A Pugilistic Editor. In its last issue the editor of the Aurora Borealis refers to the York Tribune as being a "bellicose foundling," and wonders why it cannot mind its own business and let peaceable journals alone. But on the same page he gives a graphic description of a black eye and banda ed hand, the result of a combat between himse f and one of Aurora's amateur pugilists, in which the last named came out second best. This young man, who new trying his hand ou an opponent who may be | information, and thanks them for their offer cross-eyed, but in future he will decline tackling a fellow who strikes with the left hand. Ladies Entertained.

A special meeting of the W. C. T. Union of this place was called on Monday evening at the residence of Mrs. Currier, the President, the business being to consult the ladies upon what form of entertainment should be extended to the ladies of the Aurora W. C. T. U., who, upon invitation, were to visit the temperance friends of Richmond Hill on our best local talent to be given in the Temperance Hal, with a luncheon at its close. Accordingly at the expected time a large load of ladies presented themselves at the Hall, where they were welcomed most heartily by the friends con-Mr. Naughton & Bro., two lots above the gregated. As soon as the visitors were made comfortable after their drive, the meeting was called to order by the President, who occupied the chair as Mistress of Ceremonies, and performed the duties of that cffice with the best of satisfaction. The first in order was an address from Mrs. Johnston, of Aurora, who not only gave an account of the work of the Union in that town, but of tem perance work in general. She spoke of a week's temperance revival in Aurora, and said that much good had been done. In speaking of the work of the Unions she said that an onlooker would never know what good was being accomplished by them in a quiet way, and gave instances in proof of her ed upon, and gave an encouraging address. rendered :-Selections, Nellie's Blue Eyes and Peek-a-Boo

A Letter from France.

A few days ago Mr. Andrew Russell, 1st Deputy-Reeve of Vanghan, received a letter from Mr. David J. Grahame, nephew of Miss Ann Morrison, an elderly woman who is now in Toronto, in a Home for Aged People. It will be remembered that some few months ago Ann Morrison was taken to the Home by Mr. Malloy, Reeve of Vaughan, as she imagined she had been robbed of a large sum of money, and was not considered capable of taking care of herself. The letter spoken of above was in reply to one sent by Mr. Russell to Mrs. Grahame, only sister of the said Ann Morrison. Mrs. Grahame's home is in Glasgow, Scotland, but she is at present travelling in France with her son for the benefit of their health. The letter is dated from Biarritz. The writer conveys his wears a "shaded optic," says he don't mind | thanks to Mr. Russell and Mr. Malloy for the of assistance. MANUFACTURERS'

FORCED

Owing to the heavy bank failures and the great stringency in the money market we have had offered to us and have completed arrangements for the purchase of some enormous lots of goods-for cash-at prices never before thought of even by the most idle dreamer. Everywhere throughout the Dominion the increased rate fo discount and the scarcity of money are causing the over-gorged and plethoric manutacturers to "clamor aloud for clemency." Great firms are today almost tottering into bankruptcy. Wealthy mill-owners and manufacturers are now, for the first time since 1857, "on their knees," and unless confidence can be restored to the business community and the present apprehension of danger averted, who can tell what dire calamity may befall the country? While this state of things continues the tremen. . dous efficacy of "hard cash," like the philosopher's stone of old, is working marvels and prodigies indeed. For the next thirty days, or while the goods last, or the manufacturers will supply goods at similar prices, we offer:
