RICHMOND HILL, Thursday, April 30, '85

LOCALS.

Agent wanted for the Atlanta Valley Provident & Life Association. See Ad.

Try our 35 up to 80 cent Tea at A. Moodie's.

Barnes' snowstorm has come and gone, and now we may prepare for Spring.

Best Winceys and Lybster Shirts at A. Moodie's.

Fire Practice.

To-morrow evening (Friday) being the first of May, the Fire Brigade will be out for their first practice of the season. Every man to his post.

Gents' Suits made to order at A. Moodie's.

Building Larger.

Mr. D. Gray is tearing down the old home-stead of the late Dr. Duncumb to make room for a more pretentious structure. The new residence will be of white brick.

Fine New Bosnia Prunes at A. Moodie's.

W. C. T. Union.

The next meeting of the W. C. T. Union will be held at the residence of Mrs. Campbell, on Tuesday evening, May 5th, at 7:30. All temperance workers cordially invited.

Flour and Feed at the lowest cash price at A. Moodie's.

Gone Up.

The price of bread has risen one cent a loaf, in anticipation, we presume, of an Anglo-Russian war. Its ability to jump up always exceeds its ability to jump down.

Bonus.

The ratepayers of Newmarket at a late meeting granted the sum of $5000 to Messrs. W. A. Cane & Sons to assist in building up their factory. The new buildings are to be brick, and will be constructed on an extensive scale.

Boston Times.

"Miss Marie C. Strong sang Post's—'Forever and forever,' with fine effect, her pure rich contralto voice being supplemented by a most graceful stage presence." Miss Strong will sing in the Methodist Church on the evening of the 25th of May.

Veterinary Surgeon.

The latest addition to our village is a new Veterinary Surgeon in the person of Mr. J. T. Nattress, of Toronto Veterinary College. Mr. Nattress comes well recommended, and judging from his conversation, is an out and out horseman. See card on first page.

To Cricketers.

A meeting will be held in the Temperance Hall on Monday evening next for the purpose of re-organizing the Cricket Club. A full attendance is requested, as much important business will be brought up.

Lacrosse.

The "Young Canadians," bound to be to the front, are taking time by the fore-lock, and have had several practices already. It is well to make a good start, as, ere long, they will be called upon to defend the Medal now in their possession.

Performers for Methodist Concert.

The following distinguished and talented artists have been secured for the annual concert to be given in the Methodist Church of this place on the evening of the 25th of May: Mrs. Celeste V. Keltie, the favorite soprano, Buffalo, N. Y.; Miss Marie C. Strong, contralto, late of Boston, Mass.; Herr Fried, the favorite tenor, of Rochester, N. Y.; Miss Berryman, the talented mezzo soprano, Toronto; Mrs. H. M. Blight, Toronto, pianist and accompanist; Miss Kate Strong, mezzo soprano and elocutionist, of Mount Forest; Mr. Fred Warrington, Toronto, Ontario's favorite baritone, musical conductor.

Brampton.
"Mrs. Keltie has a voice of wonderful sweetness, and she throws into her songs such expression and soul that every one must yield to its influence whether musical or not." Mrs. Keltie will sing in the Methodist Church here on the evening of the 25th of May.

Change of Tone.
We notice that the Evening News, which formerly censured and ridiculed the Salvation Army as a Sabbath breaking nuisance, now that it has become a Sabbath breaker itself, finds many reasons why the Army should continue to violate the sanctity of the Sabbath.

Correction.
Last week in giving the subject of Rev. W. B. Booth's sermon preached on Sunday evening, we should have given it, "The Mysterious Cry," instead of "The Mysterious City." We are sorry for our mistake, and shall endeavor to be more careful in future.

Fashionable.
Now that spring is close at hand we notice our popular artist, Mr. Bert. Andrews, is doing a rushing business in the tonsorial line. Many of the little girls, as well as older damsels, are visiting his fashionable parlor, getting their hair cropped short in the old Puritan style, and look even more pretty than before.

Toronto Globe.
The greatest hit of the evening was undoubtedly Mrs. Keltie's exquisite rendering of Cowen's beautiful song, "The Better Land." Her cultivated, sweet-toned voice enraptured the audience, and an encore was vociferously demanded and gracefully acceded to. Mrs. Keltie will sing in the Methodist Church here on the evening of the 25th of May.

