MISS FLORA COULTER

Is prepared to receive pupils, and will Vaughan Plowing Match.

A GREAT SUCCESS.

Everything was favorable for the Vaughn Township Plowing Match which was held on the farm of Mr. John McKinnon, a mile and a half west of Maple, last Tuesday, November 1st. The roads were in first class condition, the weather was delightful in the extreme, the committee of management had completed their arrangements satisfactorily, consequently the crowd which gathered to witness the skill of the plowmen was very large. The plowing was east and west, and every class was well filled. No better sod field could have been secured, considering the dryness of the weather, although in some parts of the field it was difficult to make smooth plowing. Except in the boys' class the competition was open to the Dominion. In all there were 28 competitors and the township of Vaughan, Markham, King, Scarboro and York were well represented. The stubble plowing was executed on the opposite side of the road, on the farm of Mr. Richards. The special for sulky plows was well contested, and many old and experienced farmers were surprised to see what excellent work could be done by these plows. From one end of a sixty rod field to the other the furrows were straight, and the draught was apparently easy on the horses. The following is the prize list in full.—

FIRST CLASS.

(Open to all Plowmen.)

1st prize, J. Morgan, Willowdale, Mason Horse Rake $28 00 2nd James McLean, Vaughan, Fleury Plow 18 00 3rd Spencer Crowley, Vaughan, cash &c. 12 00
4th T. McLean, Vaughan, cash &c 7 00

SECOND CLASS.

(Open to all Plowmen who had not taken two first prizes in second class or any in first class.)

1st Benjamin McKay, Vaughan, Wilkinson Plow $18 00
2nd J. A. Drury, Markham, cash &c. 13 00
3rd Fred Keffler, Vaughan, cash &c 10 00 4th William Gilham, Vaughan, cash 6 00

THIRD CLASS.

(Open to all Plowmen who had not taken two first prizes in third class, or any prize in first or second class. Plow to be used, Wrought beam, cast head and share.)

1st Frank Stiver, Markham, plow $18 00 2nd J. Prentice, Vaughan, cash &c 12 00 3rd J. B. Ross, King, cash &c 10 00 4th Forbes Lloyd, King, cash &c 6 00

FOURTH CLASS.

(Open to boys under 18, resident in the Township.)
1st Neil Malloy, Patterson Plow $18 00 2nd Robert Walkington, cash &c. 13 00 3rd Wm. Smith, cash &c. 9 00

FIFTH CLASS.

(Stubble Plowing. Open to all Plow-men who had not taken two first prizes at any Society's match in stubble class.) 1st Robert Smith, Vaughan, Pair of Iron Harrows. $18 00 2nd John R. Wilson, Vaughan, cash &c. 12 00
3rd John Enwright, Vaughan, cash 8 00 4th Duncan McLean, Vaughan, cash &c. 5 00

SIXTH CLASS.

(Special for Sulky Plows.) 1st Wm. Hood, Scarboro, cash by Society. $15 00
2nd R. Ross, King, cash by society 10 00

The two last named plowmen did their work with a Cockshutt plow.

Mr. J. Morgan was awarded the prize for the best plowed land in the field, and also for making the best finish.

The Silver cup, valued at $25, presented by J. Holderness, proprietor of the Albion Hotel, Toronto, was awarded to Neil Malloy for the best work in the boys' class.

Mr. Ephraim Line, Vaughan, received the pair of horse blankets presented by R. Cheyne, Toronto, for the best team at work in the match.

Mr. John Duncan's prize of $2.00 for the plowman who handled his team the best in the match was taken by Mr. Jas.
McLean

Robert Walkington was the smallest plowman in the boys' class, and consequently he carried home the special given by E. B. Harris, of Woodbridge.

In the class open to professional gentlemen only, the excitement ran high, but when time was called to start, no entries had been made. One gentleman said his forty lay in curing cordwood, another was prepared to stake a wager on cradling around a ten acre field, whilst others declared that if the prize had been the future "Empire," instead of "The World" they would willingly enter the contest.
And thus it ended.

After the decision of the judges in the various classes had been made known by the secretary, Mr. W. T. Robinson, the lucky competitors were asked to go to Maple, where the treasurer awarded the prizes. After this the officers, directors, judges and plowmen dined at Richarson's hotel. The directors are to be congratulated on the success of their undertaking, as everything seemed to pass off with the greatest harmony.

DISASTROUS.—The most intense excitement is felt in the flourishing village of Richmond Hill and its surroundings, as facts are revealed, of numerous families who are dyeing, in the most beautiful colors; in fact all the colors of the rainbow, by using the popular Sun-Set Dyes, only five cents a package. Sold in the city only by Joseph Dilworth, the Druggist, 170 King St. East, between the Clyde and Nipissing Hotels, Toronto.

One hundred and five years.

Grandma Klinck at Princeville, Ill., has passed to her rest.

(BY REQUEST)

Mrs. Klinck, familiarly known as Grandma Klinck, and without doubt the oldest person in the state at the time of her death, died Saturday morning at her home in Princeville, Peoria County at the advanced age of 104 years, 11 months and 28 days.

