By order of the President a meeting of King plowmen's association was held in Hogan's lecture room, on the evening of June 21st. By a unanimous vote of the meeting Mr. J. H. Ross, Deputy Reeve, was elected chairman.

The chairman in his opening speech, explained the cause of the meeting to elect officers for the year 1887, to hear the financial report of secretary, and to arrange everything in business working manner so that each director may commence at once to solicit subscriptions.
The chairman stated that the association was approved of by the Council of King.
In his opinion it had been very advantageous in promoting farming in King. It was quite noticeable in travelling through the country, what sections took part in the plowing matches. The report of the seey being read showed that the association was in good standing financially.
The following officers were duly elected.

President, Jos Thompson; Vice-President, Wm. Walkington; Secy, and Tres, A. Carley; Ass. Secy, J. T. Saigeon. Directors, W. Wells, R. Fields, S. Davis, J.
Gillies, T. Ferguson, W. McGill, J. Hogan, R. Stewart, Zenis Black, B. Hollings head, C. Sturdy, M. Gilham, T. Clarkson, D. Wells, W. Fox, T. Atkins, T. Cain, T.
Ross, W. Deye, J. Wells, R. Perey, R.
Norman, J. Malloy, M. McCallum, E.
Armitage, J. Cherry, C. Irwin. Each director is requested to do his utmost in forwarding the interests of the association. Subscriptions will be cheerfully acknowledged by any and all of the officers from this date. The enthusiasm manifested exceeded that of former years.
Speed the plow boys.

According to posters the annual strawberry festival was held in the drill shed, on the evening of the 23rd inst. On account of the inclemency of the weather the gathering was much smaller than anticipated. The performance was enlivened by sweet music discoursed by the Silver Band of Aurora. A very pleasant evening was spent.

A reward of $5.00 will be paid by the Trustees of S S No. 2 King, for the apprehension that will lead to the conviction of the party, or parties, who broke the windows of the school house and removed the gate, on the evening of June the 20th or 21st.

The young man from the town-line seems to mean business. Batching is going out of fashion. Go in young man and win your spurs.

On Sunday evening, some parties broke into A. Irvin's shoe shop and feloniously removed leather, uppers and tools to the amount of $20, worth. At the time of writing, the whereabouts of the thief or thieves has not been discovered.

A large party of invited friends assembled at the house of A. D. Carley, 5th Con. King, on Friday evening June 24th.
The attractions of the evening consisted of music and games. The strawberries were first-class. The tables were loaded with the delicacies of the season. Every person seemed happy.

SPRINGHILL CIVIC HOLIDAY—The C.
M. S. School of Springhill made an excursion to Big Bay Point on Saturday last. The train left King station at 7 a. m. The "Enterprise" was boarded at Barrie at 8.45, landed at Big Bay Point at 10. The first amusement consisted of preparing dinner and partaking of the same. Then followed races. The sack race created a great deal of merriment. A race was then made for the sail and row boats, all of which were occupied the whole afternoon. Messrs. Davis and Perry of Kinghorn took great pleasure in giving the little folks a boat ride. This point is a grand summer resort. A great many buildings are in the course of erection. The scholars were wild with excitement. The query with the little ones was, will they come back here next year?
The party arrived home at 9 p. m.

Last week was truly a week of Jubilee in Springhill.

The remains of Mrs. W. Cook, were followed to their last resting place, by a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends on Tuesday last. Mrs. Cook was apparently hearty and well up to noon on Thursday, when she was taken suddenly with convulsions. She expired on Sunday morning. Mr. Cook has the heartfelt sympathy of the neighborhood in his sad hour of bereavement.

Headford.

From our own Correspondent.

The Methodist Sabbath School gave their anniversary Pic-Nic and entertainment last Wednesday. Although the weather was any thing but agreeable for a picnic, quite a large assembly gathered on the grounds. The football match between Gormley and Edgely was a hot contest. The first game was taken by the Gormley club in a very few minutes, in fact before Edgely had rightly settled down to work. The second game was a long one and on account of the rain was not finished. It was a grand match and no doubt if these two clubs were to meet again they would draw a large crowd.
The tea was an excellent spread and was taken between showers. The entertainment in the evening was not very well attended, but the programme was good and somewhat lengthy. The singing and dialogues and especially the recitations were rendered in an excellent manner.
No necessity for making special note of any one part as they were all good. On Thursday evening a strawberry and ice-cream social ended that part of the business. Quite a number were present to tender their last respects to the ice-cream and strawberries.

On Sunday evening Rev. J. D. Leek, of Chicago, preached a very eloquent, instructive and appropriate anniversary sermon, taking as his text Prov. 22, vi.
Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it. Mr. Leek said that the first office ever he held in a Sunday School was when he was appointed Librarian in the Headford Sunday school fifteen years ago.
From that he was promoted to the staff of teacher and then a Bible Class leader, there he remained until he entered the ministry. The choir rendered appropriate anthems. Proceeds of the anniversary were about $50.00.

On Sunday morning the Rev. W. R.
Barker preached his farewell sermon from the text found in the 10th verse of the 5th chap. of Romans, "For if when we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his son; much more being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life." His sermon was very powerful, at the close of which he made a few remarks in reference to his three years pastorate on this circuit. He leaves many friends behind.

Next Sunday morning and afternoon the Rev. G. A. Rutledge will occupy the pulpit.

From our own Correspondent.

The great question agitating our village at present is the Strawberry Festival to be held on July 1st, on the grounds of J.
C. McQuarrie, Esq. Everybody is coming, so everybody says, and we feel assured of a great crowd if the day is favorable. The Teston Brass Band was engaged to play that day, but they disappointed us. However, we have secured one of larger dimensions in the Aurora Silver Cornet Band of twenty pieces, and no doubt choice music will be rendered. The grounds will be beautifully illuminated with Chinese Lanterns, and all the luxuries of the season will be on hand to tempt the appetite, and every effort will be made to make this the crowning event of the season.

The Festival and Concert in connection with the Presbyterian church was given at the manse on Tuesday evening, June 21st, and was a decided success, though the weather was most unfavorable. A football match between the Springhill club and the Maple Leafs of Maple, was hotly contested, and ended in a draw, neither side having won a game. The Rev. J. W. Howie, a native of Lebanon, appeared in his native dress, and addressed the audience. But the chief feature of the evening was the singing of Mr.
Flint, of Toronto, which was excellent, and was heartily enjoyed.

A good many people are wondering what brings that young doctor from the east to our village so often. Some even venture the remark that he visits the well as well's the sick.
