A Concer was held in the Methodist church of this place on Wednesday evening, March 4th After the opening services, Mr. D. Gregory was appointed chairman. The entertainment was of a first-class order, consisting of music and singing by the Aurora Christian Silver Band, and the home choir, lectures on the earth and the heavens, and a recitation by Miss Wallace. The lecture by Rev. J. E. Sanderson was instructive and interesting. After 9 o'clock refreshments were passed around, after which Rev. J. W. Savage spoke about half an hour on "The Heavens" in his racy and humorous style, and as he quaintly said he had not commenced his lecture "at all, at all," he promised to give it some evening when there would be more time. Proceeds over $20.
