Band of Hope Concert.
 We think that all who were present at the Band of Hope entertainment on Christmas night, will agree with us in saying that there are very few more pleasing sights to be seen than that which greeted the audience when the curtains were drawn back on that occasion. The happy, smiling faces of the children in their gay apparel, standing in order and eager to commence the exercises, made one "wish to be again a child." The entertainment from beginning to end was delightful, and showed much natural ability on the part of the youthful performers, as well as careful training by those in charge. At the close of the concert, Santa Claus made his appearance, and the venerable gentleman, with his flowing white beard, snail g face, and bucket of candies, was heartily welcomed by old and young. We wish our Band of Hope success in their work and hope to find their Christmas concert an annual event in our village.
