

CATARH—A new Treatment whereby this hitherto incurable disease is permanently cured in from one to three applications, no matter whether standing for one year or forty years. Descriptive pamphlet sent free on receipt of stamp. A. H. DIXON & SON, 305 King Street West, Toronto, Canada.

WESTON.

From our own Correspondent.
Since my last communication to THE LIBERAL, 1885, under very favorable circumstances, so far as Canada is concerned, has launched on his voyage down the stream of time, heavily laden as all his predecessors with the elements to fill the cup of human happiness, or not, in due time to be meted out with unerring hand to every member of the human race. Let us hope that the portion and only experience of every reader of THE LIBERAL will be health, happiness and prosperity.

For several weeks past the village has been as destitute of an item interesting to the general reader as our bushes are of blue birds. Under such circumstances it cannot surely be considered disloyalty in your correspondent to heave one sigh of regret for the brave days of old before the era of Crooks or the still greater terror of Scott Acts paralyzed the hands of our dispensers of the fun-making liquids. Our holiday season so fruitful of incident in the past, this year failed to furnish a single item worthy of a place in THE LIBERAL, and may for all practical purposes of news making, be henceforth expunged from the calendar.

Again Municipal Elections at best with their secret voting and closed bar-rooms are but sorry apologies for the elections of former years. Candidates in those days were not only plentiful and willing to sacrifice time and means, but seemed to be amply repaid for such sacrifice in the knowledge that they had contributed to the general fund of the neighbors' enjoyment. Now, however, modern nostrums appear to the many, but the result to the few is deeply flavored with benighted Gritism in these days of protected industries. The world, however, moves forward for the better, croakers to the contrary notwithstanding.

Our Municipal Elections passed very quietly, there being only one aspirant to a seat at the board. Mr. James Coulter, defeated by Mr. Barton two years ago, succeeded in recovering the seat on the present occasion. Mr. Barton's abilities as a member of the Council are much superior to those of his opponent, being a ready speaker and an apt critic of the weak spots in an opponent. Much, therefore, was expected of him as a member of the council, but little realized. Instead of imparting to the others a little of his vim and push, he rapidly developed into an ardent a sinner on the coat tail of progress as any of his colleagues. The change, however, is not likely to improve matters nor do I see any prospect of improvement without the aid of the press to compel them, especially in the matter of the public health, to do their duty. Nuisances are tolerated in the village, that in any other village would subject the council to impeachment and heavy costs. I will, however, revert to the subject at a future time.

Worms derange the whole system. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator degrades worms, and gives rest to the sufferer.
