It was afterwards moved by Mr. Switzer, seconded by Mr. Sanderson, that the membership fee for the use of the library for the year 1886-7 be fifty cents, and that an additional charge of fifty cents be made for those joining the Art Class, which is to be opened in a short time, none but members to be admitted. The motion was carried. On motion the Secretary was instructed to procure 100 membership tickets for the coming year. The meeting then adjourned to meet at the call of the chair.

Agricultural Meeting.
A meeting was held at the Golden Lion Hotel on Tuesday evening, to take into consideration the advisability of holding a Fair, sometime during the month of October, in that locality, to be known as the York Township Agricultural Association's Fair. Although the evening was dark and threatened rain, there was a good attendance of farmers and others from the adjoining neighborhoods. Mr. J. H. Sheppard, of Lansing, and others addressed the meeting, and showed the benefits likely to be derived from such an undertaking. The meeting was quite enthusiastic, and those present were not long in forming themselves into an Association. After a lengthy discussion, Mr. Calvert, of York Mills, was appointed President; Mr. Jacob Stong, Vice-Pres.; Mr. Cooper, Sec., and Mr. French, of Lansing, Treas. The following were then appointed directors:—Messrs. Duff, Scrivener, Holmes, Shepard, Bales, F. James, Cudmore, Flook, Johnston, McLean, Armstrong, McBrine and a few others. The meeting adjourned till next Monday, when the regular monthly meeting will be held.

Harvest Home.
The Markham Farmers' Club held their annual Harvest Home meeting at Mr. Wm. Rennie's seed farm, on the 2nd Con. Markham, last Saturday afternoon. Although this is one of the most beautiful farms in this part of the country, and though within about three miles of this village, we venture to say, comparatively speaking, very few of our citizens ever inspected Mr. Rennie's broad acres. The surroundings on Saturday presented the appearance of a Fall Fair, on not a very small scale. Fully five hundred people must have been present. Seldom is seen at an exhibition a finer collection of horses than Mr. Rennie's drove of some 15 head which he imported this season. A draught team was also exhibited which is held at $2000. The whole assembly of people had free access to the melon patch, which was visited by hundreds. The Elmsmere band calived the afternoon with appropriate music. A well contested lacrosse match was played between Carryville and Headford teams, in which the latter was the winner. A number of addresses were given relating to the theory and practice of farming. We regret that space will not permit a fuller report of this instructive and interesting annual gathering.

PERSONALS.
Mrs. J. Hutchins, and daughter, of Lovell, N. Y. are visiting in the village.
Mr. Casey, Provincial Inspector of licenses, was in the village on Friday last making inquiries as to the carrying out of the provisions of the Crooks Act in this place.
Mr. Alex. Moodie who has been absent in Scotland for about two months arrived home on Monday, looking well after his long voyage. He made both passages on the Polynesian, of the Allan line of steamers. He enjoyed his visit immensely with his relatives and friends, and while not deprecating our own country he evidently retains a warm spot in his heart for "Auld Scotia" the land of his birth.
The great health restorer, West's Liver Pills. They regulate the liver and promote good digestion. All druggists.

MARRIAGES.

Springhill.
From an occasional Correspondent.
Our old friend, Mr. Stokes, I am happy to say, is around again; our lives seem pretty safe in the hands of our skillful Dr.

Our cheese factory has closed for the season. Mr. Norman has sold all his stock of cheese, which speaks well for the quality.

There will be a meeting next Saturday evening in the Temperance Hall, Kinghorn, to take into consideration the purchasing of a ground for a cemetery, which is much needed in this neighborhood.

The Rev. H. McDowell's brother was out on a visit during conference, and preached a powerful sermon on the Immortality of the Soul, at Kinghorn church. Those who heard it were highly delighted. Our Mr. McDowell maintains his popularity.

Laskay Methodist church officials have a flourishing hand bill out for a tea meeting next Friday evening. I see the noted reciter, Miss Davis, of Teston, is to be there; also Miss A. Walkington and several others are to take part in the programme.

Changeable weather produces coughs, colds and sore throat. For these diseases use West's Cough Syrup, the best. All druggists.
