Teachers' Meeting.

The next teachers' meeting for the study of the lesson in connection with the Methodist Sabbath School will be held on Friday evening, at the residence of Mrs. Wm. Bricknell.

Mechanics' Institute.

The Annual Meeting of the Richmond Hill Mechanics' Institute for the election of officers, &c., was called for Tuesday evening last, but as a quorum could not be got together, no business was transacted. Out of a membership of forty-five, five were present. Shame! ve forty absent members.

The place to order your Spring Suit is at the Concrete, where you have got an immense variety of Scotch and Canadian Tweeds, French and West of England Worsteds and Trousers in every style to choose from.

A fine Appearance.

Sanderson Bros' Drug Store has undergone a complete renovation from one end to the other, and will now compare favorably with any drug store in the county. Three new show cases have been put in, which add greatly to the appearance. One of the cases, which is two storeys high, with looking-glasses in each department, is an elegant piece of furniture. Mr. Ed. Snider executed the painting, which reflects credit on the workman.

Gentlemen, if you want a nobby Tie, or a fashionable Hat just see the stock at the Cheap Cash House; cheapest in the trade.

Sabbath School Institute.

Rev. J. McEwen, secretary of the Provincial S. S. Association, will conduct a S. S. Institute at Thornhill, commencing on the evening of the 21st and continuing all of the 22nd inst. Those interested in S. S. work should avail themselves of this opportunity to be present. They are requested to bring their bibles and note books with them, that they may profit to the greatest extent by these services.

Changed to 8 o'clock.

By request of several persons outside of the village, the store-keepers of Richmond Hill have consented to keep their places of business open each evening till 8 o'clock, instead of 7:30 as formerly. This change has been thought advisable in order to accommodate the farming community. Consequently the shutters need not be closed till 8 o'clock, when the bell will ring as a signal. It is to be hoped this extra half hour will give all the time necessary for business, and that places will close promptly at the ringing of the bell.

Dangerous Accident.

As Mr. John Clubine, father of Mr. Ezra J. Clubine, who resides about two miles north of this village, was driving a spirited horse to Newmarket on Saturday last, it became unmanageable and threw him out on the stone road, breaking his leg near the thigh. Several doctors were immediately sent for, but had great difficulty in setting the shattered limb. As Mr. Clubine has not a strong constitution, and being seventy-four years of age, it is feared he will not survive the injuries.

First Practice.

The fire brigade were out last Friday evening for their first practice of the season. They made a fine display, and attracted much attention by their appearance and manner in working the apparatus. On the word being given, they were soon at the tank opposite the parsonage, at the corner of Church and Centre streets, and in a few seconds afterwards were dashing water on the Methodist Church, and the buildings of Sanderson Bros. at the same time. Few villages the size of Richmond Hill can boast of an engine that will throw water such a distance.

A Gentle Rebuke.

The Rev. J. E. Starr, pastor of the Berkeley street Methodist church, gave his congregation a little surprise party at the evening service on Sunday. While they were standing waiting for the benediction to be pronounced, he made a sign to the sexton to hand him his overcoat. When it was given to him he put it on, turning the collar up all around. Shrugging up his shoulders till his ears were hid from view, he inquired if he wasn't a nice-looking object. While his auditors stood gazing in open-mouthed astonishment, and wondering whether their pastor had suddenly taken leave of his senses, the latter proceeded to explain. He said that every Sunday night during the winter he had observed certain male members of his congregation make a grab for their overcoats and drag them on while the benediction was being pronounced. He thought he would show these persons what they looked like as viewed from the pulpit. Doubtless the pastor's rebuke will have the desired effect, if the remembrance of it does not wear off before the time for overcoats gets round again.—News.

Performers for Methodist Concert.

The following distinguished and talented artists have been secured for the annual concert to be given in the Methodist Church of this place on the evening of the 25th of May: Mrs. Celeste V. Keltie, the favorite soprano, Buffalo, N. Y.; Miss Marie C. Strong, contralto, late of Boston, Mass.; Herr Fried, the favorite tenor, of Rochester, N. Y.; Miss Berryman, the talented mezzo soprano, Toronto; Mrs. H. M. Blight, Toronto, pianist and accompanist; Miss Kate Strong, mezzo soprano and elocutionist, of Mount Forest; Mr. Fred Warrington, Toronto, Ontario's favorite baritone, musical conductor. The Rochester Morning Herald says:—"It is unnecessary to speak of Mr. Fried, except to state that upon each appearance he seems to strengthen the hold he has upon the public. He was in excellent voice last evening and was compelled to repeat his solo, 'Cajus Animam,' in response to what might be called an ovation." The Mail of Dec. 12th, 1882, says:—"A very agreeable surprise was occasioned by the singing of Miss Berryman in the aria, 'Heart the Seat of Soft Delight,' which was received with warm expressions of approval that were well deserved." The Stratford Western Despatch says:—"Mr. Fred Warrington, of Toronto, achieved a splendid success in his first appearance before a Stratford audience, and in voice, appearance and style showed himself a vocalist of rare accomplishment and merit."

