The Liberal.

RICHMOND HILL, Thursday, Jan. 12, '88

LOCALS.

W. C. T. U. will meet on Tuesday evening next at Mrs. Tyndall's at half past seven.

Band of Hope will meet in the Temperance Hall, on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Full lines of Frank Lazarus' Improved Spectacles for sale at THE LIBERAL store at Prices from 20 cents up to $2.50, best pebble.

Atkinson is selling his stock of Tweeds at reduced rates and giving 10 per cent. discount for cash.

Court Day. Division Court will be held here next Saturday. We understand the number of cases in the docket is exceedingly small.

Ladies call at Atkinsons and see the Dress Goods he is offering all subject to a 10 per cent. discount.

Vaughan Council. The first meeting of the new Council of the Township of Vaughan will be held at the Town Hall, Vaalero, on Monday next, commencing at 11 o'clock a. m.

Farms Wanted. Messrs. Shipman and Butler, Estate Brokers, 7 Yonge St. Arcade, Toronto, advertise on another page for farms to suit applications, and ask persons having land to dispose of or to exchange for city property, to call, or write them at once.

Wm. Atkinson will sell his whole stock of Ladies and Childrens Mantles at a discount of 20 per cent. they start at $1.25 and so on up.

Good Firemen. At the Regular Meeting of the Richmond Hill Fire Brigade held last Friday evening, the pay roll showed that Messrs. C. Trevelyan and J. Brownlee had not been absent at any practice or business meeting of the Brigade during the year 1887. Such earnestness shown in a work so important is certainly commendable.

Atkinson, the direct importer, will give to all cash purchasers of winter Dry Goods a straight cash discount of 10 per cent., and to all cash purchasers of Fur Goods a straight discount of 20 per cent. See new ad.

A Good Beginning. The High School opened this week with a good attendance. Over 50 pupils are already enrolled, and several more are expected next week. Mr. Innes, as Assistant, has entered upon his labors, and future prospects for the school look exceedingly bright.

The Globe. On another page will be found the annual advertisement of the Toronto Globe, the oldest established newspaper in Canada. It continues to show the same enterprise that has characterized it for many years, and is without doubt the greatest advertising medium in the country.

Atkinson is selling Corsets at 25c. net, 30c. net, 50c. with 10 per cent. off, 75c. with 10 per cent. off, 95c. with 10 per cent. off.

Auction Sale. Mr. C. G. Harris, east half of Lot 2, 2nd Con. Markham, has instructed Mr. Salem Eckardt to sell on the premises the farm, farm stock, and implements, on Thursday Jan. 19th 1888. Should the farm not be sold it will be rented for a term of years. Sale at 11 a. m. Lunch prov. led.

All kinds of school books at THE LIBERAL Store.

Premium Picture.

The picture "Smile Little Children to come unto Me," offered by the Montreal Witness to their daily and weekly subscribers, is a work produced in oil colors with great richness and beauty, and it is a wonder to all who receive it how the publishers can offer so much at so small a cost.

Ladies and Gentlemen, give Wm. Atkinson a call and see his Fur Caps at $1.35 with 20 per cent. off; also those at $2.00 with 20 per cent. off $1.60, and those at $2.75 with the 20 per cent. off $2.10 net, and so on up to our best caps.

County Council.

The inaugural meeting of the new County Council will commence on Tuesday, the 24th Jan. It is expected the advocates for and against the taking off the Toll Gates on the York Roads will go to the new Council well primed, as that question seems to have been one of the main issues before the people at the municipal elections.

Entrance Examination.

In addition to those whose names were given in our last issue, the following candidates also passed the recent Entrance Examination:—

Table listing names of candidates and their scores: Watson, Flora (88); Gibson, Amy (88); Wright, James (88); Russ, Eddie (82).

Rifle Match.

A friendly match between 8 men of the Scarborough club, and 8 men of the Newton Brook club took place on the ranges of the latter club, which resulted in Scarborough winning by 48 points.

Big Club Offer.

We will furnish that excellent religious paper, The Methodist Observer, and this journal for 1888, both papers for only $1.50. The Observer is an 8 page, 40-column, weekly paper and is cheap at $1.00 a year.

Notice to Creditors.