Dividend No. 2.
On another page, notice is given by the Central Bank that a dividend of three per cent. upon the paid up capital stock of this institution has been declared for this current half year. This will be payable at the Bank and its branches on and after Monday, the first day of June next.

Grand Concert.
A grand concert will be given in Victoria Hall, Thornhill, on Friday evening, May 1st, under the supervision of Professor W. M. Clarke, late of Worcester, England. The best of talent has been secured from Toronto, Brantford, Woodbridge and other places. Admission 25 cents; children 15 cents. Concert to commence at 8 o'clock. Proceeds in aid of Trinity church, Thornhill.

Toronto Mail.
Miss Marie Strong achieved a marked success. She has a remarkably rich voice and in the cavatina "Ah Quel Giorno," from Semiramide surprised the audience by the extent of her capabilities in the way of vocalization. She received an enthusiastic encore and her triumph was certainly well deserved. Miss Strong will sing in the Methodist Church here on the evening of the 25th of May.

New Music Store.
As will be seen by advertisement on another page, Messrs. Clark & Seager have opened a new Music Store opposite Brown Bros, Bakers, where they purpose keeping a full supply of musical instruments, and music of every description. Mr. Clarke is also open to receive pupils in vocal and instrumental music. Instruments tuned, and satisfaction guaranteed.

Thornhill Murder Trial.
On Friday last, in the interests of the Crown against the alleged murderers of the late Mr. Arnold, High Constable Jones and Hugh McMahon, Q. C., who are to conduct the case for the Crown at the criminal assizes, visited the place where the murder was committed. The case will be tried this week.

Bee Journal.
We have received the first number of the Canada Bee Journal, edited and published, at one dollar a year, by D. A. Jones, the well-known bee man, of Beeton, Ontario. It is the only one on Apian matters in Canada. It is a neatly gotten up Journal, and to all bee-keepers will prove a valuable help to success, as it is brim full of information in its editorial correspondence and query departments.

Temperance Meeting.
The next Monthly Temperance Meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church next Monday evening, commencing at 7:30 p. m. F. S. Spence, Esq. of Toronto, Secretary of the Dominion Alliance, will address the meeting. Mr. Spence is thoroughly posted on the temperance question, and is an able and eloquent speaker. The public are cordially invited to attend. A collection will be taken to defray expenses.

Illustrated Sporting News.
We are in receipt of the first number of a new sporting paper, published in New York, under the above title. It contains sixteen pages, neatly printed on first-class paper and is the most readable journal of the kind we have ever handled. The engravings, which embrace characters of the highest eminence in the sporting world, are elegantly executed, and the reading matter is void of anything low, too often found in such papers. We will gladly place it among our exchanges. The price is 10 cents a copy, or $4.00 per annum in advance.

The Illustrated War News.
The Grip Printing and Publishing Company, of Toronto, issued last week No. 4 of their fine illustrated newspaper, descriptive of events connected with the rebellion in the North-West. Each successive issue of this paper eclipses its predecessors, and we are pleased to observe that the publishers are meeting with the success they deserve. No. 4 contains the following illustrations:—Lord Melgund's Scouts surrounding three of White Cap's Warriors; The Winnipeg Light Infantry (91st Battalion) preparing for service; White Cap, the Sioux Chief; Trial Practice with the Gatling at Swift Current; Col. Otter's Brigade approaching the South Saskatchewan; The Nova Scotia Provisional Battalion at Montreal; Steamers at Medicine Hat loading Ammunition and Stores; Reading Battalion Orders in the Drill Shed, Hamilton; The Midland (Col. Williams) Battalion marching to the C. P. R. Depot, Winnipeg; Portraits of Officers at the Front, including Col. Oumet, M. P. No. 5, which will be issued on the 2nd May, will be an intensely interesting number, as it will contain, in addition to other fine illustrations, sketches representing the relief of Battleford, and the Battle at Fish Creek. The price of the paper is 15 cents per copy, and it can be produced either from the publishers or from local newsdealers.

PERSONALS.
Miss McKinnon is visiting at her sister's, Mrs. Robert Holland.
Mr. Bert. Wiley, of Rochester, is at present visiting friends and relatives in the village.
Mr. A. F. Stevenson, Editor and Proprietor of the Aurora Borealis, was in the village on Monday, and gave THE LIBERAL a friendly call.

Rev. Dr. Stone, Associate Editor of the Christian Guardian, will preach in the Methodist church of this place next Sunday at 10 a. m., and at 6:30 p. m. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered after the morning Service.

MARRIAGES.