Fire-Brigade Meeting.

The Richmond Hill Fire-brigade met in the Council Chamber on Friday evening last for the transaction of business, the Captain in the chair. After the minutes of the last meeting, April 10th, were read and confirmed, the various clauses of the By-Laws which had been revised, were taken up seriatim, and several important changes were made. It was decided that the membership of the Brigade should not exceed fifty, exclusive of officers. It was also decided that members not answering to their names at roll call for three consecutive regular meetings should have their names struck from the list, except in case of sickness, or for reasons satisfactory to the brigade. According to the new By-laws, nine members will be required to form a quorum, instead of seven as formerly. The By-laws were afterwards adopted as revised. Firemen McMahon and Nicholls reported that, according to instructions they had asked the village Council to pay for refreshments furnished to firemen after being on duty at fires. The request was granted. Mr. A. Moodie tendered his resignation. On motion of Fireman Linklater, seconded by Fireman Storey, the resignation was accepted and Mr. Moodie was enrolled as an Honorary member. Messrs. Alex. McKenzie and John Keunersley were proposed by Firemen Trench and C. Storey respectively, and accepted as firemen. On motion of Foreman Redditt, the Secretary was instructed to notify members respecting punctual attendance at meetings. Twenty-five copies of the By-laws were ordered to be printed, to be hung in the Fire Hall and other appropriate places. The meeting then adjourned.

Presbyterian Concert.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church intend giving the grandest musical festival ever held in Richmond Hill in the auditorium of their church, on the evening of May 25th. The following noted talent has been secured at great expense:—Mrs. Caldwell, Toronto, leading soprano of Canada; Mrs. Adamson, violinist, graduate of Leipzig Conservatory, Germany; Mr. Sims Richards, universally acknowledged the best tenor in Toronto; Mr. Kelly, Collingwood, baritone, will once more delight a Richmond Hill audience with his sweet singing and guitar accompaniments. Mr. J. D. Kerrison, from School of Art and Music, Toronto, accompanist for the evening. This will undoubtedly be the treat of the season, as neither trouble nor expense will be spared to make it a success. The New York Mercury speaks of Mrs. Caldwell as follows:—"The Dow Concert of the 10th was a great success. The singing of Mrs. Caldwell, Hamilton, Canada, was the crowning part of the entertainment. She has a magnificent voice of great compass, and as sweet as a nightingale." The Toronto Globe says:—"The singing of 'Qui la Voce' by Mrs. Caldwell, of Hamilton, was one of the best efforts ever heard in Toronto (this season, and was loudly encored." Lockport Daily Union says:—"Mrs. Caldwell has one of the finest and best cultivated soprano voices we have ever heard. She was extremely pleasing in her selections, but when it came to the 'Cuckoo Song' the audience was completely enraptured." The Amphoin, Detroit, says:—"Mrs. Caldwell made her Detroit debut at this time. Her voice is a peculiar one, being, even in its entire compass, very sweet, pure, sympathetic, flexible in the highest degree and of true intonation. It reminds us of Di Murska's more than any we've yet heard. She sings without any effort whatever, a pleasing attribute, which some of our noted prima donnas lack. She took high F apparently with great ease, not just touching it staccato like, nor running up the scale to it, but jumped a fourth from C up to F and dwelt there. There is a fortune in her voice and we would advise good first-class managers to investigate and see." The Guelph Mercury in speaking of Mr. Kelly, says:—"Mr. Charles Kelly surprised everyone with the depth and richness of his powerful basso voice. In 'Hybris the Cretan' he was afforded an excellent opportunity to show his great range. He received the most spontaneous and enthusiastic encore of the evening, and responded with another song." The Lindsay Post says:—"The attraction of the evening was undoubtedly Mr. Chas. Kelly, of Brampton. Mr. Kelly is well known in Lindsay. With his magnificent voice and compass he possesses a fine stage appearance. His songs, 'King and Miller' and encore, 'Sailing,' and in the second part, 'Sunlight of our Home,' were warmly applauded, and the audience would not be satisfied until Mr. Kelly had responded. Mr. Kelly's name will be as a tower of strength on any Lindsay programme of the future." Brampton Conservator:—"A duet 'The Fisherman,' by Mrs. Caldwell and Mr. C. Kelly, was rendered in magnificent style, the sweet clear and warbling notes of the soprano blending in unison with the deep, rich and full notes of the bass. They received a hearty encore. Mr. Kelly has improved very much since he last sang in Brampton and may now be regarded as one of the very best basso singers in the Dominion. Mr. Kelly has ever been a favorite with audiences in Brampton, and in fact is such wherever he goes."
