Grain Stealer.

Last Friday night some thieves entered the barn of Mr. Wice, of Brown's Corners, and took away with them one hundred bushels of oats, and twenty bushels of barley. The sleigh was tracked as far as the 5th Con., on the Town Line between Whitechurch and Markham, from which place it was uncertain in its direction.

Miss Bowes will also meet the ladies of the village who are interested in the work in the afternoon. The meetings will be held in the lecture room of the Methodist church. In the evening Rev. W. F. Wilson will occupy the chair.

Sad Accident.

Late last Monday night, Mr. John Jordan met with a severe accident in Toronto, which might have resulted in his death. He was conversing with one of the city firemen when the alarm sounded for a fire over the Don River. In a few seconds the horses were hitched, and sprang forward to the scene of the blaze. Johnny jumped on the step of the hook and ladder wagon, but on going around a corner, he was thrown off, and somewhat seriously hurt. He was removed to the hospital from which place he has not yet been taken. His mother and father were sent for, who immediately started for the city on hearing the painful news. We hope the injuries will not prove dangerous.

Inquest.

An inquest was held on the body of the late Robert Wallace, who was killed by the cars on Friday, Feb. 27th, between Richmond Hill and Thornhill stations, before R. B. Orr, M. D., Coroner. A jury was empanelled the next day, composed of the following gentlemen: Joseph Boyd, (foreman) Andrew Boyd, Nathaniel Shunk, Amos Shunk, James Oliver, Jas. McBride, Henry Rumble, Thos. Mathison, Wm. Bailey, Wm. Jackson, Malcolm Barry, Eli Snider, Arthur Bateman, and Watson Johnston. After viewing the body and wreck, the inquest was adjourned to the Masonic Hall, Maple, Tuesday evening, March 2nd, at 7 p. m. After hearing several witnesses, the Coroner addressed the jury on the facts of the case as advanced. The jury then retired and in a short time brought in the following verdict: That the deceased Robt. Wallace came to his death through an accident on the Northern Railway, attaching no blame to either John Watson or the Northern Railway Company.

Maple Bachelors.

As was anticipated the Bachelors' supper and concert given last Friday was a grand success. The evening was all that could be desired, and no doubt the success of last year was also a great factor in bringing out such large numbers. The church was literally packed, and the best of order prevailed, largely due to the able manner in which Rev. W. F. Wilson filled the chair. Messrs. Jenner & Ball, of Toronto, delighted the audience with their instrumental and vocal music. Messrs. Atkinson, Kume, and Storey, of Richmond Hill, sang several selections in excellent style. W. A. Sanderson, of Richmond Hill, gave two readings which were loudly encored. Messrs. Ness and Lane recited very creditably. It is to be regretted that a larger stock of provision had not been prepared, as those who arrived late found out; but the committee had not calculated on such a large crowd being present. However, every effort was made to satisfy all. The proceeds amounted to a very handsome sum, being over $140, which will be applied to aid in building the new parsonage.

Second Grand Carnival at Patterson.

Saturday night brought forth for the second time this season our Wintery Momus to hold high carnival. In full sympathy with the spirit of the occasion, a numerous train of wit and merriment wended their way to the spacious rink, evidently in keen appreciation of the sentiment of the lines:
 "Care to our coffin adds a nail no doubt,
 And every grin so merry draws one out."

As on the previous occasion, nothing was omitted to make this event a most agreeable affair to all who were fortunate enough to be present, either as participants in the sport or witnesses of the gaudy spectacle which, panorama like, presented new phases of entertainment momentarily to their gaze. With commendable foresight, Mr. James Starkey, who was manager in-chief, had made provision for the regaling of the appetites of the sportive revellers, sharpened by the invigorating exercise in which they were engaged. Our sister city of Montreal was worthily represented by Mr. Geo. F. Drummond, who, arrayed in the gorgeous paraphernalia of a "Retired Planter," provoked much jocosity with his fantastic evolutions. Without wishing to detract from the merits of other representations, we might mention the applause with which Mr. H. R. Hardy was greeted as he glided into the slippery arena and pirouetted upon its glassy surface, a faithful personification of "The Storm Blown Tulip." As the festivities were approaching their conclusion, the hearts of the "Coy and Daitiani" were again set aflutter as Mr. L. C. Page, attended by two damsels of enchanting loveliness, glided with graceful circumvolutions into the midst of the giddy throng. Inspired no doubt by the admiring glances with which he was on every side assailed, his representation of the "Wilted Cabbage" was so excessively realistic, that the "Retired Planter," and "Storm Blown Tulip"—the erst-while heroes—sank in utter nothingness. A goodly number of visitors from our ambitious suburb stepped to swell the ranks of the pleasure-seekers, and added to the enthusiasm evoked on all sides, and when the warning frown of Father Timeus beckoned the mirth-loving gathering to seek their homes, it was universally conceded that Patterson was well versed in the art of getting up a successful carnival. Let us have another by all means. Cox.

The new Prints which have just arrived at the Concrete House are ahead of anything that have previously been shown in the town. Call and look through them and be convinced even if you don't buy.

Fire Brigade Meeting.

The Richmond Hill Fire Brigade met in the Council Chamber on Friday evening, March 5th, Capt. Pogsley in the chair.

Thirty-five members were present, the result being a very enthusiastic meeting. The minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed.

Fireman Geo. Trench tendered his resignation as a member of this brigade. Ed. Snider proposed C. Chery, R. McDonald, and C. McConaghy as apprentice firemen. The motion being placed before the meeting, they were unanimously accepted as members.

Foreman Redditt spoke at some length with reference to a conversation he had had with a member of the Aurora Fire Company as to the interest taken in the Brigade of that place, having practice as often as two or three times a week, and the fast time they were making in coupling. The foreman made those remarks in order to show the members the interest taken in other places, and endeavored to impel by this means a livelier interest in our own proceedings. Foreman Redditt was listened to with marked interest. Lieut. Storey thought it was too easy a matter to become a member of this brigade, and suggested that a fee of one dollar be charged on joining, and at the expiration of the year all those who had proved themselves good members should have this refunded. The matter was laid over after remarks had been offered by C. E. Sheppard, A. B. Wilson, and others.

The resignation of fireman Geo. Trench was then taken up. As Fireman Trench had always been an active member in the Company many regrets were expressed as to the cause of his desire for resigning. Moved by the Secretary, seconded by J. McConnell, that the resignation of Fireman Trench be not accepted.—Carried.

Moved by A. B. Wilson, seconded by Ed. Snider, that Fireman G. Trench and J. Mason audit the Secretary's and Treasurer's books and report at next meeting.—Carried.

On motion, 100 feet of hose were ordered to be brought up and a good coupling practice was engaged in, Firemen J. McConaghy and J. Piper making best time.

The meeting adjourned.
