The Salvation Army.

To the Editor of THE LIBERAL:
MR. EDITOR,—Your last issue of THE LIBERAL contains a communication from your Thornhill correspondent in regard to the Salvation Army that is not strictly in accordance with the facts of the case.
Your correspondent says that the Salvation Army came to Thornhill on Thursday, April 16th, whereas they came on Friday, April 17th. He also says that the enthusiasm which marked their advent into this village has subsided; he is again mistaken, as the vast audience that attended their services last Sunday will attest. Your correspondent's "bowels of compassion" seem to have been moved by fear, lest the coming of the Salvation Army should shake the churches of this quiet village from centre to circumfer-ence. Surely they are not such pusillanimous things that two or three uneducated men clothed in scarlet jackets can shake the foundation of the faith of their communicants. Did your correspondent see in the "elite" of the Army from Yorkville the coming of the foe that was destined to compass the overthrow of the churches that have been the pride and glory of Thornhill for more than quarter of a century?

Your correspondent says that money is one of the great hobbies of the Army.
They do not make more of a hobby of it than do all the churches. Your correspondent is evidently determined to find fault where no fault really exists. In his reference to Mr. Musselman, he is entirely mistaken as to his object in going to the Hall on April 27th. He did not go to partake of the 'Free Breakfast' to which your correspondent so sneeringly alludes, but for the purpose of having a conversation with one of the members of the Army.

There is much that is peculiar about the methods of the Salvation Army, but it has been signally successful in gathering the sin-soiled around the cross of Christ; it has raised the fallen and carried joy and sunshine into a thousand homes that have been cursed and blighted by the demon of drink. Its wonderful success and growth is prima facie evidence of the Divinity of its mission. Wherever the flag of England towers there can be heard the drum-beat of the Salvation Army. Its officers are frequently uneducated men, and which, on general principles we cheerfully concede the importance of an educated ministry, yet it must be borne in mind that some of the greatest preachers and evangelists the world has produced were men of but little culture.

Give the Salvation Army a chance, if it is of man it will ultimately perish like Jonah's gourd, in a single night, but if it is of God it is imperishable.
A CHURCH MEMBER.
Thornhill, May 4th, 1885.

The rock on which many a constitution goes to pieces is Dyspepsia. The loss of vigor which this disease involves, the maladies which accompany it, or which are aggravated by it, the mental despondency which it entails, are terribly exhaustive of vital stamina. Its true specific is Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, which likewise overcomes bilious maladies, female ailments, and those coupled with impurity of the blood.

The Salvation Army.

To the Editor of THE LIBERAL: Sir:—In your issue of the 30th ult., is a communication from your Thornhill correspondent. No doubt he has just returned from his trip for your readers have not been kept well informed about the events of the village. He has come back and settled down to business, and the first hour and a half he has to spare, he writes a communication to your paper, and all the news he has for us is about the Salvation Army. He has not time to inform himself, and give your readers the benefit of such information as the increased patronage to the celebrated Hawthorn Springs, or the whilom factory now about being made ready to manufacture patent process flour, or the regret the public evinced in losing our obliging Post master, or the large business conducted by the new firm of Lindsey & Francis, or how a former teacher spends some days interesting himself in some who were once pupils, or as to the condition of the schools of the village, or whether the Head Master is dissatisfied with boarding and is looking for a house that would nicely accommodate a family of two, or inform us about the health of the village; whether the Inspector, Board of Health, officers or medical practitioners are doing their duty, or whether the License Inspector has made his rounds, or that Rev.
Father Egan has again assumed his duties, or that Rev. Mr. Bates conducted a series of Lenten services, or that Prof.
Clarke had a most successful concert, or that the trustees and choir of the Methodist church desire agents that have organs for sale to place them on trial for two days, or how Rev. Mr. Totten holds some of his services in the Methodist church at the same time the Salvation Army hold their meetings, or of the starting of a line of stages to Thornhill Station to connect with cars to and from Toronto, or of preparations for building new dwelling houses, or of changes likely to take place socially, or of ninety and nine other things that might be mentioned likely to interest the reading public.

