Carrville News.

The snow has given new life to our village. On Friday, the 23rd ult. two large sleigh-loads of pleasure-seekers made their way to surprise their friend, Mr. Cherry. During the evening, which was one of pleasure, the principal part of the programme consisted of some exquisite selections on the organ, but the best of all were some comic and sentimental songs given by a gentleman from Scarborough Heights. At about 11 o'clock, an excellent supper was prepared by the good ladies of the house. After ample justice had been done to the good things provided, the highly appreciated friend from S. H. was again called out, when he gave a very amusing address. At a late hour in the night, the company adjourned, all being highly delighted with the drive, and with the evening's enjoyment.—Com.
