

FAIRBANK.

From our own Correspondent.
The Annual Meeting of the Reform Association of York township was held here on Tuesday, the 3rd inst. The President, J. B. Devins in the chair. On motion, the following were elected officers—Pres., Jos. Watson; Vice-Pres., William Bathgate; Secretary, F. R. James; Treas. Alex. Gibbs. The following gentlemen were appointed Chairmen of the different polling Sub-divisions:—No. 8, James Fairhead; No. 9, Alex. Charters; No. 10, Michael Ryan; No. 11, W. A. Parsons; No. 12, J. B. Devins; No. 13, E. Armstrong; No. 14, Andrew Armour; No. 15, John C. Daniels. After transacting other business of a minor nature, it was moved and unanimously carried that the meeting be adjourned till the 17th inst., and that some able speakers be secured to address the electors on that day.

Amos Hudgin, Toronto, writes: "I have been a sufferer from dyspepsia for the past six years. All the remedies I tried proved useless, until Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure was brought under my notice. I have used two bottles with the best results, and can with confidence recommend it to those afflicted in like manner."

NEWTON BROOK.

From our own Correspondent.
The Anniversary Services in connection with our Sabbath School were held here last week. Sermons were preached to the children on Sunday, by Rev. James Thom, M. A., a former Pastor of this church. A Tea and Entertainment were given on Thursday evening, which attracted large numbers, the church being crowded. The ladies and children sustained their reputation for serving a good Tea, and presenting an excellent program. The death of the wife of the Superintendent, Mrs. Thomas Jackson, cast a gloom over all in connection with the Sabbath School, and made the festivities much quieter than they otherwise would have been. On Friday evening, the children had their Tea and Social. The amount realized from all the services is about $200.

NORTH ETOBICOKE.

From our own Correspondent.
In sending my last I thought that two weddings were a large enough number to report for one neighborhood at one time, but since then the mania has spread like small pox and Cholera. No less than 5 couples, within as many miles of each other, have with one consent, by their actions declared that they are tired of a life of single blessedness. Two of the interested parties (Mr. Solomon Atkins and Mr. Michael Ramsay) have chosen partners whose names are unknown to your correspondent. The others are Mr. Thos. Pierson, to Miss Lawrence, of Clairville; Mr. Jos. Curley, of Weston, to Miss Lizzie Mahon, of Smithfield; and last but not least, Mr. Eber Kaiser, to Miss Mary Jeffery, from near Woodbridge. One of these is said to be a secret, so say nothing about it boys.

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT THE SCOTT ACT:
It's a bad thing, because it causes false swearing, and what's worse than a false oath?
You can't legislate people into heaven. It will rain the price of barley, and by this means I have my living.
It's dishonest on the face of it.
I'm a temperance man, but I won't vote for it because I grow barley.
I want sign petition, cos t'other side'll hupcast hit hat ma.
You are a mighty hard crowd.—The Canvasser.
