DEATH OF EMPEROR WILLIAM

The death of the Emperor William must soon show what measure of truth there is in the predictions of those who have declared that German unity depended altogether on the life of one man. William is gone, and Frederick has quietly and naturally succeeded him. And in our opinion not a cloud threatens the proud and mighty fabric erected by the Hohenzollern dynasty and its able and patriotic statesmen and warriors. Nor can we see reason for thinking that the death of Bismarck and Von Moltke could retard much less demolish the great empire. It is rare to find in history the rise of a great power so implicated with the life of one man that its collapse ensued as the result of his demise. On the other hand, with seldom an exception, there is no end of examples that to the state in particular as to the world at large, no man is absolutely necessary. Germany's greatness is founded on the greatness of the German people. Too long a prey to French ambition and Austrian reactionism, from the latter she freed herself in 1866 at Sadowa, and from the former in 1870 at Sedan. And a calamity to the great bulwark of European civilization would be an evil so immense that it must be a matter of congratulation to all lovers of the human race that the German empire is founded on the best and truest patriotism.

THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL'S BILL

Mr. Mowat's "Manhood Suffrage Act" is a short but very important document. Section 2 provides that "property or income qualification for voters as respects the Legislative Assembly is abolished." Section 3 declares that "every male person of the full age of twenty-one years, a subject of Her Majesty by birth or naturalization, shall, if duly entered on the list of voters proper to be used, be entitled to vote at elections to serve in the Legislative Assembly of this Province." In these two short sentences we have the pith of the Act. No one is prohibited from voting, except for disqualification due to criminality, unsound mind or to the receipt of Municipal or Provincial charity.

It can hardly be contended that in this Manhood Suffrage Act there is a scheme for disfranchising or harassing the voters of an opposite party. The act secures to all without fear or favor the fullest and easiest means of taking part in the Government of the Province. We are not sanguine enough to even dream that this measure of fair play and justice will incline the Dominion Parliament to a spirit of emulation. The powers at Toronto and those at Ottawa are separated in this way by too broad a gulf.

TOO MUCH LOYALTY.

It is certainly time that Canadians should receive from Englishmen a definition of the word 'loyalty.' We refer especially to those Englishmen who have made their home in Canada, and who would, like thousands of others, have spent a life of pinching poverty had they not emigrated. It really ought not to matter much to the genuine Canadian what is thought by those who, while sharing all the benefits conferred by a young and splendid country, have yet no regard for any place except that which gave them birth, but refused to give them a subsistence. Yet these wooden-headed fools are a power in the land not by reason of wit, eloquence or even common sense. But with piggish ingratitude, inspired by the spirit of toadyism, they actually frighten Canadians by shouting 'Loyalty forever! Down with traitors.' It is high time that Canadians should realize that 'loyalty' means among other things the Washington Treaty and the recent surrender of our Fisheries. Now how much of that article, that loyalty, ought a patriotic Canadian to have?

DANGEROUS COUNTERFEITS.—Counterfeits are always dangerous, more so that they always closely imitate the ORIGINAL IN APPEARANCE AND NAME. The remarkable success achieved by Nasal Balm as a positive cure for Catarrh and Cold in the Head has induced unprincipled parties to imitate it. The public are cautioned not to be deceived by nostrums imitating Nasal Balm in name and appearance, bearing such names as Nasal Cream, Nasal Balsam, etc. Ask for Nasal Balm and do not take imitation dealers may urge upon you. For sale by all druggists or sent post-paid on receipt of price (50c. or $1) by addressing Fulford & Co., Brockville, Ont.

King City.

The two Blacksmiths of our town challenged any two of the Rifle Club to shoot a friendly match. C. H. Hall and Dr. Norman accepted and were beaten 5 points. Two others will shoot against them next Saturday.

A few days ago Katie Butt, daughter of Thomas Butt, was taken violently ill. Dr. Norman and Dr. Orr were summoned. She grew worse, her suffering being so great that they had to give her Morphine. She gradually sank and the Drs. were unable to arrive at any conclusion as to her ailment. On Thursday or Friday of last week it was supposed she could only live a few hours and the parents were acquainted with the fact. Her sisters were telegraphed for, but in a short time she took a change for the better and on last Sunday she was dressed and running about the house the same as usual. It was certainly a strange case and the Drs. are at a loss to correctly diagnose her complaint.

Miss May, of Oshawa, commenced special meetings in the Methodist Church last Sabbath evening. The house was filled to the door. We look forward to a great work being accomplished during her stay. Although our town is not so bad as some we could mention still there is room for improvement.

GOOD NEWS.—It isn't generally understood that the electric light may some day or other line the farmers' pathway up Yonge Street to Richmond Hill. Won't that be grand? In the meantime, I would advise every farmer along the route and every concession to use the great Rock Spring Coal Oil. The price is so low that you will hold your breath when you hear it pronounced by Dilworth the Druggist, between the Clyde and Nipissing Hotels, Toronto.

Invention has revolutionized the world during the last half century. Not less among the wonders of inventive progress is a method and system of work that can be performed all over the country without encumbering the workers from their homes. (For Liberal) any one can do the work; either sex, young or old; no special ability required. Capital not needed; you are started free. Cut this out and return to us and we will send you free, something of great value and importance to you, that will start you in business, which will bring you in more money right away, than any other job in the world. Grand outfit free. Address: A. C. True & Co. Augusta, Maine.

A strange phenomenon, which was strangely beautiful, excited the admiration of a large crowd standing close to Joseph Hall's store, the heavens seemed radiant with splendor. On a closer inspection it was found it was a reflection of a number of garments on a clothes line stretched across the lawn, which had just been dyed with Sun-Set Dyes. Only five cents a package. Sold at Dilworth's Drug Store, Toronto.

RICHLY rewarded those who read this and acted; they will find honorable employment that will not take them from their homes and friends. One outfit a large and sure for every individual person, many have made and are now making over at least $100 a month. It is easy to learn to make $5 and upwards per day who are going to you. Either sex; young or old; capital not needed; we have you. Every thing new. No special ability required; you are started free. We will give you a list of names of our agents, and you can use one for a trial, or call on us. Write to us at once for a list of agents, who we will mail free. Address: A. C. True & Co., 20 Grand, Maine.

DISASTROUS.—The most intense excitement is felt in the flourishing village of Richmond Hill and its surroundings, as facts are revealed, of numerous families who are dyeing, in the most beautiful colors; in fact all the colors of the rainbow, by using the popular Sun Set Dyes, only five cents a package. Sold in the city only by Joseph Dilworth, the Druggist, 170 King St. East, between the Clyde and Nipissing Hotels, Toronto.

SOOOTHING, CLEANSING, HEALING. It cures CATARRH, Cold in Head, HAY FEVER. STOPS Droppings from Nasal passages into the throat and excessive expectoration caused by Catarrh. Sold by Druggists, or sent pre-paid on receipt of price, 50c. and $1. Address FULFORD & Co., Brockville, Ont.
