In Memory.
The Rev. Edmund Dyer, notice of whose demise appears elsewhere in THE LIBERAL, was better known to those who have reached the meridian of life than to the young of the present day, for he had much to do as a public and private school teacher in the training of many of those who now fill positions of trust and responsibility, and as scholars in the old-fashioned singing schools many others have been benefited by his instructions.
Mr. Dyer was born at Walton, Somerset, England, Oct. 24th, 1805, and was married to Joanna Collins of the same place, May 27th, 1828. They removed to the State of New York in 1832, and to Canada in 1848. In 1866 they returned and have since resided in the State of Michigan. His ministry embraced a period of 55 years, having been licensed to preach in the year 1827. He first preached in the Methodist Church in England, then in the M. E. Church in the States, afterwards in the Wesleyan Church in Canada, and since 1866 to the time of his death, in the Congregational Church in Michigan. In all these places he has had the joy and satisfaction of seeing the fruit of his labors, his own and the children of others in after years gratefully acknowledging his instrumentality in their conversion. He was always an earnest laborer in the Master's vineyard, and being of a cheery, lively and hopeful temperament he exemplified a happy christian in early and middle life, a joy and peace which seem to deepen and widen as he advanced in years, for his last days were the happiest of his life. Last summer he made a tour and visited all his children, bade a last good-bye to many of his old friends in Richmond Hill and vicinity, and returned to the home of his son-in-law, C. Dodge, Esq. Contracting a slight cold, but too much for age to withstand, the "weary wheels of life stood still," and free from disease he passed away in peace on Tuesday, 3rd inst., in the 80th year of his age. He felt that his work was done, and was ready for his departure; for him to die was gain. Many will remember his wise counsels, and will not forget his earnest prayers. He was interred in Southfield, Michigan, near where two years previously he had buried the partner of his life. The memory of the just is blessed.
WM. HARRISON.

Mr. H. McCaw, Custom House, Toronto, writes: "My wife was troubled with dyspepsia and rheumatism for a long time; she tried many different remedies, but did not get any relief until she used Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. She has taken two bottles of it, and now finds herself in better health than she has been for years."

Weighed in the balance, but not found wanting. Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure has been weighed in that just balance, the experience of an impartial and intelligent public. Both remedially and pecuniarily it is a success. Its sales constantly increasing, testimony in its favor is daily pouring in. The question of its efficacy in dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney ailments, and for blood purifying, is decided.

Private Lessons.
MISS CAMERON is prepared to give instruction to pupils in English branches School to open on Monday, March 2nd, 1885.

A Scott Act Song.
(PUBLISHED BY REQUEST.)
The Scott Act Band throughout the land,
Defeats King Alcohol,
With efforts brave it aims to save
The drunkard one and all.
Is it not just that we should trust
To it our worthy cause?
And, if we do ourselves prove true,
We'll meet with just applause.
Stir up your hearts, prepare your darts,
To lay this monster low,
For true we are engaged in war
Against a mighty foe.
For this old king his force will bring,
To drive us from the field,
But we are bound to hold our ground,
And never, never yield.
Though winds do blow, both high and low,
And storms our ranks assail,
With courage true our work pursue,
And in the end prevail.
Though Antis jeer, we need not fear,
For right is on our side,
We'll plead for laws to aid our cause,
And face the swelling tide.
Then hold the fort 'gainst rum and port,
And be its bold defender,
United stand in full command,
And never do surrender.
But battle strong against the wrong,
Lie men of courage go,
And march in force against that cause,
Which fills the land with woe.
Join in this work good men of York,
Your aid we must secure,
For 'tis your voice that will promote,
And pass the Scott Act sure.
So up with haste and do not waste
One hour of golden day,
But press the fight with all your might,
And end the foul traffic say.
Then East and West with all the rest,
Shall join in gladness strain,
And welcome here with hearty cheer,
The worthy deeds of men.
And conquering throngs shall swell the song,
In one grand jubilee,
And shouts burst forth from hearts of worth.
That good old York is free.
WOODBRIDGE, Feb. 10th, 1885.

