Successful Operation.

We clip the following local from a newspaper published in Delavan, Illinois, in reference to Mr. Nattress, who, a couple of years ago practised here as a Veterinary Surgeon. His friends will be glad to learn he is meeting with success as a Vet. "Dr. J. T. Nattress, veterinary surgeon, performed a rather difficult feat in surgery, on a horse belonging to Lewis Brown, on Monday last, removing two badly decayed teeth, by boring holes through each side of the horse's head and driving the teeth out from the upper part of the jaws, the teeth being in such a badly decayed condition as to render pulling in the usual way almost impossible. The treatment was successful and the horse has made a complete recovery."

Neville is selling Tweed & worsted suits to order to people who never bought clothes on the Hill before. Low prices for good Tweeds does it.

Run-a-Way.

Last Monday a team of horses owned and driven by Mr. J. Lesckie made things lively for a short time in the north end of the village. When the driver had alighted from his wagon at Mr. Hall's store, the horses became frightened at something and made a spring forward. He grabbed the lines, but on giving them a quick jerk one of them broke, and the animals ran across the street in front of the Methodist Church. Having struck the boulevard, they ran up on to the lawn, tearing out two small maple trees and bending another to the ground. They then galloped close to the residence of Sanderson Bros., and wheeled again into the street. By this time they had become loosened from the wagon, and started at a lively pace northward. They were captured near the 2nd Con. of Markham, apparently none the worse for their adventure. James was pretty roughly handled during the first part of the episode, and now goes around with a short step and a long one.

A meeting for the purpose of re-organizing the Young Canadian Lacrosse Club was held in the Lorne Hall on Monday evening. Messrs. O'Neill and McCutcheon, of Bolton, were in the village last Sunday. The better the day the better the deed.

The Pickwickians have adjourned their weekly meetings till the Autumn. House cleaning will "bust" any female institution.

Hon. Thos. White, Minister of the Interior, died at his residence, in Ottawa, on Saturday last. The greatest sympathy is shown on every hand.

We are glad to see that Mr. Bert Andrews has so far recovered as to be able to walk out again. He was down as far as the Methodist Church yesterday afternoon.

One of the small fry of the village accidently broke a pane of plate glass yesterday afternoon in the window of Mr. A. L. Skeele's jewelry store. The pane was worth $25. There appears to be a doubt as to which of two boys threw the unlucky stone.

At the residence of Mr. & Mrs. Copp, 76 Isabella St. Toronto, a large number of friends gathered last evening, the occasion being the marriage of their cousin, Miss Annie Davies, to Mr. Chas. M. Palmer, of this village. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock.

Kleinburg.

From our own Correspondent Thos Readman, of Kleinburg, buried his wife on Tuesday of last week. She was 24 years old, and left three small children all requiring a mother's care, as the oldest one is blind. He has the deep sympathy of the entire neighborhood in his sad affliction.

A serious accident befel Mrs. John Hodgson about one week ago. She fell coming into the house and broke her thigh bone. On account of her age it will likely be a long time till she is able to get around again. Farmers are afraid of their fall wheat, as it has uncovered badly, and we have had very heavy frosts nearly every night. The spring is late, and we have not been able to do any seeding yet, in fact, few farmers are able to plow even on the highest land.

Sensible Argument

REASONABLE REASONING

Persons often ask themselves the question, "Why it is that the public from the Suburbs flock to our store to buy their wares while others as favorably located are comparatively idle?" It is a well known fact that women are closer shoppers than men. It is a well known fact that your wife can invariably tell you in which store she can save in making her purchases. We are led to this reasoning by watching the great number of ladies that have become regular customers at our establishment from adjacent places, and it has become a household proverb that the Mammoth is the
