Division Court.

Court was held in this village yesterday (Wednesday), His Honor Judge Morgan presiding. There were not many cases.
The following was the most important:—
J. D. STOTTS, PLAINTIFF, vs. E. MUL-HOLLAND, DEFENDANT. $50.70.

J. D. STOTTS, PLAINTIFF, vs. WILLIAM SHUNK, DEFENDANT. $45.00.

As the circumstances under which plaintiff sued in these suits were somewhat similar, the parties agreed to have them tried together.

The plaintiff, who is a nurseryman, sued for payment of price of certain fruit trees under orders given him by the defendants, and which he had delivered to them. Defendants denied liability, for that they had ordered the trees for planting out last fall, but the trees had not been delivered to them until the month of November last, when the winter had set in, and the ground had frozen a few inches, and that when offered them they had refused to accept of them because not delivered as ordered. They further submitted that from the very nature of the trees, time was a necessary part of their orders, and unless the trees had been delivered in time to be planted out and a growth set in, they were practically useless to them.

When the orders were produced in Court, it was found that there was a difference in the original orders signed by the defendants and the ones handed them as a true copy by the plaintiff at the time the orders were made. The former relating that the trees were to be delivered "in October or November," whilst in the latter the words "or November" were omitted. Defendants' evidence, which was supported, went to show that the words "or November" were not on the orders when they signed, and that at the time the trees were ordered the distinct understanding was that the trees were to be delivered in time for planting out in the fall. The trees had not been delivered until about the 12th of November last, when the frost was in the ground, hence too late for fall planting.

Judgment given for the defendants with costs.

Mr. Lawrence, of Lawrence & Milligan, for Defendants. Mr. W. Cook, of Fullerton, Cook & Miller, for Plaintiff.

The next setting of the Court will be held on Saturday, the 11th of June.

The best spring medicine is one of West's Liver Pills taken every night on going to bed. Just what you need. Sugar coated, 30 pills/25c. All druggists.

From our own Correspondent.

Several changes have or are about to take place in our village. John Ramsden, Esq., has sold his residence to P. Phalen, Esq., at a good advance on the price paid by him; Mr. R. intends moving to North Toronto on the first week of April. Mr.
Jas. Millyard has sold his property to Mrs. Pexton. W. B. Willson will not leave for North Toronto until some time in April. Mr. Bell, of Milliken, will occupy Mr. Bowman's place in a few days.
Mr. J. S. Waterfield has removed his family to Weston; his house will be occupied in a short time. Mr. Stapleton, of York Township, will soon occupy Mr.
Gallanough's house.

The mumps still continue their ravages among the young people of the village; no fatal case has been heard of yet. The sufferers say that solid food should not be indulged in to any great extent when the disease is at the worst.

Mr. B. Musselman, so well and favorably known throughout Vaughan, met with a very serious accident last week.
He and another party were riding upon a load of hay when suddenly a gust of wind upset the load; Mr. B. falling dislocated his shoulder and broke his leg. After the limb had been set, he had another fall in his own room; he is a heavy sufferer.

Mr. W. Chapman has a full stock of implements on hand for the coming season.

Rev. J. Mahan, of Newton Brook, was in the village one day last week; he called at the parsonage.

The shed at the church will soon be completed, after the very successful social held at Mrs. Wilson's in its behalf; something less than $30 was realized. In all probability another will be held in the same place next June.

Stirring times are anticipated in school matters, which may probably lead to a dissolution of the section.

Farewell banquets are in order just now. The intimate friends of those leaving us will be honored by an invitation to some of the social gatherings. Strange that friends have to threaten to leave before their worth is fully appreciated, and it is astonishing to them also that they have so many friends.

Ladies suffering with sick headache will find a certain cure in West's Liver Pills.
Sugar coated. 30 pills 25c. All druggists.

Sherwood.

To the Editor of THE LIBERAL: SIR,—In last week's issue of your paper we find a communication from "Jeremiah Strawfoot," which we cannot let pass without an answer.

In the first place we charge him with claiming to be a resident of this place, which he is not or ever was, nor can he even claim to live in the suburbs, and his only connection with this place at the present time or in the past amounted to this much: getting his mail here, occasionally driving through here, and a visit like one he made a few days ago hanging around, trying to squeeze himself into the good graces of a few to get invited to a party. His garbled version and attack on Sherwood items of Feb. 24th, plainly shows that his first attempt is a complete failure. In the first place he is bringing into print the names of some who are so far above him in intelligence and social standing. In the second the ungentlemanly manner of doing so plainly shows that his ideas of fair play through the columns of a paper are very limited, and the sooner he drops his share of the playful controversy (kindly allowed by the editor) the better for himself. There is a certain amount of respect due even to a "Nigger," although his feet are large, but when you draw into and put up for ridicule men that have no hand in or are in the least concerned in these controversies then I say you do a mean action one that any gentleman would scorn to do.

Our little village at the present time is at a complete standstill, not that we ever were very notorious.

