Toronto Mail.

"Miss Marie C. Strong achieved a marked success. She has a remarkably rich voice, and in the Cavatina "Ah Quel Giorno" from Semiramide surprised the audience by the extent of her capabilities in the way of vocalization. She received an enthusiastic encore, and her triumph was certain well deserved." Miss Strong will sing in the Methodist church on the evening of May the 25th.

Portage la Prairie.
 "Mrs. Keltie in stature is a small lady but she has a Soprano voice so powerful and rich that it is wonderful from whence it comes. Added to her voice she has a most captivating appearance and absolutely carried the audience with her on each occasion. Her success was thorough and she will be gladly welcomed by our people whenever at a future period she may wish to visit Portage la Prairie." She will sing in the Methodist church on the 25th of May.

Council Meeting.
 The Village Council met last Monday evening, the Reeve in the chair. Councillors present, Messrs. Redditt, Savage, and Powell. The minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed. The following accounts were ordered to be paid: Jos. Hall, for seeds to be sown on Park Lot $15; T. F. McMahon 50 quarter sheet bills, overlooked last year, $1.50; M. Teeff, conveyancing and registering deed for Park, $8. By request of Mr. J. W. Elliott, Assessor, Lot 36 and 37, on 47 Richmond St. belonging to Mrs. Mary Quantz was placed on the non-resident roll. The Council adjourned to meet on Monday, June 15th, at 8 30 p. m.

Brantford Expositor.
 "Mr. Warrington sang the bass Solo in the Cantata with a clearness of accentuation and a vim which seemed to inspire the choruses as they rang with greater energy always in following this gentleman. He sang well in the Cantata, but he stormed the audience with his rendering of "Alone in the desert," and was twice recalled. Mr. Warrington has a thorough conception always, of what he intends to sing, and having a voice of great compass, a true musician's soul, and thorough control of a powerful and pleasant voice succeeds in winning friends everywhere, and in no place more than in this city." He is Conductor of the Concert in the Methodist church on the 25th. Tickets 25 cents; reserved seats 35 cents.

Three Straights.
 Last Saturday afternoon, the lacrosse ball was set rolling here in a match played between the "Young Canadians," of this place, and the "Victorias," of Toronto. As usual, the home team came off victorious, taking three straight games in 9, 39 and 5 minutes respectively. Quite a large number of people congregated to witness the play, which proved very interesting. After the completion of the match, the strangers were treated to a supper served at the Palmer House, after which they took their departure on the evening bus. There are several good players in the team, but they were forced to remain on the defensive all through.

Presbyterian Concert.
 Performers for the Presbyterian Church Concert on May 25th: Mrs. Caldwell, Toronto, leading soprano of Canada; Mrs. Adamson, violinist, graduate of Leipsic Conservatory, Germany; Mr. Sims Richards, universally acknowledged the best tenor in Toronto; Mr. Kelly, Collingwood, baritone, will once more delight a Richmond Hill audience with his sweet singing and guitar accompaniments. Mr. J. D. Kerrison, from School of Art and Music, Toronto, accompanist for the evening. In addition to the above distinguished array of talent the committee have been successful in securing the valuable services of the talented Miss Hardman, mezzo soprano, of Toronto, who secured so brilliant a success at the late Conversazione of University College.

Our Holiday.
 Should Monday next, the 25th inst., prove to be a fine day, we may expect to see a very large crowd of people in from the surrounding country. No doubt the Fair will be the principal attraction, but many will be drawn to Richmond Hill in anticipation of meeting their friends and taking dinner or tea with them in the Methodist or Presbyterian church, as the case may be. A grand concert will be given in each church in the evening, which promises to excel anything that has ever been given in this section of country. In fact, the only pity is, that so much excellent talent has been secured for one evening, as many would gladly avail themselves of the privilege of attending both entertainments did they come on different evenings.

Canadian Pictorial.
 The seventh number of the "Canadian Pictorial and Illustrated War News" is to hand. We are pleased to learn that the publishers have decided to make this a permanent publication, under the foregoing title. The illustrations in this number are fine. On the first page, we have a telling picture entitled "A brave Scout's untimely end." It will be remembered that, after the battle of Fish Creek, Lafontaine, with other scouts, were sent out to ascertain the whereabouts of Poundmaker. They were surrounded by Indians, and compelled to retreat. Lafontaine was wounded, fell from his horse, and died game, rifle in hand, facing the enemy. A full-page picture shows the battle of Cut Knife Creek, which resulted in victory for the troops under Col. Otter. Other sketches are as follows: Scenes with the North-West Field Force (from sketches by the special artist of the War News, Mr. F. W. Curzon, with Maj.-Gen. Middleton's command); Camp of the 7th Battalion (Fusiliers) at Winnipeg; also six portraits of interest (reproduced from photographs). The two-page supplement is a fine cartoon picture entitled "And now for business." General Middleton is here represented as preparing to strike a decisive blow at the rebels. The paper sells at 15 cents per copy, obtainable either from local booksellers or from the office of publication.

Sudden Death.

Mr. S. Winters, provision dealer, doing business at No. 561 Queen street west, Toronto, was found dead in his bed about half-past eight o'clock this morning. Mr. Winters retired shortly before midnight after partaking of a hearty meal. He was then in perfect health. This morning when Mrs. Winters went into her husband's bedroom to rouse him she found him stretched out, cold in death, having expired during the night without a struggle or a groan. Dr. Woods, the family physician, was immediately summoned, but he was too late to render any assistance. He gives it as his opinion that Mr. Winters died from an attack of apoplexy. Coroner Johnson was notified, but it is improbable that an inquest will be held, although a post mortem examination on the corpse may be ordered.—Telegram.
