Words of Farewell to Our Esteemed Pastor, Rev. W. R. Barker.

Dearest Pastor we are sorry
That your labors here must cease;
That your term of years is ended,
Years of harmony and peace.
Could we double twice their number,
Gladly would it be our choice,
Still to have you dwell among us,
Longer listen to your voice.

Longer hear the words of wisdom,
That have cheered us in the past,
Wholesome food in gospel measure,
Manna to the hungry east.
Sadly do we feel the parting,
Grieved how much we cannot tell,
That to intercourse so happy,
We're compelled to say farewell.

Zealous in each pastoral duty,
Cheering by a pleasant call;
Visiting the sick and needy,
Thus dispensing good to all.
Each succeeding year endearing,
By the kindly interest shown
In the welfare of your people,
Till the bonds have tender grown.

Faithful on the walls of Zion,
Fearless of the foes around,
Fearing forth the gospel trumpet,
Giving no uncertain sound.
As a watchman on the ramparts,
Warning of impending woe,
Pulling down strongholds of satan,
Giant evils to o'erthrow.

Mindful of the Church's interests,
Versed in all "discipline" lore,
Firmly guiding, kindly leading,
Duties never passing o'er.
Sweeping not to curry favor,
As the fashion is with some,
Once convinced what right demanded,
Doing right was sure to come.

Listening with attentive kindness,
To diverse opinions found,
Calmly and with possession,
Harmonizing all around.
Thus our confidence securing,
Fearing nought that could o'erwhelm,
Feeling safe from church disasters,
With our pastor at the helm.

Much we'll miss the earnest counsels,
At our Monday night retreat,
In the study at the parsonage,
Where our "Class" is wont to meet.
When our prayers were strengthened,
By the counsels kindly given,
And our christian courage rallied,
To pursue our course to heaven.

It might happen in the future,
Doubtful though it now appears,
You again may be our pastor,
Should your life be spared for years.
But not all would give you welcome,
Who now sadly say adieu,
Whom we've so dearly loved,
Will have passed from mortal view.

Kindest, best and loving wishes,
Every day we'll send you,
Follow you wh'er you go;
Were rich gifts at our disposal,
We'd gladly give them o'er,
But we deem a christian friendship,
Greater than the gems of earth,
Growing in perennial beauty,
Sweetest incense sending forth.

May your family be sheltered,
From the evils that abound;
Be your greatest earthly comfort,
Scattering blessings all around.
And may she who guides your household,
Cheer you by her faithful love,
Long be spared to aid your labors,
Reaping rich reward above.

May God's grace o'er shade you ever,
Every day sufficient prove,
All your life His arching,
With a canopy of love.
When your labors are completed,
And your blessed work is o'er,
With glad rapture will we gather,
On heaven's beatific shore.

Temperanceville.

From our own Correspondent
Mr. R. B. Steinhauer spent a few days visiting friends in this place a few weeks ago. He left here to attend the Toronto Conference, and he has now gone to the North West to labor among his fellow countrymen there. With great perseverance and energy he has mastered the English language, and an arts course in Victoria University, and has become a fluent and an able speaker. We wish him success.

Mr. R. B. Beynon and Mr. W. T. Norman spent a few days calling on old acquaintances on their way to the Conference.

Mr. R. Lewis, while chopping feed for Mr. W. Thomas, of Oak Ridges, met with an unfortunate accident by which his big toe was nearly severed from his foot. Medical assistance was procured and he is doing as well as can be expected, but will be laid up for some time.
Miss A. Cain, who has been in Dakota for some time visiting relatives there, returned home last week.

Much suffering could be avoided by constantly keeping a supply of West's Pain King in the house. A certain cure for flux, dysentery, cramps, chills, colic, cholera and cholera morbus. 25c. All druggists.

We Don't Know.

MR. EDITOR,—Why don't our grocers and merchants boycott those farmers and others who come into our village and wholesale garden stuff to them, and are small enough to slip around and steal their retail trade?
