Grant to Firemen,

Ours is not the only Council who show a willingness to assist its Fire Brigade. At the last meeting of the Aurora City Fathers, that honorable Body granted the Fireman of that place $225 for the purchase of uniforms for the company. This Brigade consists of sixty-five officers and men, and reflects much oredit on our sister village.

Ladies you can be suited most pleasingly in the Millinery Department of the Concrete.

Our Band.

The Richmond Hill Cornet Band, led by Mr. C. Savage, are busy practising new music for the Fair on the Queen's Birthday. Last Tuesday evening they played several selections on the street in front of the Lorne Hall, and were much appreciated by the villagers. There is nothing like the Band for gathering a crowd, and cheering up the spirits of the people.

Mount Forest Paper.

"We feel at a loss how to adequately describe the singing of Mr. Kelly, who followed with the song entitled 'The Owl.' His manner, in the first place, is agreeable, and aids materially the effect of his singing. His voice is of great capacity and sweetness, the ease with which he reaches the lower notes being admirable. This is Mr. Kelly's first appearance in Mount Forest, but we greatly mistake the musical tastes of our citizens it he is not often requested to visit us again.' Mr. Kelly will sing in the Presbyterian church on the evening of the 25th of May.

Gentlemen. if you want a nobby Tie, or a fashionable Hat just see the stock at the Cheap Cash House; cheapest in the trade.

Fire in Markham,

Last Monday morning, about two o'clock, a fire broke out in the machine shops of sumed the buildings. A dwelling house on the premises occupied by one of the sons was also burned, together with the machinery, patterns, ten new threshing machines, and all the spring stock of farm implements. The buildings belonged to the Nichols Estate and were lightly insured. Loss to Fleury and Sons about $20,000; no insurance.

Chicago Times.

"Mrs. Caldwell, who appeared Saturday evening with the Remenyi Concert Company, was a welcome surprise to a Chicago audi-| ence, -making her debut without any special announcement, but proving to be one of the most accomplished vocalists introduced here for many years. She is a very beautiful woman, and her voice and manner were charming. She was the vocal attraction of the evening, and the audience regretted another opportunity was not afforded to hear her." Mrs. Caldwell will sing in the Presbyterian church on the evening of the 25th of May.

Performers for Methodist Concert.

The following distinguished and talented artists have been secured for the annual concert to be given in the Methodist Church of this place on the evening of the 25th of May: Mrs. Celeste V. Keltie, the favorite soprana, Buffalo, N. Y.; Miss Marie C. Strong, contralto, late of Boston, Mass.; Herr Fried, the favorite tenor, of Rochester, N. Y.; Miss Berryman, the talented mezzo soprano, Torento ; Mrs. H. M. Blight, Toronto, pianist and accompanist; Miss Kate Strong, mezzo soprano and elocutionist, of Mount Forest; Mr. Fred Warrington, Toronto, Ontario's favorite baritone, musical conductor.

Presbyterian Concert.

Performers for the Presbyterian Church Concert on May 25th: Mrs.Caldwell, Toronto, leading soprano of Canada; Mrs. Adamson, violinist, graduate of Leipsic Conservatory, Germany; Mr. Sims Richards, universally acknowledged the best tenor in Toronto; Mr. Kelly, Collingwood, baritone, will once more delight a Richmond Hill audience with his sweet singing and guitar accompaniments. Mr. J. D. Kerrison, from School of Art and Music, Toronto, accompanist for the evening. In addition to the above distinguished array of talent the committee have been successful in securing the valuable services of the talented Miss Hardman, mezzo soprano, of Toronto, who scored so brilliant a success at the late Conversazione of University Wednesday evening after a visit of several Toronto Globe.

Mr. Sims Richards, a possessor of a magnificent tenor voice, rendered "Bella Sicome un Angelo Ricci," with excellent action and effect, and was rewarded with a degree of applause that would not accept of a refusal. In reply, he sang "Ould Ireland, you're me Darling," with a vim and spirit that would suit the most enthusiastic son of the Emerald Isle. In the second part of the programme, Mr. Richards gave "The Gay Hussar," and in answer to a most gratifying encore, sang "Where'er St. George's Banner Waves," with a power of expression and real sympathy that proved quite contagious in creating a feeling of patriotic ardour in the Mr. D. Fotheringham, P. S. I., visited our | hearts of his audience. That Mr. Richards is a vocalist of no mean order was quite evident from his eminent successful efforts last in all the departments. We heard him say | evening, and that he cannot fail of being popular dare not admit of a doubt." Mr. Richards will sing in the Presbyterian church on the evening of the 25th of May.

Illustrated War News.

We have received the sixth number of the popular Illustrated War News. The front page contains a picture which will be of intense, though mournful, interest to Canadians. It represents the burial of the volunteers who fell at the battle of Fish Creek, A graphic sketch shows the attack of halfbreeds on the steamer carrying the first expedition for the relief of Battleford. The commencement of the battle at Duck Lake is given from a sketch furnished by a North-West Mounted Policeman. The advance guard of the Royal Grenadiers passing Humboldt, and the men of "C" Company (Infantry School) returning from a rabbit hunt are from sketches from the same source. This number contains the usual two-page Sujplement, which is a fine one, and represents, in three sketches, Toronto Ladies receiving and packing contributious for the soldiers at the front. The paper sells at 15 cents a copy, obtainable either from local booksellers or from the office of publication.

Rochester Union and Advertiser.

" Mrs. Caldwell's first appearance, early in the evening, when she sang an aria by Bellini, was heartily encored, and she gave a simple ballad with purity and sweetness When she began the 'Cuckoo Song' many of her listeners were a shade disappointed, for many of them heard Emmet's rich veice roll it out. But a little later the disappointed look was changed to one of pleased surprise, and, when the imitation of the cuckoo's call was reached, to one of wondering delight. The peculiar quality of voice displayed at this time by Mrs. Caldwell is exceedingly rare-indeed it is doubtful if any one but herself possesses it to the extent displayed last evening. Pure, clear and of exceed ing delicacy, it seemed more like the voice of a bird than that of a human being, and at its close the applituse was spontaneous and enthusiastic to a degree rarely shown by a Philharmonic audience in this city, composed, as it always is, of musical and cultivated people, who criticise the most finished performances. She replied to the tumult by simply repeating the call. Mrs. Caldwell, always a favorite here, has now doubly endeared herself to music lovers in this city." Mrs. Caldwell will sing in the Presbyterian New Velvets and
