The election of Separate School trustee for St. Andrew's Ward, Toronto, in which the principle of the introduction of the ballot was the chief issue, resulted in the return of Mr. T. W. Anglin, the anti-ballot candidate, by a majority of 95.

At yesterday's meeting of the committee on the Division of the Diocese of Ontario, a proposition was presented from Rev. Dr. Mountain offering to give $5,000 towards an episcopal residence, and to go to England and endeavor to raise $10,000 towards the endowment fund, on certain conditions.

A special cablegram to The Mail gives a synopsis of the half yearly meeting of the Grand Trunk Railway Company held recently in London. "Sir Henry Tyler, referring to the newly constituted company, said that while it was not in every respect what he could have wished, there was no occasion for despondency in the future. While local causes, such as bad harvests, bank failures, the unfair rivalry of American companies, and the adverse working of the Inter-State law had operated unfavourably, he saw signs of improvement ahead. He thought that the Canadian Government, which had been so liberal to the Canadian Pacific, should extend some of their smiles to the Grand Trunk. The dividends, as previously announced, were adopted.

UNITED STATES.

Sam Small is anxious to become Governor of Georgia.

N. P. B. Wells, treasurer of the Seneca Falls Savings Bank, was arrested for embezzlement.

Experiments in connection with antidotes for snake bites are in progress at the Smithsonian Institution, New York.

A Kansas woman worth a million dollars has married an hotel waiter. This is a good opportunity to ring in that axiom, "Everything comes to him who waits."

Norfolk, Va., claims the distinction of being the world's greatest peanut market. It dispenses every year of 2,000,000 bushels of peanuts, most of which are grown in Virginia.

The loss to the manufacturing interests of the city of Winona, Minn., by the floods is estimated at $1,000,000. The lumbering interest alone loses $250,000. The river is four miles wide at Winona.

A farmer near Flint, Mich., is mourning the death of two geese that he had kept for 50 years. They quit raising goslings 25 years ago and after that he kept them to help take care of the broods of other geese.

Judge Hare, of Philadelphia, recently gave this advice to a wife-beater who was discharged upon the appeal of the abused woman:—"When you find yourself getting angry again fill your mouth with water and keep it shut till you cool off."

Mr. Phelps, the United States Minister to England, wears a suit of West of England tweed, with hat and overgaiters of the same material. He is followed by a footman in livery, who, the Pittsburgh Chronicle alleges, carefully picks up the h's that his august master drops.

Mr. Gilbert Fraser, British Vice-Consul at New York, is accused of sharp practice against discharged sailors by compelling them to pay for a passage to Liverpool to receive payment of sums due them. The matter is to be laid before the British Government.

Most of the pupils of a young ladies boarding school at Buffalo wear birds in their hats, and the other day some one placed a crumb of bread in each of their bills. They were a funny-looking lot of hats and most of the owners wore them out in the street before the trick was discovered.

When Thomas Jefferson was chosen President of the United States Elder John Leland, a Baptist clergyman of Cheshire, Mass., proposed that his flock should celebrate the victory by making for the new chief magistrate the biggest cheese the world had ever seen. Every man and woman who owned a cow was to give for this cheese all the milk yielded on a certain day only—no federal cow must contribute a drop. A huge cider press was fitted up to make it in, and on the appointed day the whole country turned out with pails and tubs of curd, the girls and women in their best gowns and ribbons, and the men in their Sunday coats and clean shirt collars. The cheese was put to press with prayer and hymn singing and great solemnity. When it was well dried it weighed 1,600 pounds. It was placed on a sleigh and Elder John Leland drove with it all the way to Washington. It was a journey of three weeks. All the country had heard of the big cheese and came out to look at it as the elder drove along.

FOREIGN.

Four hundred ejection decrees have been issued by the Galway Quarter Sessions.

In replying to an address presented to him by the Nationalist students of Dublin, Mr. O'Brien said it was curious that an address that had been prepared to celebrate his release from prison marked his return to prison.

The Czar of Russia is said to do much more work than any of his Ministers, and can be found at his desk at almost any hour of the day. He rises before any of his household, attends mass every morning and is scrupulously exact in the performance of all his religious duties.

Mr. Chamberlain, in a speech before the Birmingham Radical Union, said he found very few persons in America who approved of Mr. Gladstone's Irish policy, and he believed if the American democracy had to deal with the subject they would make short work of the monstrous pretensions of the National League.

The Emperor William was not without humour and loved a quiet joke. It is told that once at a hunt the huntsmen laid 23 head of game before him, which they said he had killed. He smiled and quoted:—"There are more things in Heaven and earth than are dreamt of in your philosophy." Adding:—"For is it not a miracle that I should have killed 23 head while I had only 25 cartridges?"

The ancient Prussian custom of holding a "Black Drawing-room" after the monarch's death was honoured in the breach in the case of the late emperor, formerly in Prussia, so soon as the king was dead, all the Ministers of the Crown, Foreign Ministers, and the Court generally, repaired in full dress to the palace. The first rooms they entered were brilliantly lit up, but gradually as they went through the different apartments leading to the throne room, the lighting became dimmer, and dimmer, till this last being reached it was found in semi-darkness. Around the throne were grouped series of waxwork figures, deeply veiled with black, representing the chief members of the new Court, and before these all the high dignitaries solemnly passed, bowing themselves out back wards. The wisdom of dropping such grotesque mummery is scarcely open to question.

Asleep on the Railroad Track.

A little child, tired of play, had pilloved his head on a rail and fallen asleep. The train was almost upon him when a passing stranger rushed forward and saved him from a horrible death. Perhaps you are asleep on the track, too. You are, if you are neglecting the biliousness and constipation which trouble you, in the hope that you will "come all right." Wake up, or the train will be upon you! Constipation is too often the forerunner of a general "breaking up." Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets will regulate your liver, stomach and bowels, and restore your system to its normal condition.
