FARM FOR SALE!

A farm of seventy acres, being SOUTH PART OF LOT NO 44, in the 1st Con. of Vaughan, fronting on Yonge Street, is for sale on reasonable terms. The farm is well watered, buildings in a good state of repair, and the land in a high state of cultivation. Good orchard. About half a mile south of the village of Richmond Hill.
For further particulars apply to J. C. McQUARRIE, 7-11 Maple.

T. EATON & CO.,

190 to 196 YONGE STREET. 10 to 12 1/2 QUEEN ST. WEST.

This immense establishment will open for business on Wednesday, Sept. 8th, at 8 o'clock a. m., when every department will be found most replete with the choicest Dry Goods of every description, filling the tiers of shelving from Yonge to Queen St. entrances, culled from the best looms and markets of Europe, America, Asia and Africa. A larger, cheaper, and more complete stock of everything cannot be found under one roof in the Dominion. Visitors are cordially invited to inspect our stock and premises, and picnic in our Mammoth buildings.

GRAND DRESS GOODS OPENING, SATURDAY AND MONDAY, September 11th and 13th, IN OUR NEW PREMISES.

We will have everything in apple-pie order, and our gigantic stock of dress materials artistically arranged in over 600 feet of shelving, which will be found at the northwest corner. Enter from Yonge or Queen Sts. and go straight ahead. This department will be the best in every respect in the Dominion, as its position commands a splendid light to see the fine quality of the dress stuffs. Lots of room. No crowding. Polite and attentive salesmen. Everything for your comfort and enjoyment. When you visit our stores make yourself at home and go about and see the sights. In view of having to move our dress goods department early next week, we have marked down some odd lines of fine quality goods, and are selling them at almost nothing. We would prefer sending them home for you than carrying them into our new premises.

Our store closes at 6 p. m. Saturdays during September.

GLOVE DEPARTMENT.

No dullness here. Trade and bustle form the principal point, and just now it is certainly a pleasing feature to be receiving large lines daily. We have to chronicle this week that we received a repeat order of pure silk goods, elastic in top, in new shades of fawns, drabs, tan and black, sizes from 5 to 7 1/2, selling at 45, 50 and 55c. Taffeta silk, now 25c. pair; Lisle selling for 10c. worth 25c. Our specialties in kid gloves takes the lead. Our 4-button at 50c., and 4-clasp at 75c. are value, if the word means anything; the above are the best quality and good shades.

HOSIERY DEPARTMENT

You are often told of surprising stories, but Hosiery means a reality in our case. Huge piles of Hosiery 20 per cent. cheaper than any house is not a very usual thing, advertising our hosiery speaks volumes. The customers are coming for the big line of cashmere hosiery, and the ladies who got an 80c. stocking for 55c., and 60c. pair for 40c., speak in praise of our value.

Orders coming in by mail faster than ever for that celebrated
LIGHT RUNNING NEW WILLIAMS!

Why do they come? Because they lead the trade. This Machine is without a parallel in the history of Sewing Machines. Within the last four years they have taken seven medals at Provincial and other large Fairs. Only last fall they took First Prize and a Medal at the World's Fair, Antwerp, Belgium; and a Diploma last fall at London for work done on this excellent machine. This machine was awarded nine First Prizes last fall. At the West York Fair, Woodbridge, this machine carried off the highest honors. First Prize, besides four extra prizes for work, so you see they take the lead, and carry off First both far and near. This machine has on it more improvements than any other machine. Before buying, see it, try it, and don't be led away by others till you have. All orders by mail promptly attended to.
