Wedding Bells.

A very pleasant time was spent at the residence of Mrs. Gaby on Richmond St. on Wednesday evening of last week, the occasion being the marriage of her youngest daughter Jennie, to Mr. G. Cook, of Davisville, as announced in last week's Liberal. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Simpson, her bridesmaid was Miss Mary Davis, of Davisville, and the groomsmen was Mr. John Cook, brother of the groom. The marriage took place at 7 o'clock, after which the guests, between thirty and forty relatives and intimate friends, sat down to an excellent supper. The bride received many presents which were not only handsome and costly but useful as well. Among the presents were many pieces of choice silverware, an elegant tea set, a beautiful hanging lamp, and a $100 check from an aunt and uncle of the groom. After a few hours of social intercourse the happy couple left for Toronto taking with them the best wishes of the company. They purpose spending a couple of weeks visiting friends in different places before settling in their home in Davisville. Mrs. Cook in leaving here takes with her the respect of all, as she has been one of Richmond Hill's most industrious and esteemed young ladies. Her many friends will wish her and her fortunate husband a happy and useful life together.

Vick's Floral Guide.

We have before us Vick's Floral Guide for 1888, kindly presented by Mr. James Vick, the well known seedsman, of Rochester, N. Y. The volume has 140 pages and contains some beautiful illustrations of their flowers and plants. Those who plant their seeds year after year can best speak of their quality. It is of the utmost importance that every farmer or gardener who buys seeds should know that they come from a reliable firm, as disappointment is often met with by purchasing inferior stock. We have handled Vick's goods for the past three years and can testify that they have given excellent satisfaction. We believe the firm handles nothing but the highest grades. Never buy a lot of seeds because they are said to be cheap. It is better to have success with a few than failure with many. We will be glad to lend our Guide to any person interested.

Temperanceville.

On Monday evening of last week, Jan. 9th, a temperance meeting was held in the Methodist church of this place. Mr. Steele, of Anzora, Grand Conductor R. T. of T., addressed the meeting. At its close Temperanceville Council No. 249, Royal Templars of Temperance was organized with 20 members. The officers elect are as follows:—S. C. W. T. Beynon; V. C., Mrs. Gregory; P. C., D. Norman; Chaplain, A. Warren; Sec., J. H. Risebrough; Fin. Sec., M. A. Flatt; Treas., Mrs. Risebrough; Herald, C. Burr; Dep. Herald, L. Clarkin; Guard, Ida Gregory; Sentinel, T. H. Legge. The Council will meet on Friday evening of each week. On Friday evening following a number of the members visited Anzora Council R. T. of T., and spent a very pleasant evening. On Sunday evening the pulpit of the Methodist church was occupied by Mr. Latter, of Toronto. Mr. Latter is a young man of good ability, and gave a very earnest discourse.—Com.

Fatal Stabbing.

On Monday morning, about 8 o'clock, a convict named Neil in the Central Prison, stabbed Guard Rutledge with a knife, without any apparent reason. The unfortunate victim has since died. Before his death he made the following statement before Hugh Miller, J. P.:—"About 8.20 o'clock this morning I carried a bucket to cell 220, occupied by Neil, in the first gallery on the east side of the south wing. I put the bucket down outside the door and then opened the door so that he could take it in. He walked out and bent down as if to grab the handle, but suddenly raised himself again and stabbed me. I felt the knife cutting me. Neil swore as he plunged the knife into me. I turned to run down the stairs, and looked behind as I ran. I saw Neil following, also running. I shouted, when he wheeled around and went back to his cell. Neil and I never had any cross words nor any differences in any way. I can give no reason why he stabbed me. I did not see the knife. I walked to the warden's office, holding my hands over the wounds. After reporting the attack to Mr. Massie I swooned. I believe that I am in a dangerous condition." The jury empanelled to try Neil returned a verdict of wilful murder.

Mass Meeting.

The mass meeting held last evening in connection with the Methodist Church Convention of the Richmond Hill Circuit was of a most interesting and beneficial nature, and was thoroughly enjoyed by men, women and children who turned out in sufficient force to comfortably fill the auditorium of the large church. The chair was ably filled by Rev. Mr. Simpson, who also addressed the Sabbath School children. He portrayed to them bible stories in imaginary pictures so graphically that the youngest child could not fail in recognizing the characters instantly. Mr. H. Hopper, Victoria Square, addressed the parents. He threw out many useful thoughts and warned parents to set a good example to their children by their daily walk through life, otherwise precepts would have little influence for good. Rev. Mr. Rutledge followed with an address to Sabbath School workers. He said many things which should encourage teachers in their work, and stated that to teach successfully the lesson must be thoroughly prepared. The proceedings were interspersed with singing. At the beginning of the meeting Mr. Rutledge read the minutes of the Convention held during the day, a full report of which will be given in our next issue.

PERSONALS.

Mr. J. E. Tyndall left on Monday for Toronto where he will attend the Normal School during the Winter term.

Mr. J. McCaffrey, of Woodstock, formerly of Patterson, was in the village on Monday calling on old friends. He reports things booming in the Patterson works, some 225 hands being now employed.

Rev. W. W. Perceval is billed to deliver a lecture this (Thursday) evening, at Kettleby, the subject being "The Sabbath School, an important factor in the stability and well being of the commonwealth." The lecture will be given under the auspices of the North York Sabbath School Association.

Great excitement throughout the neighborhood of Richmond Hill over a very startling letter received from Wm. Turner, of Whitechurch, speaking in the highest terms of "Japanese Catarrh Cure." He says, "I have used one box, and I think one more will cure me. Mine was a very bad case of catarrh." Cures stuffing of the nose so troublesome to children, cold in the head, nose or throat. Sample box, 25 cents; large size, 50 cents. Joseph Dilworth, Chemist, 170 King St. East, next door to Nipissing Hotel, Toronto.

DEATHS.

MANUFACTURERS' FORCED SALE!

Owing to the heavy bank failures and the great stringency in the money market we have had offered to us and have completed arrangements for the purchase of some enormous lots of goods—for cash—at prices never before thought of even by the most idle dreamer. Everywhere throughout the Dominion the increased rate of discount and the scarcity of money are causing the over-gorged and plethoric manufacturers to "clamor aloud for clemency." Great firms are today almost tottering into bankruptcy. Wealthy mill-owners and manufacturers are now, for the first time since 1857, "on their knees," and unless confidence can be restored to the business community and the present apprehension of danger averted, who can tell what dire calamity may befall the country? While this state of things continues the tremendous efficacy of "hard cash," like the philosopher's stone of old, is working marvels and prodigies indeed. For the next thirty days, or while the goods last, or the manufacturers will supply goods at similar prices, we offer:
