Cholera morbus, cramps, kindred complaints annually make their appearance at the same time as the hot weather, green fruit, cucumbers, melons, etc., and many persons are debarred from eating these tempting fruits, but they need not abstain if they have Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, and take a few drops in water. It cures the cramps and cholera in a remarkable manner, and is sure to check every disturbance of the bowels.

TEMPERANCE ITEMS

Supplied by the W. C. T. Union, Richmond Hill.

Rev. Father Thomas McMillan, before the Catholic Total Abstinence Society, assembled in Brooklyn:—"How any Catholic could feel indifferent to this desolate and soul-destroying evil I cannot understand. How any Catholic could fail to use any opportunity that God gave him to check this flood of destruction I can still less comprehend. And the greater the influence any one may possess of hindering the evil, the more do I wonder by what logic he can possibly excuse himself from exerting it. But that any Catholic should, in any way, help on the evil, that he could be bribed at any price to harness himself to this demon engine of desolation and help it onward in its horrid course, is to me a mystery beyond all solution. The bare facts of the case ought to create among all Catholics a hatred of the vice and everything that tends to produce or maintain it."

The concluding clause of the presentment of a Grand Jury was as follows:—Your Grand Jury are much impressed with the fact that nearly all the cases brought before them this session, including two cases of manslaughter, one of unlawful wounding, one feloniously wounding, two robberies, and two minor cases, are the direct result of drinking or drunkenness, thus showing that but for the unnecessary number of saloons, or grogeries, scattered all over the city, there would have been comparatively little to occupy the time of your Grand Jury.

Obituary.

(Published by Request.)
Mrs. Rachel Saigeon died near Hollen, Ont., Feb. 27th, 1885. Had formerly lived in King, from which place the family removed in 1881. Her age at her death was forty-seven. She had for many years been greatly afflicted with asthma, and suffered intensely for a week or more immediately preceding her death. At what date she was converted is not known, but she was a member of the Methodist Church from a child; and we have reason to believe that in youth and in ripening womanhood she was ever earnest in religious work and consistent in her christian walk. From an acquaintance of three years' duration we can testify to her constant readiness to speak and to work for God. In her case we believe it was "None of self, and all of Thee." She wore a happy countenance, that corresponded blessedly with the fulness of joy and peace that reigned within, for she was a witness to the power of the cleansing blood to purify the heart. So her conversation with her pastor was not about her own failures and doubts, or the faults and inconsistencies of others, but of the possibilities of holiness and the promotion of the work of God. As a mother she was intensely anxious for the salvation of her children, and we believe her prayers for that object will be blessedly answered. In her last illness her pastor, Rev. R. Hall, found her sweetly trusting her all in Jesus. A few hours before her death, her eyes being closed, her son heard her whisper, "Come, come, come!" We expect to meet her again, where there is no asthma—where there are no tears.

AURORA.

From our own Correspondent.
Business is nearly at a standstill owing to the almost impassable state of the roads, and were it not for the general moving going on our village would present a sad appearance. Never in the history of Aurora has there been so much moving among the business men. Braund, hardware; Wells & Terry, butchers; Burling & Co., furniture; Lundy, printer; Bowe, shoemaker; Hughes, dry goods; Rutherford, druggist, have moved or will shortly move into different premises. The Hollingshead Bros. have closed their skating rink and are starting a new one in Uxbridge. Frank York has opened a new drug store in the building lately occupied by J. R. Hughes.

Mrs. T. H. Broad has opened a new millinery shop on Yonge St.

Mr. Jno. Steele, who, some time ago, had his leg broken, is able to walk around with the aid of crutches.

On Sunday evening a "Song Service" was held in the Methodist Church in place of the regular service.

Venison is plentiful here; no less than six carcasses are hanging in front of the butchers' stalls.

(Received too late for last week.)

Why go limping and whining about your corns, when a 25 cent bottle of Holloway's Corn Cure will remove them? Give it a trial, and you will not regret it.

NEWTON BROOK.

From our own Correspondent.

After a long period of silence, your correspondent has commenced hunting up news items, which, by the way, are not easily found in our village, and has run in the following and informs your readers,

That H. H. Cummer, Esq., post master and merchant of our village, has sold his business and premises to Wm. Goulding of this place. Mr. Cummer will remove to Michigan early in the spring.

That the young people have formed a musical and literary society; the officers are Rev. J. Pearren, M.A., honorary president; S. T. Humberstone, president; Miss I. T. Fish, secretary. They have not yet decided on any particular course of study.

That shooting matches are popular with the boys this season. "Bob" and "Andy" generally manage to carry off the majority of the birds.

That Mr. J. Ford has gone to England for the purpose of importing Clydesdale horses.

That Mr. Duncan McCague has renewed his position as section overseer on Yonge Street, to the satisfaction of the "hands."

No one need fear cholera or any summer complaints if they have a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial ready for use. It corrects all looseness of the bowels promptly and causes a healthy and natural action. This is a medicine adapted for the young and old, rich and poor, and is rapidly becoming the popular medicine for cholera, dysentery, etc., in the market.
