The Liberal.

RICHMOND HILL, Thursday, Feb. 3, '87

BRIGHT PROSPECTS.

As the day for the holding of the Dominion Election approaches, the signs of the times point strongly to the Hon. Edward Blake as the next Premier of Canada. Nor is the reason far to seek. The great majority of the thinking people of our country, be they Reformers or Conservatives, are willing to sever the ties of party, for the present, at least, and join hand in hand to save this young Dominion. From all parts the most encouraging reports come to hand, and the work goes bravely on. The Liberal leader is making a strong appeal to the people, and wherever he speaks the audience is carried away by his honest and straightforward utterances. As a public speaker Mr. Blake has no equal in this country, and few men have gained the confidence of the people to a greater extent than he. He has always upheld Provincial Rights, and has always been found on the side of moral reform. Compared with Sir John Macdonald, is it any wonder that the electors are beginning to weigh the matter gravely, and are assisting in forming a true and honest government? Although twenty years have not yet elapsed since the confederation of the provinces, the Public Debt is now over $250,000,000, and is rapidly increasing. This is a frightful state of affairs, and if a remedy is not near at hand, soon we will have no country to save.

There are some ardent supporters of the Conservative cause who freely admit that Mr. Blake's honesty of purpose cannot be questioned, that his great abilities stand without a peer in Canada, yet they cannot vote for him on the ground that he has no policy. They will point to the N. P. as the offspring of Sir John's production. They will direct your attention to the Canada Pacific Railway, spanning the continent from ocean to ocean. Now, admitting that the former of those measures has brought about good times—which we do not. Admitting that the latter has been the means of opening up the North West better than the scheme proposed by the Hon. Alex. Mackenzie—which we do not. What then? Are we to keep in power forever men who have so fearfully betrayed their trust in other quarters? We throw not. The time is coming when they must give way to true and honest men. Mr. Blake has a policy, and this policy is the same in all the provinces. The chief features were given in his speech delivered in Montreal last Monday, and are as follows:—

“Responsibility to the people; an honest and efficient Executive, which would prevent rebellion in the West and discontent in the East; reform in the civil service; a good and efficient staff; abolition of the present superannuation system; the right to make our own treaties; reduction of taxation as soon as possible; reduction of duties on raw material; an earnest effort to promote reciprocal trade with the South; full recognition of the Federal character of our constitution; no more taxes; full recognition of provincial rights; home rule in our Dominion; justice to all, favors to none; an end to jobbery and corruption; reduction of expenditure to a small amount; determination to put down distinctions of race and creed in favor of Canadian brotherhood and nationality; eternal justice and equal rights; civil and religious liberty; tolerance and forbearance of the strong towards the weak; morality and temperance, morality and religion, hand in hand; advancement of the race.”

Do not be longer deceived. Trust the country in his hands for the next five years, and you may rest assured he will give us, as he has promised, a broad and comprehensive, a true National Policy.

NOT THE ISSUE.

Some of the Conservative journals are continually telling their readers that the issues before the country in the political contest now going on, are narrowed down to a very few.

They care not for the “boodle” brigade, or the story of the “blind shares,” or the speculations of the “boy” Beatty. The only question to decide, they say, is this: Did Sir John do right in carrying out the sentence of death on the rebel, Riel? Should this be answered in the affirmative they will say: Then give the government a lease of power for all time to come.

No, our fellow contemporaries, this will not do. We cannot allow you to stand at the foot of the Regira scaffold and give your verdict. You must ascend to the top and view the wide expanse. You must tell your readers the causes, one by one, which led up to that cruel rebellion. You must tell them how the petitions of the hungry half-breeds were unheeded by the authorities year after year. Then they will be able to decide for themselves who were the real perpetrators.

Election Notes.

Col. Tyrwhitt will oppose Mr. Mulock, the present member for North York. But as he does not think his chances for winning very good, he will also contest his old constituency of South Simcoe.

Dr. Burns, Principal of the Ladies' College, Hamilton, has been nominated by the Liberals of that city as a candidate for political honors. The issues before the people in the present crisis are largely of a moral nature, and the Dr. should make a strong candidate.

Mr. Clark Wallace, Conservative candidate for West York, is being reminded that during the Provincial Election campaign he denounced the Knights of Labor as cowards.

In response to a private circular from Sir John Macdonald, some of the manufacturers of Toronto and vicinity met the chieftain at the Queen's Hotel last Tuesday afternoon. The motive was “to obtain united action in the maintenance and development of the National Policy.”

It is understood that Dr. Tupper will oppose prohibition, unless he is granted compensation for his London bar.

Mr. T. White, M. P., addressed a Political meeting in the Conservative interests, in the Town Hall, Aurora, last Tuesday evening.