But there is one bright prospect in view when the Spring opens up of our gaining notoriety by being washed out of existence if that one particular water-outlet is not opened up. Where is our worthy pathmaster?

The principal happenings at present are surprise parties, loafing (a scion of the N. P.), and local spats on the past election; both parties claiming that corrupt practices and lots of boodle were passed around from the worn and weary faces of some of the disappointed aspirants. I do not think there was much boodle struck this town.

A good moral might be taken from the following: A few nights ago a couple of our village belles hit upon a novel plan to visit a former resident of this place.
Forming themselves into a committee of two they decided to lay aside all the aucient and time-worn customs for a century back, and adopt the following.—For the committee to choose from the invited ones for Mr. So-and-So to take Miss So-and-So under their protecting care for the evening, or in plain English to palm off on you some other fellow's girl, which is against all the laws of human nature.
Consequence: The committee of two and two added to their number being the only ones present. Moral: Chase your own partner, and let others do the same.

Some would lead us to believe that we had an epidemic of measles here. I have heard of one case, a grown up person, and I think all ideas of that kind would be scattered if our rising generation could be seen.

Our newly organized lodge of A. O. U.
W. seems to be taking well, new initiations being quite frequent. I think it is a worthy organization and the object in view cannot but recommend itself to our surrounding neighbors.

Our old friend the "Dutchman" is still living, and says it will take bigger feet than "Jeremiah" has to trample him out of existence, and the reason he took "Strawfoot" for his nom-de-plume was that his feet were so big he could not take them in the house at nights, but covered them up with straw and left them in the stable, hence strawfoot.

FAIR PLAY.
Sherwood, March 21st, 1887.

Chilblains and frosted feet and hands cured with a few applications of West's World Wonder or Family Liniment. All druggists.

Vellore.

From our own Correspondent.

A free entertainment was held in the school house on Thursday evening, March 17th. The programme consisted of dialogues, recitations and singing by the children, and readings and recitations by others. At the close, everybody seemed to be well pleased with the exercises of the evening.

Duncan McKinnon met with a painful accident the other day. As he was turning a corner his cutter was upset, and he was thrown out, breaking his leg above the ankle.

Mr. Jos. McLean has left our village, and has gone to live near Teston.

Surprise parties have been plentiful this winter. Mr. D. Snider has had his share, having had seven of them.

West's World's Wonder is the marvel of healing superior to all other liniments.
Always keep it in the house. All druggists.

Carrville

From an occasional Correspondent.
Since I last wrote to your paper our little village has been very quiet. But we expect it will get livelier as the warm weather sets in.

Parties seem to be the leading event in the surrounding country.

There is a great opening here for a shoddy mill. As our town is situated in a good section country a stirring man would make money.

The lacrosse team is shortly to be reorganized. I think their chances are good for the medal.

The boys that left here for Woodstock are greatly taken up with the town, but not with the Scott Act; they think that it is the whiskey act instead of the other.

Miss Campbell, of Sherwood, is visiting with Mr. N. S. Reaman.

Mr. J. Prentice has been visiting friends up West.

Miss Smelson, of Toronto, is visiting with Mrs. G. Woods.

Mr. Bowes and J. Watson visited the zoo on Monday last and were greatly taken up with the animals.

Mr. J. Bennett, of Toronto, has been visiting friends in this place.

Mr. N. S. Reaman took a large load of young people to the Lutheran church on Sunday last.

A great blessing. West's Liver Pills will always be found a great blessing to those afflicted with liver complaint, dyspepsia, indigestion and sick headache.
30 pills 25c. All druggists.

Oak Ridges.

From our own Correspondent.
Mr. W. Thomas lost a fine colt a week old, on the 21st, from his heavy draft mare.

Mr. Robt. Thompson has purchased a pair of chopping stones, and is prepared to do chopping for the public by steam power.

Rev. C. Langford, of Toronto, will deliver his popular lecture, "Why I left the Church of Rome," in the Methodist church, Temperanceville, on Tuesday evening next, 29th inst. Admission 15 cents.

Always keep West's Cough Syrup in the house for sudden attacks of colds, asthma and all throat and lung diseases.
Best in use. All druggists.

Fire Insurance.

Farmers protect your buildings from fire and lightning by insuring in the GORE DISTRICT MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE CO., Head Office Galt, County of Waterloo; Established 1836.

The number of policies issued in the year 1886 was 2,619, and the number in force at the end of the year 6,273, insuring $6,867,679.31, showing an increase of nearly $400,000.00 over the amount at risk at end of 1885. The income for the year was $87,078.92.

Total assets available to meet losses has increased from $218,986.00 to $238,- 264.00 in the year 1886, the increase being within a trifle of $20,000.

The number of losses for the past year was 108, and the amount of loss $57,- 687.27, of which $4,315.28 was reinsured, making the net loss $53,373.99.

This Company has deposited $20,000 with the Ontario Government, being more than double what the law requires, but it gives the GORE a still stronger hold upon public confidence.