But, Mr. Editor, these were not the things I intended writing about, but a short reply to your correspondent's attack on that noble band of workers—the Salvation Army. He says people went to hear them out of "curiosity." How many attend the churches of our land today through the same motive; yet would he decry the churches on that account?
Better attend through curiosity than not at all. Then he finds fault on account of their lack of education; certainly there may be room for improvement in that direction; it is no fault of theirs, however if their parents, through poverty or crime have neglected their education, but we should rather admire their energy and zeal in so great a cause. "Enthusiasm subsided" has it, not at all; the Hall cannot seat all that come to their meetings.
"Afraid it would hurt the churches," your correspondent must be a bigoted Episcopalian, Catholic, Methodist, or Presbyterian, or he would never talk in that way.
There is room enough for all to work.
Plenty people who never go to church in and around Thornhill, the resident ministers and leading representatives from all denominations attend their services. "Money and poor mouth;" he trots out the foregoing as though the clergymen of the village lived on the Gospel and the air; they never take any salary, stipend, dues or offerings, or perhaps the clergy pray that they may be kept humble and look to the people of Thornhill to keep them poor. Again, writing all that he can to hurt them in their work, he has the audacity to say he don't want to injure them. Poor fellow, I do hope by this time he will have been able to have gained courage enough to attend a few of their meetings and not be writing from hearsay. Why should a man of solid worth be singled out (Mr. M.) as being friendly to the Army, while the James', the Elson's, the Cox's, and the Soddaby's, people of undoubted respectability patronize the meetings, and are not stigmatized for it?

R. O. W.
May 4th, 1885.

A. D. Noyes, Newark, Mich., writes:
"I have enquired at the drug stores for Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, but have failed to find it. We brought a bottle with us from Quebec, but it is nearly gone and we do not want to be without it, as my wife is troubled with a pain in the shoulder, and nothing else gives relief. Can you send us some?"

Do not lose another Spring.

To the Editor of THE LIBERAL:
SIR.—Nothing impresses the traveller through Ontario with so deep a sense of wasted time and lost opportunities as to observe, here and there, perhaps even ten miles from each other, some few farms well sheltered from the north and west winds by the beautiful and imperious evergreen windbreaks which are so easily and quickly grown in this country if properly set out—and then to pass, mile after mile, by farms from which the trees have been taken till what might have been a handsome farm and residence, is but a number of squares of earth with some buildings in one corner—a place from which the summer wind will dry the moisture before it has half benefited the crops, and where the snow, the protector of the winter field, cannot lie evenly, but is blown by the wind into drifts which permit no good wheat yield. The stranger passes by, and thinks truly, "Now, a little work a few years ago, and all these farms might have been so well protected as the one or two I have observed on my way."

Why not use this spring? In the Province there are many places where thousands of evergreens are springing up in clusters, and if transplanted early in June —without allowing the roots to dry in the sun even for one minute—they will be just what is wanted. Or, if none be near, nurserymen can supply them, and there is no better investment. Plant a thousand along the north side this spring, and in ten years the farm will be value for much more money. Plant them, give a little care for a season or two in mulching or stirring the earth near them—either will do—and every recurring year the planter will be more glad that he did the work.

Yours, &c., matism in the head, from which I nearly constantly suffered, until after having used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for nine days, bathing the head, &c., when I was completely cured, and have only used half a bottle."

OAK RIDGES.

From our own Correspondent.
Our Burgh has been very quiet since last you heard from us, owing to the peaceable disposition of its inhabitants no doubt.

The farmers have been waiting anxiously for seeding-time, and have at last got fairly settled down to work, and if the present fine weather continues, will have the greater part of the seed in the ground this week.

The April returns show an increase of one in our population, viz., the wife of E. Crittenden, of a son.

There has been a good deal of fishing in the stream which runs through this place, and it is to be supposed that some fish were caught.

The boys of Oak Ridges have resolved to start a Lacrosse Club this spring. They have not issued any challenges yet, but other clubs had better hold themselves in readiness.

Is there anything more annoying than having your corn stepped upon? Is there anything more delightful than getting rid of it? Holloway's Corn Cure will do it.

DEATHS

DUFFY—At Maple, on the 12th inst., the beloved wife of Michael Duffy, aged 40 years.
CLARK—At No. 30 Rolyat Street, Toronto, on the 12th inst., at the age of 73, Elizabeth, widow of the late Justus Clark, and mother of Mrs.
J. E. McNally, of Aurora.

Worms cause feverishness, moaning and restlessness during sleep. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is pleasant, sure and effectual.

A PRIZE.

Send six cents in postage, and receive free, a costly box of goods which will help all, of either sex to more money right away than anything else in this world. Fortunes await the workers absolutely sure. At once address TRUE & Co Augusta, Maine.

Mr John Magwood, Victoria Road, writes: "Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure is a splendid medicine. My customers say they never used anything so effectual.
Good results immediately follow its use.
I know its value from personal experience, having been troubled for nine or ten years with dyspepsia, and since using it digestion goes on without that depressing feeling so well known to dyspeptics. I have no hesitation in recommending it in any case of indigestion, constipation, heartburn, or troubles arising from a dis-ordered stomach."