Gilbert Laird, St. Margaret's Hope, Orkney, Scotland, writes: "I am requested by several friends to order another package of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. The last lot I got from you having been tested in several cases of rheumatism, has given relief when doctor's medicines have failed to have any effect. The excellent qualities of this medicine should be made known, that the millions of sufferers throughout the world may benefit by its providential discovery."

TEMPERANCEVILLE.
From our own Correspondent.
The annual Missionary Meeting was held in the Methodist Church of this place on Wednesday evening, 11th inst. Notwithstanding the severe cold quite a goodly congregation were assembled. Mr. T. Tinkler ably filled the position of chairman. Revs. Savage, of Aurora, and Wilkinson, of Beeton, gave two eloquent appeals for support of the Missionary Fund. Music was furnished by the choir. The meeting was a success, collections being in advance of last year.
On Saturday, 14th inst., Mr. J. Stephenson held his second stock sale; about twenty-five head of cattle were disposed of at reasonable prices.
Quite a novel sight was witnessed on Yonge St on Saturday last; it was that of a man driving a bull hitched to a cutter. It seemed to be well broken and a very good driver. No need to be stuck for a driving horse when there are any cattle around after that.

Ill-fitting boots and shoes cause corns. Holloway's Corn Cure is the article to use.

AURORA.
From our own Correspondent.
Our roller skating rink seems to be the centre of attraction for pleasure-seekers. A rather unfortunate accident happened to one, Mr. Forsyth, a few evenings ago. While skating he fell and broke a bone in his wrist.
M. B. Faugner, one of our oldest merchants, has put up his shutters, and assigned. We do not know the amount of his liabilities.
The resignation of Mr. Rodgers caused a vacancy in the Public School Board, which was filled on Monday by the election of G. L. Stevenson. Quite an exciting time was had over it. Miss F. Higginson, who was duly nominated, ran in opposition, and it was thought that she would be elected until a late hour in the day. Fleury's men turned out en masse, and gave G. L. a majority of five votes.
A few persons of our village and adjacent country are trying to establish a "co-operative store" in this place. The price of each share is five dollars. This price is so low that it will enable any one who has five dollars to lose, to take a share or more.

If your children are troubled with worms give them Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator; safe, sure and effectual.

MAPLE.
From our own Correspondent.
Our village has quieted down to its normal state since the Bachelors' Concert. Notwithstanding the severity of the weather, the Hall was literally packed, and judging from the large crowd, the cheerful faces, and handsome sum realized, it proved a grand success. For over three hours, the bachelors in their shirt-sleeves and white aprons were busily engaged serving out the bivalves, and, though the crowd grew somewhat impatient towards the last, everything went as harmoniously as if the waiters had served their apprenticeship in a first-class hotel. The ladies were all taken by surprise, and even charged them, with having imported a cook. After tea, all repaired to the Hall which soon became packed. The chair was occupied by Mr. T. F. McMahon, Richmond Hill, who opened the Concert in a very happy speech, urging the ladies present not to allow such a golden opportunity to pass without procuring a handy old bachelor. Teston String Band discoursed first-class music and were heartily encored, whilst the Richmond Hill Glee Club took the field by storm. Messrs. Atkinson, of Richmond Hill, and Crossley, of Springhill, sang several songs and were loudly applauded. Mr. C. Savage gave a Cornet solo which was well received, and Mr. A. J. Hume delighted the audience with his exuberance on the Harmonica. Mr. S. Agar kept the house in roars of laughter with his comic readings. Mr. A. Rupert gave an excellent recitation, and Mr. W. Robinson closed with the "Sale of Bachelors," the bidding being very lively. Our village is to be congratulated on having so many plucky gentlemen, and more especially in such a good cause. From the proceeds a first-class library will be secured. Much credit is due Mr. A. Rupert for his untiring efforts throughout the whole affair.
A large load anticipate visiting Springhill next Friday evening, in return for their visit last week. We hope they will have the oysters hot and handy.
Rev. M. Eawcett preached the annual Educational Sermons on behalf of the Educational Fund last Sabbath, in the Methodist Church.
Our roads are being pretty well covered with gravel, and teams are still hauling. We trust those interested will make an extra effort to have the road between the village and station completed.
Rumor is afloat that we are to have a hotel at the station. Business must have taken a boom in Tuscarora.
