Montreal's Great Carnival.

One of the most noticeable features of the Montreal Winter Carnival is a magnificent special "Carnival Number," issued by Messrs. John Dougall & Son, of the Montreal Witness. The publishers have pressed into service the most talented Canadian artists and, 6.15 consequently, the result has never been equalled in Canada. The number fairly teems with illustrations, and has a gigantic four-page picture-"Storming of the Ice Castle by Night"-designed by Mr. Robert Harris, A. R. C. A. Besides this there are full page pictures by Messrs. Harrington, Bird, Raphael, Walker, and other leading artists, and the number also contains the Carnival Poem, appropriately illustrated, for which a prize of $100 has been paid, and a special Supplement representing the various athletic clubs and their leading men. The letterpress pages have been tastefully prepared, and contain a very large number of engravings, representing various phases of our Canadian winter sports. The price of this gorgeous number is but ten eents per copy, postpaid. Orders are filled strictly in the rotation in which they are received by John Dougall & Son, "Witness" Office, Mon-

Institute Reunion.

On Friday evening last, was held in the Temperance Hall, the second of a series of Reunions in connection with the Mechanics' Institute for the present year. If our readers are to form an idea of the interest taken in the Institute generally, by the audience present at the Reunion, the conclusion drawn would be very unsatisfactory, as the number, besides ticket holders, was extremely small The entertainment, on the whole, was fair; parts of it remarkably good. Mr. J. H. Shepard, of Willowdale, who, some years ago favored the Institute with his readings, gave several selections in a most happy manner. His rendition of a Christmas Carol, written by Charles Dickens, could scarcely have been excelled by the great author bimself. Mr. Shepard's elocutionary powers have greatly improved since he last read in this village. During last year he took a trip to England, and while there was under the tuition of one of the most eminent teachers of elecution in London. The Misses Collins, of Thornbill, played a couple of duetts, and Miss L. Collins sang a song which was well received. Mr. John Ness, of King, recited several humorous pieces, which caused much laughter. Just the thing to keep out the cold. Miss Jennie Ness held the audience in breath-Fragrant and delicious coffee. Best less silence by a touching recitation. Mr. W. Robinson, of Maple, gave a reading which brought forth much applause. The Glee Club rendered valuable assistance, Miss Hewison accompanying on the piano. The Richmond Hill Dramatic Club amused the The annual Convention of the East and | audience with their shadow pantomimes, and ended with a farce entitled "A night in a strange Hotel." Net proceeds about $1.50.