She was born in the State of Pennsylvania, Oct. 24th 1728, died Oct. 22nd, 1887, lacking but two days of 105 years.

When a young girl she came to Niagara, Canada, with her parents. Later on she married and moved to the County of York, where she raised a large family.
After living in this County for upwards of fifty years she returned with her husband and the unmarried portion of their family to her native land.

Up to within the last year or two she was in possession of all her faculties.
Mrs. Klinck has still many relatives in this County and is also a relative of the late General Grant.

Mrs. A. Law of this village is a daughter of hers.

GOOD NEWS.—It isn't generally understood that the electric light may some day or other line the farmers' path-way up Yonge Street to Richmond Hill.
Would that be grand? In the meantime, I would advise every farmer along the route and every concession to use the great Rock Spring Coal Oil. The price is so low that you will hold your breath when you hear it pronounced by Dilworth The Druggist, between the Clyde and Nipissing Hotels, Toronto.

Maple

From our own Correspondent.

The Good Templar's concert given in the Masonic Hall last Wednesday evening, was a decided success so far as the programme was concerned, though it did not receive the support it deserved. Mr Hoog, of Toronto, delighted the audience with his ventriloquism, mimicry and comic songs. Messrs. Rose and Watson, of Toronto, spoke in behalf of the good of the order, showing the benefits to be derived from institutions of the kind, while several others gave interesting songs and recitations. E. J. Davis, Esq., filled the chair very acceptably.

Quarterly Services will be held in the Methodist Church, Maple, next Sabbath.
Rev. Mr. Davey, of Newton Brook, will occupy the pulpit morning and evening.

R. Kinnie is moving into the house lately occupied by Mrs. Atkinson, a short distance north of the village.

W. Hannah intends moving into the house, which he has purchased, vacated by R. Kinnie.

Uniform Promotion Examinations will be held in Maple School on Friday.

Last Tuesday, the Rev. J. Pearson joined in holy matrimony Miss Kate Beasley, of this place, to William Marwood, second son of the late William Marwood.

The Plowing Match under the auspices of the Vaughan Plowman's Association, held last Tuesday, was a success in every particular, but, as I presume you have a full report, I will not encroach on your space.

Woodbridge

From our own Correspondent.

Favorable reports are now in circulation concerning the opening of the new idle shops. It is said that they will be occupied before long for the purpose of manufacturing of steel. Success attend the effort, or any other to bring life into our town, for it needs it badly enough.

The fire hall is at last being erected.
The residence of Mr. Archibald is now almost completed. Mr. S. Hartman's is under way.

Our barley market is doing quite a rushing business.

About forty of the young people of the Methodist Church took a drive to Weston last Friday evening, and paid the Rev.
R. Large, their pastor, a call, in the shape of a surprise party. After partaking of a collation of cold fowl, and enjoying singing, plays and social chat, the party started for home and arrived about 2 a. m.
Saturday.

Our M. P. has been blessed with a young daughter.

The trustees of our Public School have decided upon enlarging our school ground by the addition of two fifths of an acre, for which they are to pay the sum of $140. The enlargement was badly needed, and it is hoped they will now put up a fence and otherwise improve the ground and school houses, so that they may be an ornament to the village and not an eyesore.

BLOOMFIELD, Carleton Co., N. B., May 7th, 1887.—I wish to inform you that I have been a sufferer from catarrh for a long time and have continually tried so called remedies and catarrh cures, but all to no purpose. At last I heard of Nasal Balm and was induced to try that. To my astonishment I found relief from first application, and now after two weeks use feel myself perfectly and thoroughly cured.
Yours very truly,
HANFORD WOLHAMPTON,
General Merchant.

Directors' Meeting

A special meeting of the Directors of the Richmond Hill Mechanics' Institute was held in the Lecture Room of the Masonic Hall on Friday evening, Oct.
28th.

President Crosby in the chair.
Besides the Directors present, were Messrs. W. Harrison, T. H. Redditt, J.
King, J. W. Elliott and A. B. Wilson.

Accounts from T. F. McMahon, for printing, amounting to $25, and from the Public Library, Toronto, for periodicals and magazines, amounting to $23.25, were read.

Moved by P. G. Savage, seconded by the Secretary, that the accounts be paid.
—Carried.

The question of disposing of tickets was discussed, and it was moved by W.
A. Sanderson, seconded by P. G. Savage, that Miss Law and Miss Daniels be asked to canvass the village north of Centre St. for the sale of tickets, and Miss Simpson and Miss F. Trench south of Centre St.
—Carried.

Moved by T. F. McMahon, seconded by W. A. Sanderson, that two hours be allowed for changing books instead of one as heretofore, and that the partition be moved two feet towards the centre of the room.—Carried.

A programme consisting of a debate, songs, instrumental music, readings, &c., was then arranged for an entertainment to be given on Friday evening, Nov.
11th, and the meeting adjourned.

H. A. NICHOLLS, Sec'y.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 105 Wall