On another page will be found a notice stating that all creditors and others having any claims against the estate of John Maxwell, late of the Township of Vaughan, in the County of York, who died on or about the 29th of October last, are requested to send such claims to Messrs. Mulock, Tilt, Miller, Crowther and Montgomery, 99 King St. East, Toronto, Solicitors, on or before the 14th of February next.

Extensive Credit Sale.

Mr. Salem Eckardt will sell by auction the farm stock, implements, and household furniture of Mr. John B. Campbell, Lot 13 4th Con. Vaughan, on Wednesday, Jan. 18th. As the sale is an unusually large one it will commence at 10 o'clock.

Found.

People are daily finding their way to the new Photograph Gallery, conducted by Mr. Jos. Duncomb, of Beverley, England. He has taken some fine group pictures, such as the High School pupils, Public School pupils and many private individuals, both Cabinet Photos and ambrotypes.

Home Treatment.

Dr. G. B. Smith lectured to a large audience last Monday night on "Home Treatment," in Grace church, Elm street, under the auspices of the medical mission in connection with the above church.

A. O. U. W.

Lodge, No. 114, A. O. U. W., held its semi-monthly meeting last Tuesday evening. The following were installed as officers for the ensuing year: by Past Master, A. J. Rupert—Master Workman, J. Brown; Overseer, G. Tyndall; Recorder, T. F. McMeLion; Financier, I. Crosby; Receiver, F. McCouaghy; Guide, W. H. Glass.

Coming Again

The great "Mother Goose and her Temperance Family," consisting of Little Jack Horner, Old Woman who lived in the shoe, Jack the Giant Killer, Mother Hubbard, King Cole, Bo-Peep, Jack and Jill and others of Historic fame, will again pay Richmond Hill a visit, and give one of their unique entertainments in the Methodist Church on the evening of Monday, 23rd of Jan., in aid of the Sunday School. Look out for her! and don't miss her! See bills in a few days.

Creditors' Notice.

The Creditors of Charles E. Arnold, late of the village of Thornhill, who died the 20th of August, 1887, are notified to send by post prepaid on or before the 20th of February next to Joseph D. Booth, Bradford P. O., their christian and surnames, addresses and descriptions, a statement of their accounts and the nature of their securities (if any) held by them. After the said 20th of February the assets of the deceased will be distributed among the parties the claims of which the executor shall then have had notice. Parties are requested to govern themselves according to notice on another page.

At Zion Church.

Rev. J. J. Purcell will preach in the Zion E. L. Church, 4th Con. Vaughan, next Sunday the 15th, and on every evening during the following week. The services in connection with the opening and dedication of the new parsonage will take place on Thursday the 19th. The service will commence at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and will be conducted by the pastor.

At Murray Church.

The entertainment given in connection with the Murray Evangelical Lutheran Sabbath School on New Year's Eve passed off very nicely. Some of the friends received presents which were not only handsome but useful as well.

Opituary.

In another column will be found the death notice of Mrs. Vanderburgh, widow of the late Richard Vanderburgh, who died at her son's residence on Tuesday last, after a week's illness. Previous to this she had been in fairly good health, and the relatives and friends who observed Christmas Day with her say they never saw her in more excellent spirits.

Money to be Made.

It is said that dull times are not known by the agents for the great publishing house of George Stinson & Co., of Portland, Maine. The reason of this exceptional success is found in the fact that they always give the public that which is keenly appreciated and at prices that all can afford.

PERSONALS.

Miss Ella Rutherford is engaged as Assistant in the Eglington Public School.

Miss Simpson started on Monday last for Cookville where she has been engaged to give private tuition in the family of Lieutenant Gordon.

Mr. Frank Lazarus jr., optician, Montreal, was at the LIBERAL Store on Monday, and suited many people with the improved spectacles, to their entire satisfaction.

Mrs. E. H. Clubine and two children, who reside a short distance above Elgin Mills, returned on Thursday last from Morden, Manitoba, after an absence from home of ten weeks.

Mr. C. S. Davis and wife, of Milwaukee, Wis., Mr. S. P. Davis, of Constantine, Mich., Mr. W. W. Davis, of Arcade N. Y., and Mrs. S. J. Austin, of Ann Arbor, Mich., are the guests of their brother J. M. Davis Esq., of this village.
