the County where in force. He then gave reasons advanced by the opponents of the measure, why the Scott The next meeting of Vaughan Council Act should not be carried, which he answerwill be held in the Town Hall, Vellore, on ed with much ability. Lastly he gave many forcible reasons why the Act should be supported, and made an earnest appeal to the An immense stock of fancy wool audience for their most strenuous efforts to carry on the good work. Rev. W. R. Barker occupied the chair. At the close a vote of thanks, moved by Rev. Mr. Booth, seconded by Mr. W. Harrison, was tendered the lectnrer. Appropriate music was furnished by members of each of the church choirs.

We were pleased to hear the President remark on the public platform on Friday evening, that it was the determination of the nobby Tweed suit and a first-class Directors of the Mechanics' Institute to re-Overcoat all at lowest prices, call store that institution as near as possible to its former usefulness and good standing.
