Arrangements have been made between the "Royal Oaks" of Oak Ridges, and the "Victorias" of Elgin Mills, to play a game of lacrosse at Eversley on July 1st; it is expected it will be an exciting game.

Misses C. & N. McCann, of Deer Park, are visiting in the burgh at present. Potatoes are so cheap in this place that the boys keep a stack on hand to storm tramps out of barns and wood-sheds. One evening last week, as one of our citizens was passing along Yonge Street, a little north of Oak Ridge post office, there were some young men on the street and one of them, a beardless boy, who imagines he is a man, used some very insulting and foul-mouthed expressions. His companions tried to silence him, but it was no use, as ignorance, stimulated by whiskey, was governor just then.
